Ellis Island Seawall Naomi D. Kroll, 2003 The Sea Wall Barbara Armstrong, 1996 Over the Seawall Stephen Robert Miller, 2023-10-31 In March 2011 people in a coastal Japanese city stood atop a seawall watching the approach of the tsunami that would kill them They believed naively that the huge concrete barrier would save them Instead they perished betrayed by the very thing built to protect them Erratic weather blistering drought rising seas and ecosystem collapse now affect every inch of the globe Increasingly we no longer look to stop climate change choosing instead to adapt to it Never have so many undertaken such a widespread hurried attempt to remake the world Predictably our hubris has led to unintended and sometimes disastrous consequences Academics call it maladaptation in simple terms it's about solutions that backfire Over the Seawall tells us the stories behind these unintended consequences and about the fixes that can do more harm than good From seawalls in coastal Japan to the reengineered waters in the Ganges River Delta to the artificial ribbon of water supporting both farms and urban centers in parched Arizona Stephen Robert Miller traces the histories of engineering marvels that were once deemed too smart and too big to fail In each he takes us into the land and culture seeking out locals and experts to better understand how complicated grandiose schemes led instead to failure and to find answers to the technologic holes we've dug ourselves into Over the Seawall urges us to take a hard look at the fortifications we build and how they've fared in the past It embraces humanity's penchant for problem solving but argues that if we are to adapt successfully to climate change we must recognize that working with nature is not surrender but the only way to assure a secure future Stability of Seawall, Texas City, Texas Robert Atkins Jackson, 1966 FanGong Seawall Jiwen, 2021-11-09 THIS STORY RECEIVED YANGTZE RIVER NETWORK LITERATURE COMPETITION AWARD FOR 2020 Set 1 000 years ago AD 1021 1026 during China's Song Dynasty it centres on the life and times of Fan Zhongyan a real historical figure in ancient China Fan is his last name and Gong is the most respectful honorific title in Chinese This novel focuses on his challenges and accomplishments as a young junior official in the coastal city of Yancheng literally Salt City located in Jiangsu Province Although his official duty was managing the salt warehouse he led the huge and dangerous project of building a massive seawall to protect the land and the people He constantly put the welfare of the people above his own and overcame a lot of obstacles Today people still call it the FanGong Seawall in honour of him It is a beautifully written story in which the author deftly blends messages with prose unfurling a narrative depicting Chinese history and culture through its colourful cast of characters The story is entertaining and includes so much great history poetry and universal moral wisdom that still endures today In the Shadow of the Seawall Summer Gray, 2023-09-12 In the Shadow of the Seawall journeys to the edge of the sea to understand the existential dilemma of seawalls alongside struggles for resilience and adaptation In coastal management debates seawalls are a deeply contested subject between those in favor of hard structures for mitigating the impacts of sea change and those who advocate measures modeled on natural processes Summer Gray argues that both approaches involve limited notions of resilience that undermine movements for social and climate justice and introduces the concept of placekeeping the struggle to resist colonizing practices of displacement as a justice oriented framework for addressing the global dangers of coastal disruption Drawing on a mix of ethnographic observation interviews and archival research Gray shows how competing logics of adaptation play out on the ground in Guyana and the Maldives to reveal how seawalls are entrenched in relationships of power and entangled in processes of making and keeping place

Sea Wall Simon Stephens,2019-01-28 There s a hole running through the centre of my stomach You must have all felt a bit awkward because you can probably see it Sea Wall is a delicate monologue completely devastating and beautifully powerful Alex s story spoken directly to the audience begins full of clear light and smiles as he speaks about his wife visiting her father in the South of France having a daughter photography and the bottom of the sea His tone is natural happy and engaging with flickers of questions about belief and religion glimpsed under the surface But his contentment falls away into deep and heart breaking grief crumbling to pieces with a vividness that is incredibly moving
