A Miscellany of American Poetry, 1920 Miscellany of American Poetry, 1920 Dade County Beach Erosion, Hurricane Protection Project, Modifications at Sunny Isles, 1998 The Romance of an Elderly Poet Alexander Meyrick Broadley, 1913 We, the Children of Cats Tomoyuki Hoshino, 2012-07-17. A man and woman find their genders and sexualities brought radically into question when their bodies sprout new parts seemingly out of thin air. A man travels from Japan to Latin America in search of revolutionary purpose and finds much more than he bargains for. A journalist investigates a poisoning at an elementary school and gets lost in an underworld of buried crimes, secret societies and haunted forests. Two young killers exiled from Japan find a new beginning as resistance fighters in Peru. These are but a few of the stories told in We, the Children of Cats, a new collection of provocative early works by Tomoyuki Hoshino, winner of the 2011 Kenzaburo Oe Award in Literature and author of the powerhouse novel Lonely Hearts Killer. PM Press 2009. Drawing on sources as diverse as Borges, Nabokov, Garcia Marquez, Kenji Nakagami and traditional Japanese folklore, Hoshino creates a challenging, slyly subversive literary world all his own. By turns teasing and terrifying, laconic and luminous, the stories in this anthology demonstrate Hoshino's view of literature as an art that wavers like a heat shimmer between joy at the prospect of becoming something else and despair at knowing that such a transformation is ultimately impossible. A novel's words trace the pattern of scars left by the struggle between these two feelings. Blending an uncompromising ethical vision with exuberant freewheeling imagery and bracing formal experimentation, the five short stories and three novellas included in We, the Children of Cats show the full range and force of Hoshino's imagination. The anthology also includes an afterword by translator and editor Brian Bergstrom and a new preface by Hoshino himself.
