Political Conflict in Pakistan Mohammad Waseem, 2022-04-01 This book is a major reinterpretation of politics in Pakistan Its focus is conflict among groups communities classes ideologies and institutions which has shaped the country's political dynamics Mohammad Waseem critically examines the theory surrounding the millennium long conflict between Hindus and Muslims as separate nations who practiced mingled faiths and the Hindu Muslim and Sikh renaissances that created a twentieth century clash of communities and led to partition Political Conflict in Pakistan addresses multiple clashes between the high culture as a mission to transform society and the low culture of the land and the people between those committed to the establishment's institutional constitutional framework and those seeking to dismantle the colonial state between the corrupt and those seeking to hold them to account between the political class and the middle class and between civil and military power The author exposes how the ruling elite centralised power through the militarisation and judicialization of politics rendering the federalist arrangement an empty shell and thus grossly alienating the provinces He sets all this within the contexts of education and media as breeders of conflict the difficulties of establishing an anti terrorist regime and the state s pragmatic attempts at conflict resolution by seeking to keep the outsiders inside This is a wide ranging account of a country of contestations The Reshaping of African Traditions Luke Nnamdi Mbeke,1988 Report of the United Nations Commission on the Racial Situation in the Union of South Africa United Nations.
