Sad Phoenician:

Completed Field Notes Robert Kroetsch, 2000-11 This book brings together twenty of Kroetsch's long poems spanning some of 15 years of creative activity Remarkably versatile in both form and content these extended meditations bear witness to Kroetsch's modernist inheritance and his well known commitment to post modern jouissance The Home Place Dennis Cooley, 2016-07-05 He wants to sit and visit at the kitchen table and he can hardly wait to get on the road again From Chapter 1 Robert Kroetsch one of Canada's most important writers was a fierce regionalist with a porous yet resilient sense of home Although his criticism and fiction have received extensive attention his poetry remains underexplored This exuberantly polyvocal text insightfully written by Dennis Cooley who knew Kroetsch and worked with him for decades seeks to correct that imbalance The Home Place offers a dazzling playful and intellectually complex conversation drawing together personal recollections Kroetsch's archival materials and the international body of Kroetsch scholarship For literary scholars and anyone who appreciates Canadian literature The Home Place will represent the standard critical evaluation of Kroetsch's poetry for years to come North American Encounters Dieter Meindl, 2002 These essays in English except for four items in German and French provide an intercultural perspective They deal with such diverse aspects of North American including Quebecois literature The continental context also pervades treatments of novels featuring Indian wars sentimentalism the West and modern picaresque story cycles e.g. Atwood's and the long poem Kroetsch PhotoGraphic Encounters William F. Garrett-Petts, Donald Lawrence, Kamloops Art Gallery, 2000-10 Literacy is broadly understood to refer to the ability to read and write But the term is heavily value laden and is often used to elevate print at the expense of other forms of communication In PhotoGraphic Encounters the authors challenge this reductive notion of literacy and propose instead an integrated span of literacies reaching across disciplinary boundaries to discover a text that draws upon both the visual and the verbal PhotoGraphic Encounters discusses Canadian writers like Margaret Atwood George Bowering Robert Kroetsch and Daphne Marlatt and Canadian artists like Fred Douglas Ernie Kroeger Brenda Pelkey and Michael Snow then looks at the cross fertilization of visual and verbal processes in their works The authors present a new narrative practice one that fully engages lived experience The vernacular they argue is vital to our participation as readers and viewers of high art Making the connection between the vernacular and high culture creates an enabling moment in artistic production and reception and in teaching learning and talking about art and literature PhotoGraphic Encounters offers a compelling perspective on questions of literacy in a postmodern culture Artists writers scholars and critics alike will want this volume in their libraries Includes more than 120 B/W photographs 20 colour plates index bibliography Robert Kroetsch and His Works Ann Munton, 1992-08 A study of Canadian novelist poet and non fiction writer Robert Kroetsch Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W. Conolly, 2004-11-30 Post Colonial Literatures in English together with English Literature and American Literature form one of the three major groupings of literature in English and as such are widely studied around the world Their significance derives from the richness and variety of experience which they reflect In three volumes this Encyclopedia documents the history and development of this body of work and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide

The Heart of Lebanon Ameen Rihani,2021-08-12 When celebrated mahjar writer Ameen Rihani returned to his native Lebanon from his long stay in New York he set out on nine journeys through the Lebanese countryside from the rising mountains to the shores of the Mediterranean to experience and document the land in intimate detail Through his travelogue The Heart of Lebanon Rihani brings his readers along by foot and by mule to explore rural villages like his childhood home of Freike the flora and fauna of massive cedar forests and archaeological sites that reveal the history of Lebanon Meeting goatherds healers monks and more along the way Rihani offers more than vivid descriptions of the country s sweeping scenery His candid and often humorous narration captures what he sees as the soul of Lebanon and its people Allen s fluid translation transports English language readers to an early twentieth century rural Lebanon of the writer s time in a way that only Rihani s firsthand account can accomplish

City, Countryside, and the Spatial Organization of Value in Classical Antiquity Ralph Rosen,Ineke Sluiter,2017-07-31 The third in a series that explores cultural and ethical values in Classical antiquity this volume examines the dichotomy between city and country in ancient Greek and Roman cultures Fourteen papers address a variety of topics on this theme and include a variety of methodological approaches archaeological iconographic literary and philosophical The book demonstrates that despite a common rhetoric of polarity in antiquity that tended to construct city and countryside as very distinct oppositional categories there was far less consistency and far more nuance about the ideologies felt to inhere in each

Making it Home Deborah Keahey,1998-12-01 Traditional approaches to Prairie literature have focussed on the significance of the land in attempts to make a place into a home The emphasis on the importance of landscape as a defining feature ignores the important roles played by other influences brought to the land such as history culture gender ethnicity religion community family and occupation Deborah Keahey considers over 70 years of Canadian Prairie literature including poetry autobiography drama and fiction The 17 writers range from the well established like Martha Ostenso and Robert Kroetsch to newer writers like Ian Ross and Kelly Rebar Through their works she asks whether the Prairies are a physical or a political creation whether home is made by what you bring with you or what you find when you arrive and she incorporates the influences and effects far beyond landscape to understand what guides the home making process of both the writers and their creations Her study acknowledges that home is a complicated concept and making a place into a home place is a complicated process Informed by current linguistic feminist postcolonial and cultural theory Keahey explores these concepts in depth and redefines our understanding of place home and the relationship between them
