 Power and Urban Space in Pre-Modern Holland Clé Lesger,2024-02-22 Cities and urban societies have many faces In this study the pre modern cities of Holland are presented as arenas where power relations between social classes are expressed in a more or less permanent appropriation of physical space and through discursive strategies The continuity of the power relations in the cities of Holland spanning centuries makes it urgent to look not only at the assumption of urban space as an expression of power relations within society but also at the contribution of this appropriation to the acceptance and continuity of the existing power relations in pre modern Holland Within this broad area extensive attention is paid to the very prominent and enduring appropriation of urban space in the field of housing the less permanent but violent appropriation of urban space during the public execution of scaffold punishments the maintenance of public order by civic militias and appropriation during riots and revolts In addition city descriptions maps and pictures of the pre modern cities of Holland are scrutinised for what they can reveal about the appropriation of urban spaces These themes each have an extensive historiography but they have never been brought together in an interpretative framework that fits in with Pierre Bourdieu's model of society and the work of especially John Allen on power until now Gender and Self-Fashioning at the Intersection of Art and Science Catherine Powell-Warren, 2025-10-01 At once collector botanist reader artist and patron Agnes Block is best described as a cultural producer A member of an influential network in her lifetime today she remains a largely obscure figure The socioeconomic and political barriers faced by early modern women together with a male dominated tradition in art history have meant that too few stories of women's roles in the creation production and consumption of art have reached us This book seeks to write Block and her contributions into the art and cultural history of the seventeenth century Netherlands highlighting the need for and advantages of a multifaceted approach to research on early modern women Examining Block's achievements relationships and objects reveals a woman who was independent knowledgeable self aware and not above self promotion Though her gender brought few opportunities and many barriers Agnes Block succeeded in fashioning herself as Flora Batava a liefhebber at the intersection of art and science Spartacus International Gay Guide ,1997 The
