Paris By Night:

Paris by Night Brassai, 2001 Roaming Paris streets by night in the early 1930s Brassai created arresting images of the city's dramatic nocturnal landscape First published in French in 1932 this new edition brings one of Brassai's finest works back into print The back alleys metro stations and bistros he photographed are at turns hauntingly empty or peopled by prostitutes laborers thugs and lovers Paris by Night is a stunning portrait of nighttime in the City of Light as captured by its most articulate observer 62 photos

Guy Debord and the Situationist International Tom McDonough, 2004-02-27 Critical texts translations documents and photographs on the work of the Situationist International This volume is a revised and expanded version of a special issue of the journal October Winter 1997 that was devoted to the work of the Situationist International SI The first section of the issue contained previously unpublished critical texts and the second section contained translations of primary texts that had previously been unavailable in English The emphasis was on the SI's profound engagement with the art and cultural politics of their time 1957-1972 with a strong argument for their primarily political and activist stance by two former members of the group T J Clark and Donald Nicholson-Smith Guy Debord and the Situationist International supplements both sections It reprints important hard to find essays by Giorgio Agamben Libero Andreotti Jonathan Crary Thomas Y Levin Greil Marcus and Tom McDonough and doubles the number of translations of primary texts which now encompass a broader and more representative range of the SI's writings on culture and language In a field still dominated by hagiography the critical texts were selected for their willingness to confront critically the history and legacy of the SI They examine the group within the broader framework of the historical and neo avant gardes and beyond that the postwar world in general The translations trace the SI's reflections on the legacy of the avant garde in art and architecture particularly on the linguistic and spatial significance of montage aesthetics Many of the translated works are by Guy Debord 1932-1994 the impresario of the SI especially known for his book The Society of the Spectacle

Forgotten British Film Philip

Gillett,2017-05-11 Some films are remembered long after they are released others are soon forgotten but do they deserve oblivion Are factors other than quality involved This book exhumes some of the films released in Britain over the last seventy years from Daybreak 1948 to 16 Years of Alcohol 2003 and considers the reasons for their neglect As well as exploring the contributions of those involved in making the films the book examines such issues as marketing and the response of critics and audiences Films are grouped loosely into categories such as B films and television films Some works were little seen when they were first released and have stayed that way others were popular in their day but have slipped into obscurity In some cases social change has overtaken them making the attitudes or subjects they depict seem dated Even being released as a DVD does not guarantee that a title will be rehabilitated In addition how significant is the American market This book should appeal to lovers of British film as well as to film studies students and everybody curious about the vagaries of success and failure in the arts American Photo ,2001-05 Street Photography Clive Scott,2020-09-14 Street photography is perhaps the best loved and most widely known of all photographic genres with names like Cartier Bresson Brassai and Doisneau familiar even to those with a fleeting knowledge of the medium Yet what exactly is street photography From what viewpoint does it present its subjects and how does this viewpoint differ from that of documentary photography Looking closely at the work of Atget Kertesz Bovis Rene Jacques Brassai Doisneau Cartier Bresson and more this elegantly written book extensively illustrated with both well known and neglected works unpicks Parisian street photography's affinity with Impressionist art as well as its complex relationship with parallel literary trends and authors from Baudelaire to Philippe Soupault Clive Scott traces street photography's origins asking what really what happened to photography when it first abandoned the studio and brings to the fore fascinating questions about the way the street photographer captures or frames those subjects traders lovers entertainers so beloved of the genre In doing so Scott reveals street photography to be a poetic even picturesque form looking not to the individual but to the type not to the reality of the street but to its romance Alien Encounters Thuy Linh Nguyen Tu,Mimi Thi Nguyen,2007-04-17 A collection of essays that examine the production and consumption of Asian American popular culture from musical expression to television cooking shows The Homemaker ,1892 The Complete Book of 1900s Broadway Musicals Dan Dietz,2022-07-15 Broadway musicals of the 1900s saw the emergence of George M Cohan and his quintessentially American musical comedies which featured contemporary American stories ragtime flavored songs and a tongue in cheek approach to musical comedy conventions But when the Austrian import The Merry Widow opened in 1907 waltz driven operettas became all the rage In The Complete Book of 1900s Broadway Musicals Dan Dietz surveys every single book musical that opened during the decade Each musical has its own entry which features the following Plot summaryCast membersCreative teamSong listsOpening and closing datesNumber of performancesCritical commentaryFilm adaptations recordings and published scripts when applicable Numerous appendixes include a chronology of book musicals by season chronology of revues chronology of revivals of Gilbert and Sullivan operettas genres The collection of texts is seen as inherently self referential and politically subversive At the centre of each typology is a protagonist who functions as a martyr to or parodic emblem of contemporary society Consistently the hermeticism of public institutions which represent the political status quo makes them immune from any form of individual protest from the Left or Right In the satirical anatomy the emblem of political dissent is coopted by involvement within the institution or the stage is dominated by a conservative who controls the action In the demythology private individuals are seen as incapable of altering the public frame of history but here private suffering subverts the collective mythology of the historical construct In the martyrology the emblem of dissent is associated with a moral virtue which is inimical to contemporary society the audience's expectation of the triumph of the individual being subverted when he/she is expelled from the onstage world on the grounds of political ideology It is only in the final typology the conversion that a conservative emblem is seen as directly influenced by such martyrdom and the audience is provided with an actual example of political change Thus the study describes how each typology builds on the construction of the previous and all generate from agitational propaganda

Six Contemporary Dramatists Duncan Wu, 1996-12-18 A most illuminating study John Bayley Six Contemporary Dramatists explores in a straightforward manner the central concerns of six of the most important contemporary dramatists It demonstrates how the work of Alan Bennett Dennis Potter Simon Gray Howard Brenton David Hare and Alan Ayckbourn is essentially moral and relates their aspirations to the British romantic tradition of the last century At the same time Duncan Wu explores how each writer has responded to the changes that took place in personal and public ethics during the 1980s as a result of Thatcherism He also includes an interview with Alan Ayckbourn published here for the first time in which the volume's themes are focused and summarised For the paperback edition a substantial preface discussing Tom Stoppard's Arcadia David Hare's Skylight and David Edgar's Pentecost has been added This is an essential and readable guide to televised and theatrical drama for students and theatregoers alike

Writing Left-Handed David Hare, 2014-07-31 The leading British writer/director of his generation David Hare is also one of the most productive The last two years have seen the outstanding success of two stage plays The Secret Rapture and Racing Demon and the release of two films Paris by Night and Strapless The pieces collected here written left handed form both a concealed professional autobiography and a lucid commentary on his work

House of Glass Yao Souchou, 2003-08-01 Drawing on critical theory and post modernism this book argues for a new strategy for writing about the social and cultural experiences of living in modern Southeast Asian states Contributors many of whom work in universities in the region question the processes of cultural transformation under conditions of globalization and rapid economic and political change By paying attention to the specificity of what is taking place in the particular state the book questions the conventional narratives of developmentalism and state sponsored national peace as they are understood in Southeast Asia and shows how such understanding can be made and unmade
