Parliaments and Citizens in Western Europe Philip Norton, 2020-07-24 Citizens elect the parliament but what contract takes place between citizen and parliament in between elections The authors assess the extent and nature of that contact To what extent are members of parliament accessible to the ordinary citizen And what are the implications for the legislature Can there be too much or too little contact Parliaments and Citizens in Western Europe Philip Norton, 2002 The relationship between legislatures and executives in national parliaments is well documented That between legislatures and citizens is relatively neglected These writings on that relationship in a number of European states fill the gap

Parliaments and Citizens Cristina Leston-Bandeira, 2016-04-22 The relationship between parliaments and citizens is one of the least studied subjects in legislative studies yet this is a crucial dimension to understand parliaments and the role they play in our political systems Furthermore this relationship has gained considerable visibility over the last decade thanks in part to the development of new media but also as a reaction to the trends of political apathy In a context of increasing political disengagement parliamentary discourse shifted attention from the traditionally predominant relationship with government to the relationship with citizens Issues of legitimacy became more directly associated with the link between parliament and citizens resulting in investment in new and more complex mechanisms for contact with citizens even in the more centralised systems This book looks at a wide range of case studies across Europe and beyond assessing overall strategies in the move towards stronger engagement with citizens It assesses the extent to which the shift in discourse has led to actual changes in parliamentary practice This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Legislative Studies Parliaments in Asia Nizam Ahmed, Philip Norton, 2013-09-13 This is a description and assessment of Asian parliaments It looks at the parliaments of India Bangladesh Korea Japan China Mongolia and Nepal and assesses key variables that determine the impact of parliaments Southern European Parliaments in Democracy Cristina

Leston-Bandeira, 2015-04-24 Southern European Parliaments in Democracy analyses the development of the parliaments of Greece Italy Portugal Spain and Turkey since the mid 1980s This book considers the challenges of the transition to democracy and outlines how the Parliaments of Southern Europe have adapted to the pressures of a democratic polity Its focus is an assessment of the main changes that have taken place since the periods of transition to democracy right up to the present day Chapters are country specific and consider a variety of indicators from legislation and scrutiny to the social background of MPs This book was previously published as a special issue of the Journal of Legislative Studies The Uneasy Relationships Between Parliamentary Members and Leaders Reuven Y. Hazan, Lawrence D.

Longley, 2014-04-04 The bases of uneasy member leadership relations their manifestation and sometimes resolution and the consequences of member leadership tension to effective parliamentary performance and policy making are considered in studies ranging from Germany to the US and New Zealand and globally The National Parliaments in the European Union Philipp Kiiver,2006-01-01 Bogen forser at belyse balancen mellem national parlamentarisk indflydelse og europaisk integration Fifty Years of Bangladesh Parliament M. Jashim Ali Chowdhury,2025-01-20 This book critically examines the constitutional position and contribution of the Bangladesh Parliament during the fifty years of its existence Examining the institution through a Westminster lens the book unearths how and why it behaves in an un Westminster rather say the Eastminster way This book is the first of its kind attempting a separation of powers and checks and balances inspired analysis of the Parliament vis vis Bangladesh s government judiciary and the people It explains how its internal democracy deficit arising from the country s undemocratic political parties deny the Bangladesh Parliament its rightful place within the country s constitutional design Parliamentary Communication in EU Affairs Katrin Auel,Tapio Raunio,2016-03-17 Over the last twenty years the role of national parliaments in EU affairs has gained considerable academic attention Much of the literature however has focused on parliamentary scrutiny and control in EU affairs What tends to be generally overlooked is that the parliamentary communication function is at least as important in EU politics as the control function Democratic legitimacy depends on a vibrant public debate on political solutions and alternatives to allow citizens to make informed political electoral choices and to exercise democratic control Within the EU it is precisely the opacity of policy making processes and the lack of public discourse that have been defined as core problems of democratic legitimacy Here parliaments have the potential to provide an ideal arena for the deliberation of important European issues and thus to help overcome the much lamented distance between European policy processes and the citizens Yet despite parliaments central relevance for the legitimacy of European politics the parliamentary communication function remains so far under researched The volume aims at filling this gap by providing both qualitative and quantitative comparative data on various communication efforts by national parliaments This book was originally published as a special issue in the Journal of Legislative Studies Routledge Handbook of European Politics José Magone,2014-12-17 Since the Treaty of the European Union was ratified in 1993 the European Union has become an important factor in an ever increasing number of regimes of pooled sovereignty This Handbook seeks to present a valuable guide to this new and unique system in the twenty first century allowing readers to obtain a better understanding of the emerging multilevel European governance system that links national polities to Europe and the global community Adopting a pan European approach this Handbook brings together the work of leading international academics to cover a wide range of topics such as the historical and theoretical background the political systems and institutions of both the EU and its individual member nations political parties and party systems political elites civil society and social movements in European politics the political economy of Europe public administration and policy making external policies of the EU This is an invaluable and comprehensive resource for students scholars researchers and practitioners of the European Union European politics and comparative politics eBook: Representative Government in Modern Europe, 5e GALLAGHER,2021-04-09 eBook Representative Government in Modern Europe 5e Ceremony and

Ritual in Parliament Shirin M. Rai, 2013-10-18 Ceremony and Ritual in Parliament breaks new ground in the study of legislatures. It combines mainstream historical and social science approaches with cultural theory to consider how parliamentary ritual is constructed through ceremony, space and socialisation. The focus is on the marginalised groups, especially women and members of ethnic minorities who seek inclusion as representatives in democratic legislatures. This book assesses aspects of the role that ceremony and ritual in legislatures play, especially but not exclusively in their gendered and racialised dimensions. Within this broad frame, it considers the impact of space, identity, ritual and/or ceremony on the institutional form of parliament, how power is shaped within it, how the behaviour of members is facilitated, constrained and shaped, how power and rituals interact, and how they impinge upon the relationships between representative institutions and citizens. Contributions are theoretical and empirical, comparative or single country studies of national or sub-national legislatures. They have interdisciplinary historical or postcolonial perspectives that contribute to this emerging field in the study of parliaments. This book was previously published as a special issue of the Journal of Legislative Studies.

Parliamentary Representation in France Olivier Costa, 2017-07-05 Despite real improvements since the beginning of the last decade, legislative studies are still underdeveloped in France compared to other modern democracies. This weakness is linked to the characteristics of the political system itself: the Constitution of 1958 has created a semi-presidential regime, the centrality of which has been constantly reinforced since. The French parliament is thus supposed to be extremely feeble. This lack of interest for legislative studies is also to be found in the specificities of French political sociology, which pays little attention to institutions. As a result, very few papers and books deal with French chambers and MPs. Yet they are fascinating cases of study for scholars interested in parliamentary representation, professionalization of political life and French politics. The French parliament and MPs are deeply paradoxical: MPs are very attached to the concept of national sovereignty but remain involved at local level and in surgery work; the French National Assembly is supposed to be weak but is quite active and influential; citizens are more aware of the role of MPs than it seems and their views and values are closer than predicted. This book gathers seven papers from the LEGIPAR research project 2008-2012. The project was designed by the contributors to rejuvenate French legislative studies by collecting systematic data on MPs' socio-biographical profiles and activities, conducting face-to-face interviews, gathering exhaustive data on National Assembly activity and organising focus groups to analyse citizens' perceptions of their MPs. This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Legislative Studies.

Parliamentary Opposition in Old and New Democracies Ludger Helms, 2013-10-18 Previously published as a special issue of the Journal of Legislative Studies, this volume offers a broad comparative assessment of the many faces of parliamentary opposition in different political, legal and cultural settings. Issues of political opposition and of parliamentary opposition in particular are at the very heart of the study of democratic processes in different parts of the world. Written by leading scholars in the field, this book looks both at the core features of the parliamentary opposition itself and its role in the legislative and wider political process This includes an inquiry into the manifold challenges that the parliamentary opposition in many countries has come to face in the more recent past in particular the rise of different non parliamentary opposition actors The countries covered in this volume include the old democracies of the Anglo Saxon world continental Europe and Japan and the new democracies and democratizing regimes in Central and Eastern Europe Latin America and South Africa Another chapter looks at the manifestations of parliamentary opposition within the multi level system of the European Union

Conscience and Parliament Philip Cowley, 2012-10-12 Considering how the British policy process deals with conscience issues this book covers eight topics discussed by Parliament in the last quarter of a century abortion censorship divorce Sunday trading homosexuality war crimes disability rights and animal welfare Delegation and Accountability in European Integration Torbjorn Bergman, Erik Damgaard, 2013-03-07 Analyzing the effects of the European Union on national decision making and the chain of delegation and accountability the authors look at Denmark Finland Sweden Iceland and Norway The analyses are based on principal agent perspective Opposing Europe in the European Parliament Nathalie Brack, 2017-10-20 The book provides an in depth analysis of Eurosceptics strategies in the European Parliament It explores the paradoxical situation of Eurosceptic MEPs particularly successful during EP elections how then once elected do they operate in a political system they oppose This book analyses how Eurosceptic MEPs conceive and carry out their mandate within the institution On the basis of more than 100 interviews it proposes a typology of four strategies developed by these actors It also explains the diversity of Eurosceptics strategies showing the relevance of the interaction between the institutional context and the individuals preferences With the growing success of Eurosceptic parties and the challenges they pose to the future of integration this study also reflects on the consequences of their presence for the EP and for the legitimacy of the EU This book will be of interest to students and scholars of European politics European integration comparative politics legislative studies and political parties China and African Parliaments Innocent

Batsani-Ncube, 2025-05-12 China and African Parliaments maps the political controversies surrounding the designing making and utilisation of three parliament buildings in Southern Africa that were financed and constructed by the People's Republic of China China The book is the first to explore and explain the impact of China's expanding influence in African parliaments The financing of African parliament buildings is a new and tangible phenomenon around which to understand China Africa relations the evolution of African parliaments and policy relevant debates on contemporary representative politics in Africa topics all tackled in this book The book draws on eight months of mixed method fieldwork in Lesotho Malawi and Zimbabwe Data was collected through official access to all three buildings key informant interviews with political and civil society elites and focus group discussions with a cross section of ordinary citizens who live and work around the buildings The book makes two distinct contributions to the China Africa relations and African parliaments literature The first contribution is to advance a ground breaking argument that China's method of donating Parliament buildings to African countries indicates that it is targeting the institution as a site of long term influence The second contribution is to make a theoretical and comparative case to utilise discussion of the concept of African legislative institutionalisation through and in juxtaposition to these Chinese government funded parliament buildings Oxford Studies in African Politics and International Relations is a series for scholars and students working on African politics and International Relations and related disciplines Volumes concentrate on contemporary developments in African political science political economy and International Relations such as electoral politics democratization decentralization gender and political representation the political impact of natural resources the dynamics and consequences of conflict comparative political thought and the nature of the continent's engagement with the East and West Comparative and mixed methods work is particularly encouraged as is interdisciplinary research and work that considers ethical issues relating to the study of Africa Case studies are welcomed but should demonstrate the broader theoretical and empirical implications of the study and its wider relevance to contemporary debates The focus of the series is on sub Saharan Africa although proposals that explain how the region engages with North Africa and other parts of the world are of interest Series Editors Nic Cheeseman University of Birmingham Peace Medie University of Bristol and Ricardo Soares de Oliveira University of Oxford
