Uncensored Ann Komaromi, 2015-06-30 Literature that was self published and informally circulated in the former Soviet Union in order to evade censorship in addition to prosecution of its authors came to be known as samizdat Vasilii Aksenov Andrei Bitov and Venedikt Erofeev were among its most acclaimed practitioners In her innovative study Ann Komaromi uses their work to argue for a far more sophisticated understanding of the phenomenon of samizdat showing how the material circumstances of its creation and dissemination exercised a profound influence on the very idea of dissidence When a text comes to life as samizdat it necessarily reconfigures the relationship between author and reader Using archival research to fully illustrate samizdat s social and historical context Komaromi arrives at a more nuanced theoretical position that breaks down the opposition between the autonomous work of art and direct political engagement The similarities between samizdat and digital culture give her formulation of dissident subjectivity particular contemporary relevance American Radical and Reform Writers Steven Rosendale, 2005 Presents career biographies and criticism of American reformers and radicals of the 19th and 20th centuries Includes a section on major organizations and periodicals of the movements Building Socialism Curtis Swope, 2017-11-16 Building Socialism reveals how East German writers engagement with the rapidly changing built environment from the mid 1950s to the early 1970s constitutes an untold story about the emergence of literary experimentation in the post War period It breaks new ground by exploring the centrality of architecture to a mid century modernist literature in dialogue with multiple literary and left wing theoretical traditions and in tune with international assessments of modernist architecture and urban planning Design and construction were a central part of politics and everyday life in East Germany during this time as buildings old and new were asked to bear heavy ideological and social burdens In their novels stories and plays Heiner Müller Christa Wolf Günter Kunert Volker Braun Günter de Bruyn and Brigitte Reimann responded to enormous new factory complexes experimental new towns the demolition of Berlin s tenements and the propagation of a pared down modernist aesthetic in interior design Writers representation of the design construction and use of architecture formed part of a turn to modernist literary devices including montage metaphor and shifting narrative perspectives East Germany s literary architecture also represents a sophisticated theoretical reflection on the intractable problems of East Germany s socialist modernity including the alliance between state socialism and technological modernization competing commitments to working class self organization and the power of specialist planners and designers and the attempt to create an alternative to fascism

Pelevin and Unfreedom Sofya Khagi,2020-12-15

Sofya Khagi s Pelevin and Unfreedom Poetics Politics Metaphysics is the first book length English language study of Victor Pelevin one of the most significant and popular Russian authors of the post Soviet era The text explores Pelevin s sustained Dostoevskian reflections on the philosophical question of freedom and his complex oeuvre and worldview shaped by the idea that contemporary social conditions pervert that very notion Khagi shows that Pelevin uses provocative and imaginative prose to model different systems of unfreedom vividly illustrating how the present world deploys hyper commodification and technological manipulation to promote human degradation and social deadlock Rather than rehearse Cold War era platitudes about totalitarianism Pelevin holds up a mirror to show how social control now covert yet far more efficient masquerades as freedom and how eagerly we accept even welcome control under the techno consumer system He reflects on how commonplace discursive markers of freedom like the free market are in fact misleading and disempowering Under this comfortably self occluding bondage the subject loses all power of self determination free will and ethical judgment In his work Pelevin highlights the unprecedented subversion of human society by the techno consumer machine Yet Khagi argues however circumscribed and ironically qualified he holds onto the emancipatory potential of ethics and even an emancipatory humanism

History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel Cornis-Pope,John Neubauer,2006-09-13 Continuing the work undertaken in Vol 1 of the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe Vol 2 considers various topographic sites multicultural cities border areas cross cultural corridors multiethnic regions that cut across national boundaries rendering them permeable to the flow of hybrid cultural messages By focusing on the literary cultures of specific geographical locations this volume intends to put into practice a new type of comparative study Traditional comparative literary studies establish transnational comparisons and contrasts but thereby reconfirm however inadvertently the very national borders they play down This volume inverts the expansive momentum of comparative studies towards ever broader regional European and world literary histories While the theater of this volume is still the literary culture of East Central Europe the contributors focus on pinpointed local traditions and geographic nodal points Their histories of Riga Plovdiv Timi oara or Budapest of Transylvania or the Danube corridor to take a few examples reveal how each of these sites was during the last two hundred years a home for a variety of foreign or ethnic literary traditions next to the one now dominant within the national borders By foregrounding such non national or hybrid traditions this volume pleads for a diversification and pluralization of local and national histories A genuine comparatist revival of literary history should involve the recognition that treading on native grounds means actually treading on grounds cultivated by diverse people
