Sacred Spaces Stations On A Celtic Way:

Sacred Spaces Margaret Silf, 2014-05-15 Popular author Margaret Silf introduces you to the seven traditional sacred spaces reflect on practises and scripture There are many books that explore actual physical sacred space and pilgrimage sites This is a different kind of book It introduces seven traditional sacred spaces but then leads readers into a deeper reflection on what such sacred space means in our own lives and experience The various sacred spaces explored are the Celtic Cross the infinite knot hilltops wells and springs causeways and bridges thresholds and burial grounds and boundaries In each chapter the author introduces a sacred space as the main theme and then illustrates this by associating it with a particular stage of life and a particular sacramental experience The ideas are then brought together by means of a scripture story

Sacred Spaces Margaret Silf, 2013-05 There are many books that explore actual physical sacred space and pilgrimage sites This is a different kind of book It introduces seven traditional sacred spaces but then leads readers into a deeper reflection on what such sacred space means in our own lives and experience The various sacred spaces explored are the Celtic Cross the infinite knot hilltops wells and springs causeways and bridges thresholds and burial grounds and boundaries In each chapter the author introduces a sacred space as the main theme and then illustrates this by associating it with a particular stage of life and a particular sacramental experience The ideas are then brought together by means of a scripture story

Landscape as Sacred Space Steven Lewis, 2005-07-15 Steven Lewis's Landscape as Sacred Space Metaphors for the Spiritual Journey invites new discussions about our spiritual journeys and allows seekers to rethink approaches to Christian spirituality and theology in light of postmodernity Landscape metaphors provide a common and accessible language to articulate one's spiritual journey Spiritual mountains deserts and valleys are dominant landscapes on our journey through life Most people have experienced the joy of a mountaintop spiritual experience the pain of spiritual deserts or perhaps the dreariness too often associated with spiritual valleys There is a tendency however to highlight spiritual mountaintops while avoiding spiritual deserts and ignoring spiritual valleys This leaves many Christians ill equipped either to deal with crises or to integrate God into ordinary life Each landscape offers rich lessons that when combined together lead us toward a maturing faith and into a deeper relationship with God Landscape as Sacred Space is intended to aid those who search for more meaningful ways to articulate their faith journey The book grants permission to struggle with life's landscapes provides safe spaces to reflect on the journey and introduces language that enables exploration and discovery

Sacred Space for the Missional Church William R. McAlpine, 2011-02-14 Sacred Space for the Missional Church examines the strong link between the theology and mission of the Church and the spaces in which and from which that theology and mission are lived out The author demonstrates that the built environment is not incidental or even subservient to mission Rather it is a key player in the fulfillment and the communication of that mission The book begins with a working definition of the missional church underscoring the connection between God's mission missio Dei and the Church's mission

The reader is presented with historical and theological frameworks for sacred space and reminded of the pivotal role of the built environment in the fulfillment of the mission of the Church. The design and construction of sacred spaces are shown to be fundamentally a theological exercise and not solely a matter of function, pragmatics and fiscal astuteness. The author questions the uncritical application of blanket statements such as 'form must follow function' and challenges the conviction that it does not matter where worship occurs, only that it occurs. The book addresses genuine concerns such as legitimizing the cost of church buildings and concludes with practical suggestions and essential questions that must be considered in posturing the built environment within the missional praxis of the Church.

Teaching Interreligious Encounters Marc A. Pugliese, Alexander Y. Hwang, 2017. Divided into five components of teaching interreligious encounters: Theory, Design, Textual Analysis, Practice and Formation, this volume guides both new teachers and seasoned scholars in addressing the sometimes challenging questions raised by contact between divergent faiths.

The Younger Evangelicals Robert E. Webber, 2002-10-01. Robert E. Webber has led worship workshops in every major city in the United States and Canada. Through his conversations and contacts with a network of emerging church leaders, he calls the younger evangelicals. Webber sees how this new generation and their style of leadership is bringing change and renewal to the evangelical church. These leaders, who include those young in spirit as well as young in age, have important insights to offer all generations faced with doing church in a rapidly changing postmodern culture. The Younger Evangelicals explores the characteristics of these emerging leaders and provides an outlet for their stories. Beginning with a brief overview of twentieth-century evangelicalism, Webber examines what is different about the twenty-first-century younger evangelicals' way of thinking about faith and practicing church. He allows them, PhDs and laypeople, to speak in their own words on issues such as communication, theology, apologetics, pastoral leadership, evangelism, worship, and spiritual formation. Thought-provoking, energizing and timely, The Younger Evangelicals is a landmark book for pastors and church leaders, culture watchers, ministry students, and worship leaders who want to prepare for and respond to the new evangelical awakening brought on by our changing cultural context.

Beloved's Gift Isaura Barrera, 2016-01-18. Yet one day unexpected and un hoped for, the world we had thought irretrievably lost may be returned to us. In a moment of insight, a sudden opening of the heart, we may glimpse again the mysterious reality we took for granted as children. We may once again experience its wonder and delight. I. Zalewski, Who Is God? This book tells of the author's unexpected return into that reality believed to be irretrievably lost as childhood was left behind. It was written in real time as each step of that return unfolded its challenges and gifts. Its message of making believing more than making believe is shared for all who remember or hunger to remember and relive that same reality in their own lives, that it might inspire them to listen for and live into the love, hope and faith at its core.

Leadership in Unknown Waters Lisa Withrow, 2020-10-29 Leadership in Unknown Waters invites organizational leaders and their teams to engage powerful questions amidst ambiguity and uncertainty as they move from the way things were to an emerging future This liminality a threshold in space and time allowing for transition from something old to something new is fraught with both difficulty and opportunity Leaders teams and individuals who navigate this space skillfully will land in surprisingly dynamic places encountering stories metaphors and inspiration for traversing the threshold not only competently but with curiosity and confidence In this way futures are created that are not possible with fear based planning or quick fixes Withrow's method intersects the human imagination through a visual living metaphor water with attention to space liminality or transitional space and focus on role leadership development for powerful engagement with what organizational learning theorists call the emerging future Here the theoretical meets the practical and research informs the how to and why Diving into unknown waters with tools and wisdom can create a better future for all who face change whether within corporations not for profit organizations faith communities family systems or interpersonal relationships

The Living Church, 2001-07

The Mysticism of Ordinary and Extraordinary Experience Harry L. Serio, 2021-04-12 We are so much more than we appear to be The why of our existence is far more complex than the how of our being Mysticism probes the hidden nature of who we are why we are and our relationship to our Creator We catch glimpses of this not only in the ordinary experiences of life but also through extraordinary and unusual encounters with mystery. Mysticism is the awareness of our reality. The Divine Embrace Robert E. Webber, 2006-10. What is true Christian spirituality? Rediscover spirituality's biblical roots and how you can live out your response to God's story today. Emotion, Place and Culture Mick Smith, Liz Bondi, 2016-05-06. Recent years have witnessed a rapid rise in engagement with emotion and affect across a broad range of disciplines in the humanities and social sciences with geographers among others making a significant contribution by examining the emotional intersections between people and places. Building on the achievements of Emotional Geographies 2005 the editors have brought together leading scholars such as Nigel Thrift, Alphonso Lingis and Frances Dyson as well as young up and coming academics from a diverse range of disciplines to investigate feelings and affect in various spatial and social contexts, environments and landscapes. The book is divided into five sections covering the themes of remembering, understanding, mourning, belonging and enchanting. Creating Sanctuary Jessi Bloom, 2025-04-08. In this beautiful inspiring and practical book we are invited to look deeply at the landscape around us and create sacred respites from our busy worlds. Rosemary Gladstar, herbalist and author. We all need a personal sanctuary. A place where we can be in harmony with the natural world and nurture our bodies, minds and souls. And this sanctuary doesn't have to be a far away destination; it can be in your own backyard. In Creating Sanctuary, natural living expert Jessi Bloom taps into multiple sources of traditional plant wisdom to help you find a deeper connection to the outdoor space you already have, no matter the size. You will learn how to design a healing space, how to harness the power of 50 sacred plants and how to create recipes and rituals that soothe and calm. Hands-on, inspiring and packed with gorgeous photography, Creating Sanctuary will help you find new ways to revitalize your life.
