Sea Of Memory:

On the Sea of Memory Jonathan Cott, 2005      Recovering Memory Hedda Friberg, Irene Gilsenan Nordin, Lene Yding Pedersen, 2009-03-26 Various ways of collecting storing and recovering memories have been the focus of the most recent joint research project carried out by a group of Irish Studies scholars all based in the Nordic countries and members of the Nordic Irish Studies Network NISN The result of the project Recovering Memory Irish Representations of Past and Present is a collection of essays which examines the theme of memory in Irish literature and culture against the theoretical background of the philosophical discourse of modernity Offering a wide range of perspectives this volume examines a plurality of representations past and present of memory both public and private and the intersection between collective memory and individual in modern Ireland Also explored is the relation between memory and identity national and private as well as questions of subjectivity and the construction of the self Given Ireland's tragic past and its long history of colonisation it is inevitable that various aspects of memory in terms of nationality post colonialism and politics also have bearing on this study The volume is divided into five sections each of which examines one broadly defined aspect of memory The introductory section focuses on memory and history and is followed by sections on memory and autobiography place identity and memory in the work of novelist John Banville Within each section the individual writers engage in a fruitful dialogue with each other and with the approaches of such theorists as Arendt Husserl Merleau Ponty Ricoeur and Baudrillard      Sea Of Memory Erri De Luca, 1999-05 Memories of a father killed in World War II come to the surface in this dramatic short novel set in the early 1950s on a small island near Capri      Regions of Memory Simon Lewis, Jeffrey Olick, Joanna Wawrzyniak, Malgorzata Pakier, 2022-08-17 Regions of memory are a scale of social and cultural memory that reaches above the national yet remains narrower than the global or universal The chapters of this volume analyze transnational constellations of memory across and between several geographical areas exploring historical political and cultural interactions between societies Such a perspective enables a more diverse field of possible comparisons in memory studies studying a variety of global memory regions in parallel Moreover it reveals lesser known vectors and mechanisms of memory travel such as across Cold War battle lines across the Indian Ocean or between Southeast Asia and western Europe Chapters 1 and 6 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com      The Sea Commands Paulo Mendes, 2020-12-09 Azenha do Mar is a fishing community on the southwest coast of Portugal It came into existence around forty years ago as an outcome of the abandonment of work in the fields and of propitious ecological conditions This book looks at the migration processes since the founding of the community and how they relate to the social inequalities for property and labour which prevail today The book also reflects upon the personal experience of the ethnographer in the field balancing the importance of methodology on the one hand and fieldwork as a research process on the other      The Sea in the Literary Imagination Ekaterina V. Kobeleva, Ben P. Robertson, Shannon W. Thompson, 2019-01-03 This collection explores nautical themes in a variety of literary contexts from multiple cultures Including contributors from five continents it emphasizes the universality of human experience with the sea while focusing on literature that spans a millennium stretching from medieval romance to the twenty first century reimagining of classic literary texts in film These fresh essays engage in discussions of literature from the UK the USA India Chile Turkey Spain Japan Colombia and the Caribbean Scholars of maritime literature will find the collection interesting for the unique insights it offers on individual literary texts while general readers will be intrigued by the interconnectedness that it reveals in human experience with the sea Handbook on the Politics of Memory Maria Mälksoo,2023-01-20 Providing a novel multi disciplinary theorization of memory politics this insightful Handbook brings varied literatures into a focused dialogue on the ways in which the past is remembered and how these influence transnational interstate and global politics in the present Afrasian Transformations ,2020-08-31 African Asian interactions contribute to the emergence of a decentred multi polar world in which different actors need to redefine themselves and their relations to each other Afrasian Transformations explores these changes to map out several arenas where these transformations have already produced startling results development politics South South cooperation cultural memory mobile lifeworlds and transcultural connectivity The contributions in this volume neither celebrate these shifting dynamics as felicitous proof of a new age of South South solidarity nor do they debunk them as yet another instance of burgeoning geopolitical hegemony Instead they seek to come to terms with the ambivalences contradictions and potential benefits entailed in these transformations that are also altering our understanding of trans area in an increasingly globalized world Contributors include Seifudein Adem Nafeesah Allen Jan Beek Tom De Bruyn Casper Hendrik Claassen Astrid Erll Hanna Getachew Amare John Njenga Karugia Guive Khan Mohammad Vinay Lal Pavan Kumar Malreddy Jamie Monson Diderot Nguenpouo Satwinder S Rehal Ute R schenthaler Alexandra Samokhvalova Darryl C Thomas and Sophia Thubauville

Responding to the Light Michael Mayne, Mark Oakley, Joel W. Huffstetler, 2017-09-28 Responding to the Light draws together a collection of profound and beautiful seasonal reflections from the beginning of Advent to the end of Epiphany by one of the finest voices in Anglican spirituality Michael Mayne was one of Anglicanism s most compelling and attractive voices a gifted preacher and writer whose works have remained popular These unpublished writings come from a large archive and are offered as an inspirational resource for preaching at a time of the year when many preachers seek fresh ways of opening up familiar texts They are also suitable for individual devotional reading Mark Oakley provides a foreword to the collection

Science and the Reenchantment of the Cosmos Ervin Laszlo, 2006-01-12 Presents a revolutionary new theory that bridges the divide between science and spirituality Discloses the ramifications of non localized consciousness and how the physical world and spiritual experience are two aspects of the same reality Includes contributions from Jane Goodall Ed Mitchell Stanislav Grof Ralph Abraham and Christian de Quincy among others What scientists are now finding at the outermost frontiers of every field is overturning all the basic premises concerning the nature of matter and reality The universe is not a world of separate things and events but is a cosmos that is connected coherent and bears a profound resemblance to the visions held in the earliest spiritual traditions in which the physical world and spiritual experience were both aspects of the same reality and man and the universe were one The findings that justify this new vision of the underlying logic of the universe come from almost all of the empirical sciences physics cosmology the life sciences and consciousness research They explain how interactions lead to interconnections that produce instantaneous and multifaceted coherence what happens to one part also happens to the other parts and hence to the system as a whole The sense of sacred oneness experienced by our ancestors that was displaced by the unyielding material presumptions of modern science can be restored and humanity can once again feel at home in the universe
