James Martineau, 1857      Parting Words Horace Bushnell, 2016-10-14 Excerpt from Parting Words A Discourse Delivered in the North Church Hartford July 3 1859 He affirms it even of a bad man though not that it will be of course his sentiment He is such a man as may well enough be much afraid to die and he may naturally hope that he will somehow be restored to his country and throne It is only the prophet s own sen timent knowing that he will not Far more clear were the truth of it if he were a good man consciously ready to die He could well enough go home to God but to be separated from the acquaintances and scenes and works in which he has lived without going home is a very different matter He loses the mortal state without gaining the immortal goes away alive into exile from his own life itself the associations it has constructed the works it has done the sympathies it has attracted the very seeds it has planted and fondly hopes to see in their growth In tracing brie y the truth of this sentiment far be it from us to speak lightly of death To close one s eyes on all that is earthly to sunder all the ties of mortal love to wind up the grand affair of trial that we call life and enter on the fixed result of it makes the point of death a center where so many mountain like thoughts crowd heavily in that we may not think of it as being otherwise than a most trying ordeal to pass We are only to see that there may be a separa tion more trying even than this About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      Parting Words. Discourses in Practice John Vincent, 2019-08-26 Practice Interpretation takes the everyday social conditions of people as they are described in the Bible and looks at emerging issues that confront today's interpreters in daily life. This volume in the Practice Interpretation series deals with the Farewell Discourses of Jesus in the Gospel of John. The key element and dynamic in the Johannine practice reflections in this volume is that John's Gospel sometimes explicitly often implicitly sets forth a continuing Jesus style practice by Jesus followers in the gospel time in the longer term behaviour of early Christian communities and in contemporary Christian disciples and communities today. Each contributor indicates this at work in very different contexts and happenings. The contributors are Leslie Francis David Blatherwick Sarah Pullin David McLoughlin Ian Wallis Nirmal Fernando John Vincent and Alan Saxby. The Farewell Discourses Adrienne von Speyr, 2012-03-22 Von Speyr continues her wonderful reflections on the Gospel of John concentrating here on The Farewell Discourses of Jesus which reveal both the heart of John's Gospel and the Heart of Our Lord. Adrienne von Speyr was a contemporary Swiss convert mystic wife medical doctor and author of some 70 books on spirituality and theology. She entered the Church under the direction of one of the greatest theologians and spiritual writers of the 20th century Fr Hans Urs von Balthasar who became her spiritual director and confessor for the last 30 years of her life. Her writings recognized as a major contribution to the great mystical writings of the Church are being translated and published by Ignatius Press. Among her most important works are Book of All Saints Confession The World of Prayer Handmaid of the Lord and The Passion from Within. Paul the Preacher; or a popular and practical exposition of his discourses and speeches as recorded in the Acts of the Apostles John EADIE (LL.D.), 1859. A Defence of the Church of England, in a series of Discourses ... on Ephesians 5, 27 Robert FOLEY (Rector of Old Swinford.), 1795. The Hour of the Redeemer: a Series of Discourses ... By M. O'Sullivan, Donnelan Lecturer for 1851 Mortimer O'Sullivan, 1853. Music Hall Discourses, Miscellaneous Sketches, Ministerial Notes, and Prison Incidents Henry Morgan, 1859. Illustrations, Expository and Practical, of the Farewell Discourse of Jesus John Brown PATTERSON, 1859. Discourses for the pulpit John Dupré, 1815. The Index, 1886. Check List for American Local History. Reprinted, with Additions, from the Bulletins of the Boston Public Library. Compiled by F. B. P. Frederick Beecher PERKINS, 1876. Check List for American Local History, 1876. The Great Controversy Tom de Bruin, 2014-12-10 The Testaments of the Twelve Patriarchs T12P one of the longest texts of the so called Old Testament Pseudepigrapha presents the fictitious farewell speeches that the twelve sons of Jacob held on their respective deathbeds. Tom de Bruin examines these twelve monologues as literary products in order to understand the function of the text for the setting in which it was composed. He approaches T12P from three directions: an analysis of the paraenetic parts, a discussion of the anthropology and a comparative examination of other contemporaneous works documenting a world view similar to T12P. These three approaches merge into a detailed discussion about the reasoning behind the admonition in T12P and identifies the fundamental message of the text: namely that each person stands between the forces of good and evil and that this person is called to constantly decide which way to follow Though T12P is still familiar with the apocalyptic origin and plays with the cosmological implications of this great controversy the text clearly puts the emphasis on the battle inside each individual It is thereby an important witness for reinterpreting and reapplying apocalyptic traditions through ethicizing them and focusing on the individual Such an individualistic application of the great controversy theme can be found in a number of other mostly Christian works revealing a similar understanding of mankind s existence and development as in T12P The analysis of the ethical reappropriation of apocalyptic traditions in T12P provides important insights into the foundations of early Christian ethics ancient anthropology and the Jewish and Christian understanding of the struggle between good and evil

John Karoline M. Lewis, 2014 Karoline M Lewis draws together the strengths of two exegetical approaches to the Gospel of John in this volume Lewis takes a broad thematic approach to the Gospel while at the same time giving exegetical and homiletical insights about individual pericopes Readers preachers and their parishioners will have a deeper appreciation of the book s unique interpretation of the Christ event and how that influences their approach to living the Christian faith in today s world Publisher
