Parliament Buildings:

Parliament Buildings Sophia Psarra,Uta Staiger,Claudia Sternberg,2023-10-30 As political polarisation undermines confidence in the shared values and established constitutional orders of many nations it is imperative that we explore how parliaments are to stay relevant and accessible to the citizens whom they serve The rise of modern democracies is thought to have found physical expression in the staged unity of the parliamentary seating plan However the built forms alone cannot give sufficient testimony to the exercise of power in political life Parliament Buildings brings together architecture history art history history of political thought sociology behavioural psychology anthropology and political science to raise a host of challenging questions How do parliament buildings give physical form to norms and practices to behaviours rituals identities and imaginaries How are their spatial forms influenced by the political cultures they accommodate What kinds of histories politics and morphologies do the diverse European parliaments share and how do their political trajectories intersect This volume offers an eclectic exploration of the complex nexus between architecture and politics in Europe Including contributions from architects who have designed or remodelled four parliament buildings in Europe it provides the first comparative multi disciplinary study of parliament buildings across Europe and across history Praise for Parliament Buildings In its totality this is an invaluable book both as a comprehensive review of the wider implications of architecture and building in culture and society and as a specific resource in the understanding of one highly specialised but profoundly significant building type Dean Hawkes Cardiff University and University of Cambridge Symbols of history and of hope theatres of struggle cradles of consensus parliamentary buildings as these diverse essays show both reflect our democracies and can help them function better David Anderson House of Lords Parliament Buildings is a brilliant interdisciplinary exploration of a fascinating topic Theoretically sophisticated empirically rich and historically informed it demonstrates the multiple ways in which politics and the built environment intersect and sheds light on the symbolic and material practices central to contemporary representative politics Duncan Bell University of Cambridge

Assembly Sean Haughey,2023-09-08 Northern Ireland's power sharing Assembly is understudied in the legislative studies literature Having been suspended or de facto suspended for around 40% of its existence conversation has tended to focus more on the wider political problems in which the Assembly has been enmeshed and less on its day to day functions as a legislature This book is the first to examine how the Assembly fulfils the four core functions of a legislature representation linkage scrutiny and policy making Using Members of the Legislative Assembly MLAs as the primary unit of analysis the book explores who and how MLAs represent their approach to cultivating links with constituents their use of parliamentary scrutiny tools and their contribution to law making The book grounds its analysis in original data sourced from elite interviews surveys parliamentary questions legislation and the Official Report of parliamentary proceedings Readers will therefore be able to reflect on whether the Assembly's often poor reputations comport with empirical realities This book contributes to debates in the legislative studies and consociational power sharing literatures and will be of interest to

China and African Parliaments Innocent Batsani-Ncube,2025-05-12 China and African Parliaments maps the political controversies surrounding the designing making and utilisation of three parliament buildings in Southern Africa that were financed and constructed by the People's Republic of China China The book is the first to explore and explain the impact of China's expanding influence in African parliaments The financing of African parliament buildings is a new and tangible phenomenon around which to understand China Africa relations the evolution of African parliaments and policy relevant mixed method fieldwork in Lesotho Malawi and Zimbabwe Data was collected through official access to all three buildings key informant interviews with political and civil society elites and focus group discussions with a cross section of ordinary citizens who live and work around the buildings The book makes two distinct contributions to the China Africa relations and African parliaments literature The first contribution is to advance a ground breaking argument that China s method of donating Parliament buildings to African countries indicates that it is targeting the institution as a site of long term influence The second contribution is to make a theoretical and comparative case to utilise discussion of the concept of African legislative institutionalisation through and in juxtaposition to these Chinese government funded parliament buildings Oxford Studies in African Politics and International Relations is a series for scholars and students working on African politics and International Relations and related disciplines Volumes concentrate on contemporary developments in African political science political economy and International Relations such as electoral politics democratization decentralization gender and political representation the political impact of natural resources the dynamics and consequences of conflict comparative political thought and the nature of the continent s engagement with the East and West Comparative and mixed methods work is particularly encouraged as is interdisciplinary research and work that considers ethical issues relating to the study of Africa Case studies are welcomed but should demonstrate the broader theoretical and empirical implications of the study and its wider relevance to contemporary debates The focus of the series is on sub Saharan Africa although proposals that explain how the region engages with North Africa and other parts of the world are of interest Series Editors Nic Cheeseman University of Birmingham Peace Medie University of Bristol and Ricardo Soares de Oliveira University of Oxford
