Emilia Rockwell, 2005-04 This is the first novel published in Iowa Printed in Dubuque in 1858 it was written to recruit emigrants to Iowa what makes it unique among emigration literature is the fact that it was directed at women using the form of a domestic novel loaded with gentle mothers and stalwart fathers flower gemmed prairies and vine draped cottages and lots of tender words and humble weddings to encourage women to settle in the new state Mary Emilia Rockwell tells the story of Walter and Annie Judson who one desperate March night decide to move to the West in search of a better life Walter is an exploited debt ridden carpenter who knows that if we could go to the West to one of those new States where work is plenty wages high and land cheap we could make a more comfortable living and besides soon have a home of our own Annie has all a woman s devotion and self denial loving and supportive she takes the path of duty and moves her little family to a pleasant little village in Iowa In Newburg everyone is newly arrived hard working and self sacrificing facing difficulties with the certainty of prosperity and independence to come In spite of dramatic setbacks Walter prospers and he and Annie build a beautiful and commodious house in the growing community of Hastings The book ends with a return visit to Connecticut where the Judsons and a series of surprising events persuade Annie s parents to move to Iowa too and everyone is reunited in their home in the West Teacher administrator and writer Emilia Rockwell born about 1835 died about 1915 writes a conventionally sentimental story However she actually divorced her first husband became the administrator of a juvenile reformatory in Milwaukee and married a second time she lived in Lansing Iowa for only a few years Her writing is romantic but she accurately portrays the economic challenges and transformations of this pioneer period and historically touches upon the Panic of 1857 the Mormon Handcart Expedition and Native Americans in Iowa Sharon Wood s illuminating introduction presents Rockwell s biography and places the novel in its historical and literary contexts including such events as the Spirit Lake massacre and the Dred Scott decision A Home in the West is a satisfying read and an intriguing combination of boosterism and literature The Best British Short Stories of ... Edward Joseph O'Brien, John Cournos, 1927 The Wedding Dress Carrie Young, 1992 These finely wrought stories unfold in the Dakotas during the struggling pioneer days and bone dry landscape of the thirties as well as the verdant years that followed where the nighttime plains are bathed by softly radiant harvest moons shining down from dazzling northern skies Young s absorbing narratives begin with the pleasant sense of Once upon a time anticipation but the firmly sketched details warm humor and vivid characterizations reveal an unanticipated and satisfying realism The haunting title story is about a beautiful and tragic pioneer woman and her wedding dress her gown takes on a life of its own and turns into an enduring symbol for the grace and compassion of homesteading women on the plains In Bank Night a hired hand working during the midst of the Depression wins 250 at the movies careening him into a single night of notoriety that becomes a legend in its time The Nights of Ragna Rundhaug tells the tale of a woman who wants only to be left alone with her white dog Vittehund and her crocheting but instead is propelled into a life of midwifery because there was no one else to do it The babies have predilection for arriving during blizzards and always at night when she must be transported across the dark plains by frantic husbands who have fortified themselves with strong drink and headstrong horses All the stories in The Wedding Dress are linked by the enigmatic Nordic characters who people them and by the skill with which Young draws them Emotions run so deep that they are seldom able to surface when they do the interaction is extraordinarily luminous both for the characters themselves and for the fortunate reader The Wedding Dress is for all readers young and old Literature for the Junior High School Charles Madison Curry, Thomas Henry Briggs, Leonidas Warren Payne, 1929
