The Pastor as Minor Poet M. Craig Barnes, 2008-12-30 Today's pastors often expected to be multitasking marvels who can make their churches successful are understandably confused about their role Craig Barnes contends that the true calling of a pastor is to assist others in becoming fully alive in Christ to be a minor poet The pastor absorbs the wisdom of major poets the biblical poets as well as the church's theological poets and distills its essence for parishioners The Pastor as Minor Poet calls pastors to continually search for a deeper truer understanding of what they see both in the text of Scripture and in the text of their parishioners lives Discerning the subtexts beneath these texts reveals the core truths that allow pastors to preach the heart of the Word and to understand the hearts of the people to whom they minister Written with a seasoned pastor's depth of understanding and a poet's sensibility and sensitivity this book will minister to and inspire pastors everywhere

Ticket to Ride Carlota Caulfield, 2005 Carlota Caulfield's Ticket to Ride is a collection of poems essays and interviews It is an autobiographical evocation of the author's family history and a beautiful homage to her mother Written over a period of years from 1995 to 2005 these pieces make up a life as it is being lived and imagined In them we find the poet's playful irony Caulfield like her beloved painter Giuseppe Arcimboldo loves intellectual puzzles

The Poems of Browning: Volume Three John Woolford, Daniel Karlin, Joseph Phelan, 2014-04-08 The Poems of Browning is a multi volume edition of the poetry of Robert Browning 1812-1889 resulting from a completely fresh appraisal of the canon text and context of his work The poems are presented in the order of their composition and in the text in which they were first published giving a unique insight into the origins and development of Browning's art. Annotations and headnotes in keeping with the traditions of Longman Annotated English Poets are full and informative and provide details of composition, publication sources and contemporary reception. Volumes one 1826-1840 and two 1841-1846 presented the poems from his early years up to his marriage to Elizabeth Barrett, including the dramatic poem Paracelsus 1835 which first brought him to wide attention and Sordello 1840 which confirmed him as a poet of ambition and imagination. Volume three 1847-1861 of The Poems of Browning covers the years of Browning's life in Italy with his wife Elizabeth Barrett Browning. During the fifteen years of his marriage and self-imposed exile, Browning produced Christmas Eve and Easter Day 1850, a major statement of his religious philosophy and Men and Women 1855, his greatest collection of shorter poems. The poems of Men and Women like all Browning's work are steeped in his wide and idiosyncratic knowledge of literature, music, art, history and popular culture, but a new and distinctive touch comes from the sights, sounds and textures of ordinary life in Italy. Based on a comprehensive study of textual and contextual sources, including a significant amount of hitherto undiscovered or unpublished manuscripts of poems and letters, this volume offers the most complete and informative edition of works that are central to Browning's achievement. In addition, Browning's most important work of critical prose, the Essay on Shelley, is presented in an appendix with full annotation, and poems which refer to specific works of painting or sculpture are illustrated with colour plates. Volume four presents the poetry Browning produced during the decade following the death of his wife, including Dramatis Personae, which heralded a re-evaluation of his critical reputation, and The Ring and the Book, which many consider to be his greatest work. The Poems of Browning represents the most informative and up-to-date edition of the works of one of England's greatest poets.
