Sculpture In The Living Signed:

True Relations G. Thomas Couser, Joseph Fichtelberg, 1998-01-21 The essays in this collection explore new directions in autobiography studies Examining a wide range of texts from narratives of suicide survivors cross dressers and people with HIV AIDS to self representations in the visual arts the collection demonstrates how writers have used the postmodern experience fragmentation to forge new kinds of identities Postmodern selves the essayists argue are relational selves constructed from the acute need to find identity through collaboration with others Postmodern autobiography emerges as a search amid shocks to the stable self for wider patterns of significance Of interest to researchers and scholars in autobiography world literature and psychology Art and Visual Culture on the French Riviera, 1956-1971 Rosemary O'Neill, 2012 Drawing on the primary sources and little known publications from museum archives collections in the region and privately owned archives Art and Visual Culture on the Riviera 1956 1971 offers the first in depth study of the Ecole de Nice The author shows how artists indigenous to the region challenged the dominance of Paris as the national standard at this moment of French decentralization efforts and growing internationalism in the arts Transnational Perspectives on the Art of Piero Manzoni and Hélio Oiticica Lara Demori, 2025-08-26 Establishing a missed link between the work of Piero Manzoni and Hélio Oiticica and their respective cultural contexts this book sheds new light on overlooked aspects of these two artists practices particularly focusing on the shift from painting to performance in the long 1960s Lara Demori envisions a transnational juxtaposition a conceptual dialogue that discloses overlooked resonances between the work and the modus operandi of both artists repositioning claims of national exceptionalism within a web of constellated practices This book proposes their oeuvre as heterogeneous critical models to unpack categories of thought used to analyse the postwar decades Tabula Rasa Anti Art Open Work and self Marginalisation and Freedom These in turn are charged with specific histories and offer new paradigms for the formal and social inventions perpetuated by the art of Manzoni Oiticica and fellow artists in the context of the tournaments that crossed the 1960s on a global scale This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history modernism and post modernism Italian studies and Brazilian studies Marcel Broodthaers and Film Steven Jacobs , Raf Wollaert , 2024-12-17 Marcel Broodthaers one of the key figures of the postwar avant garde has been recognized and extensively studied as a poet who became a visual artist in 1964 However years before creating his first sculptural objects and installations Broodthaers made his debut as a filmmaker in 1957 with La Clef de l'horloge embarking on a prolific cinema practice that yielded more than fifty films shot on 35mm and 16mm Cinema both as a medium and principle was crucial to his artistry Broodthaers's writings and visual oeuvre are permeated with allusions to film its history and its technology Covering both well known titles such as Le Corbeau et le renard 1967 La Pluie 1969 and Une Seconde d'ternité 1970 as well as many lesser known Broodthaers films the essays in this book discuss his films as inseparable from his entire oeuvre while situating them in the larger history of experimental film In addition the book scrutinizes his experiments with cinepoetry and expanded cinema as well as his interest in early cinema and his fascination with signs and inscriptions Marcel Broodthaers and Film brings together essays by Andrew Cheshire Eric C H de Bruyn Xavier Garc a Bard n Charlotte Friling Steven Jacobs Bruce Jenkins Deborah Schultz Christophe Wall Romana and Raf Wollaert

"Art and Visual Culture on the French Riviera, 1956-1971" Rosemary O'Neill, 2017-07-05 The Riviera in the 1950s and 1960s was culturally rich with modernist icons such as Matisse and Picasso in residence but also a burgeoning tourist culture that established the C d Azur as a center of indigenous artists associated with Nouveau R isme Fluxus and Supports Surfaces emerged under the mantle of the Ecole de Nice Drawing on the primary sources and little known publications generated during the period from museum archives collections in the region and privately owned archives this study integrates material published in monographic studies of individuals and art movements to offer the first in depth study of this important movement in twentieth century art The author situates the work of the Ecole de Nice within the broader social currents that are so important in contextualizing this phenomenon within this internal region of France and underscores why this work was so significant at this historical moment within the context of the broader European art scene and contemporary American art with which it shared affinities Despite their stylistic differences and associations with groups that are generally considered distinct O'Neill discloses that these artists shared conceptual affinities theatrical modes of presentation based on appropriation use of the ready made and a determination to counter style driven painting associated with the postwar Ecole de Paris Art and Visual Culture on the Riviera 1956-1971 suggests that the emergence of an Ecole de Nice internally eroded the dominance of Paris as the national standard at this moment of French decentralization efforts and that these artists fostered a model of aesthetic pluralism that remained locally distinct yet fully engaged with international vanguard trends of the 1960s
