Sabras Soul:

The Sabra Oz Almog, 2000-11-28 The Sabras were the first Israelis the first generation born in the 1930s and 1940s to grow up in the Zionist settlement in Palestine Socialized and educated in the ethos of the Zionist labor movement and the communal ideals of the kibbutz and moshav they turned the dream of their pioneer forebears into the reality of the new State of Israel While the Sabras made up a small minority of the new society's population their cultural influence was enormous Their ideals their love of the land their recreational culture of bonfires and singalongs their adoption of Arab accessories their slang and gruff straightforward manner together with a reserved almost puritanical attitude toward individual relationships came to signify the cultural fulfillment of the utopian ideal of a new Jew Oz Almog's lively methodical and convincing portrayal of the Sabras addresses their lives thought and role in Jewish history The most comprehensive study of this exceptional generation to date The Sabra provides a complex and unflinching analysis of accepted norms and an impressive appraisal of the Sabra one that any examination of new Israeli reality must take into consideration The Sabras became Palmach commanders soldiers in the British Brigade and later officers in the Israel Defense Forces They served as a source of inspiration and an object of emulation for an entire society Almog's source material is rich and varied he uses poems letters youth movement and army newsletters and much more to portray the Sabras attitudes toward the Arabs war nature work agriculture cooperation and education In any event the Sabra remained central to the founding myth of the nation the real Israeli against whom later generations will be judged Almog's pioneering book juxtaposes the myths against the realities and in the process limns a collective profile that brilliantly encompasses the complex forces that shaped this remarkable generation

SABRA Edward A. Vinson, 2014-09-24 This is a first person as if rendition of the New Covenant book of Mark from a perspective a view not the View but a view of the Unseen Substance of our most precious Faith It's viewpoint is through Jesus eyes because where the Holy Spirit is Lord there is Liberty and so I take the Liberty to let His Word dwell richly in me and flow through me as through the bed of a stream in a land of milk and honey in a land of grain and new wine the same Mystery that is in you if Christ dwells in your heart by faith if the Word made flesh abides with you It is as a fire shut up in my bones and herein its tongues have licked and have kissed the surface of that which I see Without His Call and His Equipping His ever present Help I could have done nothing and could not have sat down day by day morning by morning and evening by evening and taken up the Waterman He provided at the Chalice Thrift Shop the the pen or a ready writer and given voice to the Voice that sings in me to you
