Particulars Of My Life Part One Of An Autobiography:

Particulars of My Life Burrhus Frederic Skinner, 1984 Threads of Life Richard Freadman, 2001-02 Many autobiographers share profound questions about human life with their readers questions like To what extent was my life imposed on me To what extent did I bring it about through particular choices and actions through the activity of my own will Indeed the issue of the will is central to autobiographical writing and some of the greatest autobiographies give extended consideration to the will its nature its powers its limitations the forms of freedom constraint and expression it finds in various cultures its role in particular human lives In this new study unprecedented in subject and scope Richard Freadman offers the first sustained account of how changing theological philosophical and psychological accounts of the human will have been reflected in the writing of autobiography and of how autobiography in its turn has helped shape various understandings of the will Early chapters trace narrative representations of the will from antiquity the Greeks and Augustine to postmodernism Derrida and Barthes with particular emphasis on late modernity s culture of the will Later chapters then present detailed and powerfully original readings of autobiographical texts by Louis Althusser Roland Barthes B F Skinner Ernest Hemingway Simone de Beauvoir Arthur Koestler Stephen Spender and Diana Trilling Freadman s interdisciplinary approach to autobiography and the will includes a theoretical defense of the view that autobiographers are in varying degrees agents in their own texts Threads of Life argues that late modernity has inherited deeply conflicted attitudes to the will Freadman suggests that these attitudes now deeply embedded in contemporary cultural discourse need reexamining In this he contends reflective autobiography has an important part to play The SAGE Encyclopedia of Theory in Counseling and

Sofia Tolstaya, the Author ,2021-11-09 Dealing with the most topical questions of the time Sofia Tolstaya s artistic works from parables to short stories novellas and memoirs show deep insights into the social context of nineteenth century Russia In his lengthy review of My Life along with other Tolstaya publications in Canadian Slavonic Papers the eminent Tolstoy scholar Hugh McLean 2011 laments the fact that it has taken so long almost a century after her death to focus academic attention on Sofia Tolstaya and that there has been no unified publication of her works scattered as they are among dated journals or not published at all This book aims to help fill this lacuna by offering a critical introduction to her literary output as a writer in her own right and presenting for the first time an anthology of her main artistic works some in fresh English translation and others never translated before Shadow of Doubt Richard Freadman,2003 Incidents in My Life Daniel Dunglas Home,1874 Incidents in my Life D. D. Home,2023-06-09 Reprint of the original first published in 1872

How Not to Be Wrong Jordan Ellenberg,2015-05-26 Witty compelling and just plain fun to read Evelyn Lamb Scientific American The Freakonomics of math a math world superstar unveils the hidden beauty and logic of the world and puts its power in our hands The math we learn in school can seem like a dull set of rules laid down by the ancients and not to be questioned In How Not to Be Wrong Jordan Ellenberg shows us how terribly limiting this view is Math isn t confined to abstract incidents that never occur in real life but rather touches everything we do the whole world is shot through with it Math allows us to see the hidden structures underneath the messy and chaotic surface of our world It s a science of not being wrong hammered out by centuries of hard work and argument Armed with the tools of mathematics we can see through to the true meaning of information we take for granted How early should you get to the airport What does public opinion really represent Why do tall parents have shorter children Who really won Florida in 2000 And how likely are you really to develop cancer How Not to Be Wrong presents the surprising revelations behind all of these questions and many more using the mathematician s method of analyzing life and exposing the hard won insights of the academic community to the layman minus the jargon Ellenberg chases mathematical threads through a vast range of time and space from the everyday to the cosmic encountering among other things baseball Reaganomics daring lottery schemes Voltaire the replicability crisis in psychology Italian Renaissance painting artificial languages the development of non Euclidean geometry the coming obesity apocalypse Antonin Scalia s views on crime and punishment the psychology of slime molds what Facebook can and can t figure out about you and the existence of God Ellenberg pulls from history as well as from the latest theoretical developments to provide those not trained in math with the knowledge they need Math as Ellenberg says is an atomic powered prosthesis that you attach to your common sense vastly multiplying its reach and strength With the tools of mathematics in hand you can understand the world in a deeper more meaningful way How Not to Be Wrong will show you how History of the Meteorological Office Malcolm Walker,2011-11-14 Malcolm Walker tells the story of the UK s national meteorological service from its formation in 1854 with a staff of four to its present position as a scientific and technological institution of national and international importance with a staff of nearly two thousand The Met Office has long been at the forefront of research into atmospheric science and technology and is second to none in providing weather services to the general public and a wide range of customers around the world The history of the Met Office is therefore largely a history of the development of international weather prediction research in general In the modern era it is also at the forefront of the modelling of climate change This volume will be of great interest to meteorologists atmospheric scientists and historians of science as well as amateur meteorologists and anyone interested generally in weather prediction Incidents in My Life

Daniel Dunglas Home, 2011-03-10 The nineteenth century spiritualist and medium D D Home responds to his critics in this colourful 1872 publication The Voice of the Mother Jo Malin, 2000 Analyzing this narrative practice Malin examines ten texts by women who seem particularly compelled to tell their mothers stories Each author is in fact able to write her own autobiography only by using a narrative form that contains her mother's story at its core These texts raise interesting questions about autobiography as a genre and about a feminist writing practice that resists and subverts the dominant literary tradition Women's Rights in Islam Asmaa Shehata, 2023-11-20 The issue of Muslim women's rights never seems outdated and has become trendy in the post 9/11 environment That is the mainstream media and Western politicians often view Muslim women as victims of male patriarchy and frequently justify Western involvement in the Middle East and in other Muslim majority countries at least in part to rescue women Within this realm Nawal El Saadawi is a famous Egyptian writer whose writings focus on the struggle of Muslim women and are widely read in the Middle East and many Western societies as well Because of her bold feminist views on politics religions and gender she is described as the Simone de Beauvoir of the Arab world After the death of El Saadawi in 2021 a flurry of arguments and criticism in the Egyptian press and women's press around the world is created in which different social media platforms were filled with numerous comments and discussions of her writings and arguments Whereas some mourned El Saadawi and her dedication to women's issues others celebrated her death wishing her the worst punishment in the afterlife for what they described as her destructive thoughts This monograph genuinely analyzes her views on five controversial issues marriage polygamy divorce inheritance rights and veiling in light of Qur'anic exegeses offered by two classical scholars i.e. Muhammad ibn Jarir Al Tabari and Ismail ibn Umar Ibn Kathir and two contemporary Muslim feminists i.e. Amina Wadud and Azizah Al Hibri By taking a critical look at her views the book contributes not only to this ongoing debate but adds value to assessing El Saadawi's work and helps readers gain a greater understanding of her writings as well It also enables readers to comprehend the current tension between feminism and Islam by understanding the perspectives of both sides Since El Saadawi's writings are available in the Western countries the book would appeal to academics researchers on Islam and gender and Middle Eastern women as well as to lay audiences interested in women and gender in Muslim societies Blackwood's Magazine ,1865
