Paris Notebooks:

The Paris Notebook Cynthia Harrison, 2012-07-18 As the girlfriend of a rock star Deena Smith traveled the world in style Now she's moved on and enjoys a quiet life as a college instructor When she discovers her rocker ex stole a notebook of her song lyrics and claimed them as his own Deena is determined to do whatever it takes to get her notebook back even if it means playing nice with her evil ex But when her co worker offers to help restore her work little does she know her quiet little world will be turned upside down Sympathetic to Deena's plight Jack Karris offers to assist He can't stand the idea someone would wound her so deliberately But despite the desire that sparks between them Jack can't wait to leave the small university town behind Deena is his unwitting ticket to New York and although she has zero interest in the project Jack proposes for her writing he's convinced she'll also find a dream come true When the truth comes out and Jack's good intentions are revealed Deena must decide is he the sincere man she's come to trust or is he just out to steal whatever he can including her heart

Paris Notebooks Mavis Gallant, 1986 Travelers visitors and expatriates Gallant's characters have left homes that don't quite suit them They find themselves in damp Italian villas or Moscow opera houses or Catalan circus arenas or Genevan hospitals their loves or families on the verge of crumbling if not already lost Most will survive but in the moments the author chooses to describe them they are desperately blind to their errors of judgment or their quiet tragedies Gallant Canadian born but a Parisian since 1950 is a master of short story form and style her language avoids flourishes for real craft and her wisdom is often astounding
