Contact Point, 1927 Jean Epstein Christophe Wall-Romana, 2016-05-16 If cinema can be approached as poetry and philosophy it is because of Jean Epstein Cocteau Buñuel who was his assistant Hitchcock Pasolini and Godard and theoreticians Kracauer Deleuze and Rancière are directly influenced by Epstein's pioneering film work writings and concepts This book is the first in English to examine his oeuvre comprehensively An avant garde artist and an anti elitist intellectual Epstein wanted to craft moments of pure transformative cinema Using familiar genres melodramas and documentaries he hoped to heal viewers of all classes and hasten social utopia A lover of cinema as cognitive and sensorial technology and a poet of the screen he pushed cinematography as photography towards the experimental sublime through daring close ups rhythmic montage slow motion even reverse motion Polish born half Jewish and the author of a treatise on homosexuality Epstein has been unfairly relegated to the shadows of film history This book restores him to the limelight of interwar world cinema on a par with Renoir Lang Capra and Eisenstein Bulletin of Bibliography and Dramatic Index, 1927

Proust's Duchess Caroline Weber, 2019-11-26 PULITZER PRIZE FINALIST A brilliant look at turn of the century Paris through the first in depth study of the three women Proust used to create his supreme fictional character the Duchesse de Guermantes Weber has done a remarkable job of bringing to life a world of culture glamour and privilege The Wall Street Journal Geneviève Halévy Bizet Strauss Laure de Sade Comtesse de Adhéaume de Cheigné and Lisabeth de Riquet de Caraman Chimay the Comtesse Greffulhe these were the three superstars of fin de siècle Parisian high society who as Caroline Weber says transformed themselves and were transformed by those around them into living legends paragons of elegance nobility and style All well but unhappily married these women sought freedom and fulfillment by reinventing themselves between the 1870s and 1890s as icons At their fabled salons they inspired the creativity of several generations of writers visual artists composers designers and journalists Against a rich historical backdrop Weber takes the reader into these women s daily lives of masked balls hunts dinners court visits nights at the opera or theater But we see as well the loneliness rigid social rules and loveless arranged marriages that constricted these women s lives Proust as a twenty year old law student in 1892 would worship them from afar and later meet them and create his celebrated composite character for The Remembrance of Things Past Architecture and Movement Peter Blundell Jones,Mark Meagher,2014-12-17 The experience of movement of moving through buildings cities landscapes and in everyday life is the only involvement most individuals have with the built environment on a daily basis User experience is so often neglected in architectural study and practice Architecture and Movement tackles this complex subject for the first time providing the wide range of perspectives needed to tackle this multi disciplinary topic Organised in four parts it documents the architect s planner s or designer s approach looking at how they have sought to deploy buildings as a promenade and how they have thought or written about it concentrates on the individual s experience and particularly on the primacy of walking which engages other senses besides the visual engages with society and social rituals and how mutually we define the spaces through which we move both by laying out routes and boundaries and by celebrating thresholds analyses how we deal with promenades which are not experienced directly but via other mediums such as computer models drawings film and television The wide selection of contributors include academics and practitioners and discuss cases from across the US UK Europe and Asia By mingling such disparate voices in a carefully curated selection of chapters the book enlarges the understanding of architects architectural students designers and planners alerting them to the many and complex issues involved in the experience of movement Modern Architecture Alan Colquhoun,2002 In this study of the international modern movement in architecture Alan Colquhoun explores the complex motivations behind its revolutionary new style and assesses its triumphs and failures Manganese United States. Bureau of Mines,1934 The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries The Catena in Marcum William Lamb,William R.S Lamb,2012-04-19 Providing the first extended English translation of the earliest anthology of patristic commentary on Mark s gospel this book provides a careful analysis of the development of this text and assesses its significance for the history of the interpretation of Mark s gospel Annual Report Zoological Survey of India,1926 Teffi Edythe Haber,2018-10-18 Teffi was one of twentieth century Russia s most celebrated authors Born Nadezhda

Lokhvitskaya in 1872 she came to be admired by an impressive range of people from Tsar Nicholas II to Lenin and her popularity was such that sweets and perfume were named after her She visited Tolstoy when she was 13 to haggle with him about the ending of War and Peace and Rasputin tried and utterly failed to seduce her After the Bolshevik Revolution of 1917 she was exiled and lived out her days in the lively Russian migr community of Paris where she continued writing and enjoying comparable fame until her death in 1952 Teffi s best stories effortlessly shift from light humour and satire to pathos and even tragedy ever more so when depicting the daunting hardships she and her fellow migr s suffered in exile While best known for her stories and feuilletons she also moved over to other genres from serious poetry to theatrical miniatures and even music and inhabited an extraordinary range of spheres connected to both high and popular culture In the first biography of her in any language Edythe Haber here brings Teffi who has recently been rediscovered in the West to resounding acclaim to life Teffi s life and works afford a unique panoramic view of the cultural world of early twentieth century Russia from the debauchery of the Silver Age to the terror and euphoria of revolution and of interwar Russian emigration But they also offer fresh insights into the seismic events from the 1905 Russian Revolution and World War II to life as a refugee that she experienced first hand and recreated in her vivid penetrating moving and witty writing Ten-year Report on the Zoological Survey of India Zoological Survey of India,1917 Annual Report on the Zoological Survey of India for the Year ... Zoological Survey of India,1917 Le Corbusier. Le Couvent Sainte Marie de La Tourette / The Monastery of Sainte Marie de La Tourette Philippe Potié,2015-04-24 in 1952 Le Corbusier was commissioned to dwell in the silence of men of prayer and study and to construct a church for them The result was his impressive Convent of La Tourette marking a significant step in modern religious architecture Beginning with the rectangular form common to the Cistercian monastic tradition he created a building whose stark form contrasts beautifully with the organic elements of the interior court and the grasslands surrounding it The church itself is a model of simplicity the cement has been left rough and the well located sources of light evoke a feeling of silence and reflection The order s precept of prayer study and reflection is aptly mirrored in the architecture Like the other Le Corbusier Guides published by Birkh user this volume provides a wealth of plans details photographs and information on this building which today is also a conference centre Immeuble 24 N.C. et Appartement Le Corbusier.
