Partial Portraits Henry James, 1899 Partial Portraits Henry James, Partial Portraits (Esprion Classics)

Henry James, 2021-06-17 Partial Portraits is a book of literary criticism by Henry James published in 1888. The book collected essays that James had written over the preceding decade, mostly on English and American writers. But the book also offered treatments of Alphonse Daudet, Guy de Maupassant, and Ivan Turgenev. Perhaps the most important essay was "The Art of Fiction," James' plea for the widest possible freedom in content and technique in narrative fiction. Partial Portraits (1888)

Henry James, 2012-10 This early work by Henry James was originally published in 1888 and we are now republishing it with a brand new introductory biography. Henry James was born in New York City in 1843. One of thirteen children, James had an unorthodox early education, switching between schools, private tutors, and private reading. James published his first story, "A Tragedy of Error," in the Continental Monthly in 1864 when he was twenty years old. In 1876 he emigrated to London, where he remained for the vast majority of the rest of his life, becoming a British citizen in 1915. From this point on, he was a hugely prolific author, eventually producing twenty novels and more than a hundred short stories and novellas, as well as literary criticism, plays, and travelogues. Amongst James's most famous works are The Europeans (1878), Daisy Miller (1878), Washington Square (1880), The Bostonians (1886), and one of the most famous ghost stories of all time, The Turn of the Screw (1898). We are republishing these classic works in affordable, high-quality modern editions using the original text and artwork. Partial

Portraits (Classic Reprint) Henry James, 2015-07-01 Excerpt from Partial Portraits: Mr. Elliot Cabot has made a very interesting contribution to a class of books of which our literature more than any others offers admirable examples; he has given us a biography intelligently and carefully composed. These two volumes are a model of responsible editing. I use that term because they consist largely of letters and extracts from letters; nothing could resemble less the manner in which the mere bookmaker strings together his frequently questionable pearls and shovels the heap into the presence of the public. Mr. Cabot has selected, compared, discriminated, steered an even course between meagreness and redundancy, and managed to be constantly and happily illustrative. And his work moreover strikes us as the better done from the fact that it stands for one of the two things that make an absorbing memoir a good deal more than for the other. autobiography the relation of fact and fiction biography and autobiography the ethical issues of dealing with real people the thin generic lines between novels and autobiographies and the deceptive workings of memory and how all these writers dealt with these concerns as they looked back on their lives An act of portraiture and biography as well as an act of criticism moving from London to Paris and through two world wars it also pieces together a fresh and constantly inter connecting narrative of the Modernist era in England and France The Portrait of a Lady Henry James, 1917 When Isabel Archer a young American with looks wit and imagination arrives in Europe she sees the world as a place of brightness full of possibility Rejecting suitors who offer her wealth and devotion she follows her own path and finds it leads to a dark and constricted future The Portrait of a Lady is the masterpiece of James's middle period and Isabel is his most engaging central character This edition provides a new introduction and notes and includes Henry James's own Preface Partial Portraits By Henry James Henry James, 1888 The Selected Works of Margaret Oliphant, Part II Volume 5 Valerie Sanders, Joanne Shattock, Joanne Wilkes, 2024-05-17 Margaret Oliphant 1828-97 had a prolific literary career that spanned almost fifty years She wrote some 98 novels fifty or more short stories twenty five works of non fiction including biographies and historic guides to European cities and more than three hundred periodical articles This is the most ambitious critical edition of her work Henry James's Criticism Morris Roberts, 1965 The Atlantic Monthly, 1888 Literary Celebrity and Public Life in the Nineteenth-Century United States Bonnie Carr O'Neill, 2017-10-15 Through extended readings of the works of P T Barnum Walt Whitman Ralph Waldo Emerson Frederick Douglass and Fanny Fern Bonnie Carr O'Neill shows how celebrity culture authorizes audiences to evaluate public figures on personal terms and in so doing reallocates moral intellectual and affective authority and widens the public sphere O'Neill examines how celebrity culture creates a context in which citizens regard one another as public figures while elevating individual public figures to an unprecedented personal fame Although this new publicity fosters nationalism it also imbues public life with personal feeling and transforms the public sphere into a site of divisive emotionally intense debate Further O'Neill analyzes how celebrity culture's scrutiny of the lives and personalities of public figures collapses distinctions between the public and private spheres and as a consequence challenges assumptions about the self and personhood Celebrity culture intensifies the complex emotions and debates surrounding already fraught questions of national belonging and democratic participation even as for some it provides a means of redefining personhood and cultural identity O'Neill offers a new critical approach within the growing scholarship on celebrity studies by exploring the relationship between the emergence of celebrity culture and civic discourse Her careful readings unravel the complexities of a form of publicity that fosters both mass consumption and cultural criticism The Complete Letters of Henry James, 1887-1888 Henry James, 2023-10 This seventeenth installment in the complete collection of Henry James's known and extant letters records James's ongoing efforts to care for his sister develop his work strengthen his professional status build friendships engage timely political and economic issues and maximize his income Henry
