Levinson, Robert P. Ericksen, 2022-09-06 How did the academy react to the rise dominance and ultimate fall of Germany's Third Reich Did German professors of the humanities have to tell themselves lies about their regime's activities or its victims to sleep at night Did they endorse the regime Or did they look the other way whether out of deliberate denial or out of fear for their own personal safety The Betrayal of the Humanities The University during the Third Reich is a collection of groundbreaking essays that shed light on this previously overlooked piece of history The Betrayal of the Humanities accepts the regrettable news that academics and intellectuals in Nazi Germany betrayed the humanities and explores what went wrong what occurred at the universities and what happened to the major disciplines of the humanities under National Socialism The Betrayal of the Humanities details not only how individual scholars particular departments and even entire universities collaborated with the Nazi regime but also examines the legacy of this era on higher education in Germany In particular it looks at the peculiar position of many German scholars in the post war world having to defend their own work or the work of their mentors while simultaneously not appearing to accept Nazism The Body of Creation James B.

Pendleton,2020-05-15 In the modern period space has predominately been conceived of as a mere setting for human action ontologically separate from the body In Markan studies the result has been the multiplication of textual geographies that hide the spatiality of Jesus's narrativized and thus living body Rather than representing Jesus's body as replicating the spatial configurations of dominant scribal cartographic practice including imperial practice James B Pendleton shows that Mark portrays Jesus's body as a living production of space that troubles dominant maps Against readings of Mark that argue that Jesus is either an imperial or an anti imperial figure Pendleton argues that Mark presents Jesus's body and thus his spatiality as both inside as an insider and outside as an outsider simultaneously in what has more commonly been theorized recently as third spatiality or thirdspace Rather than an imperial or anti imperial economy of spatial production Pendleton argues Mark presents Jesus's body within a both and and more economy that is kenotic revealing God's own royal yet emptying body reasons creatio ex nihilo should continue to be embraced today But other contributors question the viability of creation from nothing and offer alternative initial creation options in its place These new alternatives explore a variety of options in light of recent scientific work new biblical scholarship and both new and old theological traditions
