Doing the Work of Comparative Theology
Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2020-01-28 In a world that is more religiously diverse than ever before our coworkers and neighbors may well be adherents of other faiths But how many of us really grasp the similarities and differences between the major world religions Comparative theology is one increasingly important way to bridge this gap especially for Christian leaders and professors but also for lay people and students Veli Matti Kärkkäinen introduces the nature and work of comparative theology then delves into a detailed doctrine by doctrine comparison of Christian teachings with those of historical and contemporary Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism With every doctrine he first presents a summary of consensual Christian belief and then orients the reader to the distinctive teachings of other faith traditions highlighting parallels and differences Ideal for students ministers instructors and lay people interested in interfaith dialogue Doing the Work of Comparative Theology distills the comparative theological rigor of Kärkkäinen's Constructive Christian Theology for the Pluralistic World series into an accessible and user friendly textbook Readers will not only learn basic methodology but also begin to undertake the actual work of comparative theology

Does God Believe in Human Rights? Nazila Ghanea-Hercock, Alan Stephens, Ralph Walden, 2007-02-28 Where can religions find sources of legitimacy for human rights How do and how should religious leaders and communities respond to human rights as defined in modern International Law When religious precepts contradict human rights standards for example in relation to freedom of expression or in relation to punishments which should trump the other and why Can human rights and religious teachings be interpreted in a manner which brings reconciliation closer Do the modern concept and system of human rights undermine the very vision of society that religions aim to impart Is a reference to God in the discussion of human rights misplaced Do human fallibilities with respect to interpretation judicial reasoning and the understanding of human oneness and dignity provide the key to the undeniable and sometimes devastating conflicts that have arisen between and within religions and the human rights movement In this volume academics and lawyers tackle these most difficult questions head on with candour and creativity and the collection is rendered unique by the further contributions of a remarkable range of other professionals including senior religious leaders and representatives journalists diplomats and civil servants both national and international Most notably the contributors do not shy away from the boldest question of all summed up in the book's title. The thoroughly edited and revised papers which make up this collection were originally prepared for a ground-breaking conference organised by the Clemens Nathan Research Centre the University of London Institute of Commonwealth Studies and Martinus Nijhoff Brill.

All Ages Becoming Valerie M. Grissom, 2023-10-24. We are in this together all ages practicing all ages becoming God's people. Often intergenerational initiatives are seen as the next new church trend or another programming tool for church growth and revitalization. Ultimately though intergenerational practice is at the core of what it means for us to be the body of Christ. God intends for all ages to participate in faith formation together we are formed in our practice of intergenerationality as we participate in the formation of becoming God's people. All Ages Becoming brings theologians, practitioners and ministry leaders representing diverse denominations, generations, cultures and geographical locations together to help us explore this adventure of intergenerational Christian practice. As you consider intergenerational practice in your own faith community, each chapter provides Theology in Practice sections with questions designed to help your community reflect, discuss, discover, experiment, reinvent, redesign and continue in your community of practice. To My
