

THE SEARCH FOR EXTRATERRESTRIAL INTELLIGENCE

A large radio telescope dish is the central focus, angled upwards towards the sky. The scene is set at sunset or sunrise, with a vibrant orange and yellow glow on the horizon. The sky is dark, and the telescope's structure is silhouetted against the bright light. The overall mood is one of scientific exploration and discovery.

What is Life? On Earth and Beyond Andreas Losch, 2017-07-13 Approaches from the sciences philosophy and theology including the emerging field of astrobiology can provide fresh perspectives to the age old question what is life Has the secret of life been unveiled and is it nothing more than physical chemistry Modern philosophers will ask if we can even define life at all as we still don t know much about its origins here on Earth Others regard life as something that cannot simply be reduced to just physics and chemistry while biologists emphasize the historical component intrinsic to life on Earth How can theology constructively interpret scientific findings Can it contribute constructively to scientific discussions Written for a broad interdisciplinary audience this probing volume discusses life intelligence and more against the background of contemporary biology and the wider contexts of astrobiology and cosmology It also considers the challenging implications for science and theology if extraterrestrial life is discovered in the future
