Urban Agricultural Heritage Frank Lohrberg,Katharina Christenn,Axel Timpe,Ayça Sancar,2022-11-21 Urban gardening and agriculture have become important elements of sustainable urban planning in the context of persistent urbanization amid limited resources However a consideration of the cultural historical dimension has been lacking up to now The editors present the first comprehensive outline of traditional forms of food production in cities to help preserve this valuable knowledge On the basis of current research findings they develop new perspectives and guidelines for recognizing traditional food production systems as an aspect of cultural heritage and for dealing with urban agriculture worldwide

Valuing World Heritage Cities Tanja Vahtikari,2016-11-03 With its celebrated World Heritage List UNESCO steers the global heritage agenda through the definition and redefinition of what constitutes heritage and by offering the highest level forum for heritage professionalism While it is the national governments that nominate sites for inclusion in the World

Heritage List and the intergovernmental World Heritage Committee that makes the final decision on inclusion or non inclusion it is the International Council on Monuments and Sites ICOMOS for cultural heritage that determines whether the necessary level of outstanding universal value is met Focusing on the discourses of ICOMOS and their transmission to the local context this book is the first in depth historical analysis of the construction of heritage value in the context of cities illustrated through a case study of Old Rauma in Finland The book contributes to the understanding of the discursive and constructed nature of World Heritage values as opposed to intrinsic values critically scrutinizes the role of ICOMOS in making valuations concerning urban heritage and sheds light on the interactions and tensions of universal and local urban perspectives in the practice of heritage valuation Valuing World Heritage Cities is the first in depth historical analysis of the construction of heritage value in the context of cities in the transnational discourses of heritage This unique and timely contribution will be of interest to scholars and students working in Heritage Studies Cultural Geography Urban Studies and Tourism

General Guidelines for the Development of the Pan-European Ecological Network Council of Europe,2000-01-01 The Pan European Biological and Landscape Diversity Strategy which was endorsed by ministers from 54 countries in the UN ECE region on 25 October 1995 provides for the establishment by 2005 of the Pan European Ecological Network These Guidelines provide a reference document for all those involved in establishing and managing the network The document aims to provide a coherent framework for guiding an array of co operative decentralised measures which aim to ensure the conservation and sustainable use of the ecosystems habitats species and landscapes of European importance

Heritage in War and Peace Gianluigi Mastandrea Bonaviri,Mirosław Michał Sadowski,2024-02-22 This edited collection which brings together nearly fifty authors from across the globe and various disciplines makes a valuable contribution to the field of conservation covering a wide range of topics regarding the protection of heritage in times of war and peace Uniquely linking the two typically separate perspectives the book builds on the wealth of discussions that took place during the 2021 and 2022 installments of the international Heritage in War and Peace

Seminars held in Rome and Montreal respectively. Issues explored in the volume include but are not limited to questions surrounding the protection of contentious heritages, unsustainability of the current dichotomic cultural/natural heritage protection frameworks, digitalization of heritage, place of heritage in military conflicts, use of heritage by armed non-state actors, indigenous peoples' relationships with heritage, the intersection of intellectual property (IP) law and heritage, human rights matters linked to heritage protection and the latest case studies surrounding restitution. Given its scope, the book will be of particular interest not only to practitioners and conservation specialists but also to academics and students in the broader social sciences and humanities and to all those who hope to preserve our heritage for future generations.

Experiencing Persian Heritage Antónia Correia, Metin Kozak, Ana Isabel Rodrigues, 2019-09-06. The book analyses new perspectives and challenges for the development of tourism and hospitality in emerging international destinations based on Iran as a heritage destination.

The Routledge Companion to Intangible Cultural Heritage Michelle Stefano, Peter Davis, 2016-12-08. This collection provides an in-depth and up-to-date examination of the concept of Intangible Cultural Heritage and the issues surrounding its value to society. Critically engaging with the UNESCO 2003 Convention for the Safeguarding of the Intangible Cultural Heritage, the book also discusses local-level conceptualizations of living cultural traditions, practices and expressions and reflects on the efforts that seek to safeguard them. Exploring a global range of case studies, the book considers the diverse perspectives currently involved with intangible cultural heritage and presents a rich picture of the geographic, socioeconomic and political contexts impacting research in this area. With contributions from established and emerging scholars, public servants, professionals, students and community members, this volume is also deeply enhanced by an interdisciplinary approach which draws on the theories and practices of heritage and museum studies, anthropology, folklore studies, ethnomusicology and the study of cultural policy and related law. The Routledge Companion to Intangible Cultural Heritage undoubtedly broadens the international heritage discourse and is an invaluable learning tool for instructors, students and practitioners in the field.

Architectural Conservation in Asia John H. Stubbs, Robert G. Thomson, 2016-11-10. The first comprehensive overview of architectural conservation in Asia. Internationally renowned author John Stubbs follows up on the success of his previous volumes Time Honored: A Global View of Architectural Conservation and Architectural Conservation in Europe and the Americas. Architectural conservation is a rapidly expanding and under-researched field in Asia and international experts are often brought in making the subject of considerable interest to international academics. Boxes and case studies by local experts add depth and interest to the authors' meticulous research. A website with extra information and resources accompanies the series: <http://conservebuiltworld.com>. Heritage and Globalisation Sophia Labadi, Colin Long, 2010-06-17. This volume analyzes the politics, policy and practice of cultural heritage at the global level, identifying the major directions in which international heritage practice is moving and exploring the key issues likely to shape the cultural heritage field well into the twenty-first century. It examines the tensions between the universal claims of much heritage practice particularly that associated with the World Heritage system and national and local perspectives It explores the international legal framework developed since World War Two to protect heritage particularly at times of war and from theft showing how contemporary global problems of conflict and illicit trade continue to challenge the international legal system Heritage and Globalisation critiques the incorporation of heritage in the world economy through the policies of international development organisations and the global tourism trade It also approaches heritage from seldom considered perspectives as a form of aid as a development paradigm and as a form of sustainable practice The book identifies some of the most pressing issues likely to face the heritage industry at a global level in coming decades including the threat posed by climate change and the need for poverty reduction Providing a historically and theoretically rigorous approach to heritage as a form of and manifestation of globalisation the volume s emphasis is on contemporary issues and new fields for heritage practice
