Road To Clarity Seventhday Adventism In Madagascar:

The Road to Clarity E. Keller, 2005-11-18 In recent years millions of people have joined churches such as the Seventh day Adventist which prosper enormously in different parts of the world The Road to Clarity is one of the first ethnographic in depth studies of this phenomenon It is a vivid account based on almost two years of participation in ordinary church members daily religious and non religious lives The book offers a fascinating inquiry into the nature of long term commitment to Adventism among rural people in Madagascar Eva Keller argues that the key attraction of the church lies in the excitement of study argument and intellectual exploration This is a novel approach which challenges utilitarian and cultural particularist explanations of the success of this kind of Christianity Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South

Mark A. Lamport, 2018-06-01 Christianity has transformed many times in its 2 000 year history from its roots in the Middle East to its presence around the world today From the mid twentieth century onward the presence of Christianity has increased dramatically in Asia Africa and Latin America and the majority of the world s Christians are now nonwhite and non Western The Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South traces both the historical evolution and contemporary themes in Christianity in more than 150 countries and regions The volumes include maps images and a detailed timeline of key events The phrases Global Christianity and World Christianity are inadequate to convey the complexity of the countries and regions involved this encyclopedia with its more than 500 entries aims to offer rich perspectives on the varieties of Christianity where it is growing how the spread of Christianity shapes the faith in various regions and how the faith is changing worldwide Christian Remnant-African Folk Church Stefan Hörschele, 2007-01-01 Tanzanian Adventism exemplifies one of the most fascinating shifts in the history of religions the growth of Christianity in Africa Most striking in this account is the analysis of a minority denomination s transformation to a veritable folk church Beyond the Lens of Conservation Eva Keller, 2015-02-01 The global agenda of Nature conservation has led to the creation of the Masoala National Park in Madagascar and to an exhibit in its support at a Swiss zoo the centerpiece of which is a mini rainforest replica Does such a cooperation also trigger a connection between ordinary people in these two far flung places The study investigates how the Malagasy farmers living at the edge of the park perceive the conservation enterprise and what people in Switzerland see when looking towards Madagascar through the lens of the zoo exhibit It crystallizes that the stories told in either place have almost nothing in common one focuses on power and history the other on morality and progress Thus instead of building a bridge Nature conservation widens the gap between people in the North and the South Religion media research Chow demonstrates how Chinese Adventists adhere to their denominational character both by recasting the theologies and faith practices that they inherited from American missionaries in the early twentieth century and by engaging with local politics and culture This book locates the Adventist movement in broader Chinese sociopolitical and religious contexts and explores the multiple agents at work in the movement including intrachurch divisions among Adventist believers growing encounters between local and overseas Adventists and the denomination's ongoing interactions with local Chinese authorities and other Protestants The Adventist schisms show that global Adventist theology and practices continue to inform their engagement with sociopolitical transformations and changes in China today Schism will compel scholars to reassess the existing interpretations of the history of Protestant Christianity in China during the Maoist years and the more recent developments during the Reform era It will interest scholars and students of Chinese history and religion global Christianity American religion and Seventh day Adventism

A Problem of Presence Matthew Engelke, 2007-05-21 The Friday Masowe apostolics of Zimbabwe refer to themselves as the Christians who don't read the Bible They claim they do not need the Bible because they receive the Word of God live and direct from the Holy Spirit In this insightful and sensitive historical ethnography Matthew Engelke documents how this rejection of scripture speaks to longstanding concerns within Christianity over mediation and authority The Bible of course has been a key medium through which Christians have recognized God's presence But the apostolics perceive scripture as an unnecessary even dangerous mediator For them the materiality of the Bible marks a distance from the divine and prohibits the realization of a live and direct faith Situating the Masowe case within a broad comparative framework Engelke shows how their rejection of textual authority poses a problem of presence which is to say how the religious subject defines and claims to construct a relationship with the spiritual world through the semiotic potentials of language actions and objects Written in a lively and accessible style A Problem of Presence makes important contributions to the anthropology of Christianity the history of religions in Africa semiotics and material culture studies

The Anthropology of Protestantism Joseph Webster, 2013-06-19 Through his ethnographic study of the fishermen and their religious beliefs Webster speaks to larger debates about religious radicalism materiality economy language and the symbolic These debates also call into question assumptions about the decline of religion in modern industrial societies

Spirits and Letters Thomas G. Kirsch, 2011 This work offers a substantial intervention into broader debates about religion media and materiality

Mayblin,2010-03-29 Through the ethnography of a Catholic community in Northeast Brazil Maya Mayblin offers a vivid and provocative rethink of gendered portrayals of Catholic life For the residents of Santa Lucia life is conceptualized as a series of moral tradeoffs between the sinful and productive world against an idealized state of innocence conceived with reference to local Catholic teachings As marriage marks the beginning of a productive life in the world it also marks a phase in which moral personhood comes most actively and poignantly to the fore This book offers lucid observations on how men and women as husbands and wives fathers and mothers negotiate this challenge As well as making an important contribution to the ethnographic literature on morality Christianity and Latin America the book offers a compelling alternative to received portrayals of gender polarity as symbolically all encompassing throughout the Catholic world
