Russian Art Nouveau Елена Андреевна Борисова, Grigoriĭ IĭUĭr'evich Sternin, 1988 Russian Art Nouveau Elena A. Borisova, Grigory Sternin, Defining Russian Graphic Arts Alla Rosenfeld, 1999 Defining Russian Graphic Arts explores the energy and innovation of Russian graphic arts during the period which began with the explosion of artistic creativity initiated by Serge Diaghilev at the end of the nineteenth century and which ended in the mid 1930s with Stalin's devastating control over the arts. This beautifully illustrated book represents the development of Russian graphic arts as a continuum during these forty years and places Suprematism and Constructivism in the context of the other major but lesser known manifestations of early twentieth century Russian art. The book includes such diverse categories of graphic arts as lubki popular prints, posters and book designs, journals, music sheets and ephemera. It features not only standard types of printed media and related studies and maquettes but also a number of watercolor and gouache costume and stage designs. About 100 works borrowed from the National Library of Russia and the Research Museum of the Academy of Fine Arts in St Petersburg, Russia, many seen here for the first time outside of Russia, are featured in this book. Additional works have been drawn from the Zimmerli Art Museum, The New York Public Library and from other public and private collections. Together they provide a rare opportunity to view and learn about a wide variety of artists from the acclaimed to the lesser known. This book is a companion volume to an exhibition appearing at the Jane Voorhees Zimmerli Art Museum at Rutgers University. Art Periodical Culture in Late Imperial Russia (1898-1917) Hanna Chuchvaha, 2015-10-27 Art Periodical Culture in Late Imperial Russia 1898-1917 Print Modernism in Transition offers a detailed exploration of the major Modernist art periodicals in late imperial Russia: the World of Art, Mir Iskusstva, 1899-1904, The Golden Fleece, Zolotoe runo, 1906-1909, and Apollo, Apollon, 1909-1917. By exploring the role of art reproduction in the nineteenth century and the emergence of these innovative art journals in the turn of the century, Hanna Chuchvaha proves that these Modernist periodicals advanced the Russian graphic arts and reinforced the development of reproduction technologies and the art of printing. Offering a detailed examination of the inaugural issues which included editorial positions expressed in words and images, Hanna Chuchvaha analyses the periodicals' ideologies and explores journals as art objects appearing in their unique socio-historical context in imperial Russia. Modernism and the Spiritual in Russian Art Louise Hardiman, Nicola Kozicharov, 2017-11-13 In 1911 Vasily Kandinsky published the first edition of On the Spiritual in Art, a landmark modernist treatise in which he sought to reframe the meaning of art and the true role of the artist. For many artists of late Imperial Russia, a culture deeply influenced by the regime's adoption of Byzantine Orthodoxy centuries before, questions of religion and spirituality were of paramount importance. As artists and the wider art community experimented with new ideas and interpretations at the dawn of the twentieth century, their relationship with the spiritual broadly defined was inextricably linked to their roles as pioneers of modernism. This diverse collection of essays introduces new and stimulating approaches to the ongoing debate as to how

Russian artistic modernism engaged with questions of spirituality in the late nineteenth to mid twentieth centuries Ten chapters from emerging and established voices offer new perspectives on Kandinsky and other familiar names such as Kazimir Malevich Mikhail Larionov and Natalia Goncharova and introduce less well known figures such as the Georgian artists Ucha Japaridze and Lado Gudiashvili and the craftswoman and art promoter Aleksandra Pogosskaia Prefaced by a lively and informative introduction by Louise Hardiman and Nicola Kozicharow that sets these perspectives in their historical and critical context Modernism and the Spiritual in Russian Art New Perspectives enriches our understanding of the modernist period and breaks new ground in its re examination of the role of religion and spirituality in the visual arts in late Imperial Russia Of interest to historians and enthusiasts of Russian art culture and religion and those of international modernism and the avant garde it offers innovative readings of a history only partially explored revealing uncharted corners and challenging long held assumptions Russian Architecture and the West Dmitrii Olegovich

International Medievalisms Mary Boyle,2023 Identifies and investigates international medievalism through three distinct strands Internationally Nationalist Someone Else s Past and Activist Medievalism Medievalism the reception of the Middle Ages often invokes a set of tropes generally considered medieval rather than consciously engaging with medieval cultures and societies International medievalism offers an additional interpretative layer by juxtaposing two or more national cultures at least one of which is medieval National can be aspirational it might refer to the area within agreed borders or to the people who live there but it might also describe the people who understand or imagine themselves to constitute a nation And once medieval becomes simply a collection of ideas it can be re formed as desired cast as more geographically than historically specific or function as a gateway to an even more nebulous past This collection explores medievalist media from the textual to the architectural Subjects range from The Green Children of Woolpit to Refugee Tales and from Viking metal to Joan of Arc As the contributors to each section make clear for centuries the medieval has provided material for countless competing causes and cannot be contained within historical political or national borders The essays show how the medieval is repeatedly co opted and recreated formed as much as formative inviting us to ask why and in service of what

History and Myth in Pictorial Narratives of the Russian 'Patriotic War', 1812-1914 Andrew M. Nedd,2024-07-08 This book reveals that the visual narrative of the events of the Russian campaign of 1812 was inextricably linked to Russia s search for national identity and helped to form competing definitions of Russianness No pre revolutionary military event was more celebrated in Russian literature and art than the Patriotic War of 1812 during which Napoleon advanced his Grand Arm e into Russia only to retreat months later in defeat as his army faced starvation and capture during the brutal winter The works of art that retold the story of 1812 extolled virtues that were represented as inherently Russian courage resourcefulness and unity Furthermore these values were increasingly contrasted with those of the foreign invader from the west While the emphasis is largely on academic painting this book also explores popular media and memorialization in order to reveal the role that images played in the process of constructing identities in nineteenth century Russia
