to love these neighbors as yourself A newly revised classic Genesis 1-11 Anwarul Azad, Ida Glaser, 2022-09-07 Genesis is the book of beginnings and creation begins with light Most religious people live with shuttered windows receiving light only from their own people and their own tradition Genesis 1 11 calls us to recognize all peoples as created by God and under the rainbow covenant of his light This commentary opens windows on seeds of truth from Genesis 1 11 which are planted in the various environments in front of the text including the New Testament rabbinic tradition the Qur an and Bangladeshi culture It examines those seeds in their original seedbed discerning how their truths will unfurl from the fragrant Genesis 1 11 bud of theology through the blessings given to Eve Noah and Abraham Windows on the Text is a ground breaking Bible commentary series written by followers of Jesus in Muslim contexts It develops biblical insight in deliberate conversation with the Qur an the Hadith and local Islamic cultures Confident that the Bible in its entirety speaks directly into Muslim contexts it opens new windows into the holy word of God to equip and empower believers to live out their faith in loving service and clear communication within their communities Lifting the Veil Phil Parshall, Julie Parshall, 2003-04-01 A heart wrenching and perplexing look at the dark world of Muslim women The Bible and Other Faiths Ida Glaser, 2012-03-14 In today's world when Christians think about other religions numerous questions and issues arise and their convictions about Christ and about other religions can have a significant influence on their understanding of how God relates to people and what their own conduct towards them should be From her wealth of inter cultural and inter faith experience Ida Glaser believes that the most urgent questions for Christians focus on their own responsibilities and other peoples welfare Responding to Micah 6 8 And what does the Lord require of you To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God Dr Glaser explores biblical perspectives on other faiths and their adherents with clarity sensitivity and challenging insights for all Christians Critical Global Perspectives Binaya Subedi, 2010-03-01 The primary purpose of this book is to invite educators to re think what it means to critically conceptualize knowledge about the world In other words imagining curriculum in a critical way means decolonizing mainstream knowledge about global societies Such an approach re evaluates how we have come to know the world and asks us to consider the socio political context in which we have come to understand what constitutes an ethical global imagination A critical reading of the world calls for the need to examine alternative ways of knowing and teaching about the world a pedagogy that recognizes how diverse subjects have come to view the world A critical question this book raises is What are the radical ways of re conceptualizing curriculum knowledge about global societies so that we can become accountable to the different ways people have come to experience the world Another question the book raises is how do we engage with complexities surrounding social differences such as gender race ethnicity religion etc in the global contexts Analyzing global issues and events through the prism of social difference opens up spaces to advocate a transformative framework for a global education curriculum Transformative in the sense that such a curriculum asks students to challenge stereotypes and engages students in advocating changes within local global contexts A critical global perspective advocates the value of going beyond the nation state centered approach to teaching about topics such as history politics culture etc It calls for the need to develop curriculum that accounts for transnational formations an intervention that asks us to go beyond issues that are confined within national borders Such a practice recognizes the complicated ways the local is connected to the global and vice versa and cautions against creating a hierarchy between national and global issues It also suggests the need to critically examine the pitfalls of forming dichotomies between the local or the national and the global or the center and the periphery Hunt for Paradise Begonius,2013 Without seeking to lecture readers she attempts to show not only the interrelation between politics and economics religion often playing a significant part in both but in terms of the paradisiacal bliss material abundance for the West and rapture expected in the hereafter by Islam to demonstrate such interconnection between the two cultures These are the genre of the book Its contents consist of two parts While Part I treats of Islam as such both from the historical and contemporary point of view the theme of Part II is the present day economy dominated by aggressive capitalism and the impact they have each had on the global scale Although often critical in cases she deems deserving criticism she nevertheless aims to show that there is most of the time nothing purely black or exclusively white Indeed being impartial as well as objective if that is humanly possible is a standard she goes by Dealing with due seriousness as she does with a score of subtopics directly or indirectly related to the mentioned two themes she also so as to lighten the narrative interjects here and there humor into it In the final part the Epilog she expresses hope that mankind may in the end find a solution to its sky high problems
