Search For Synthesis In Literature And Art:

The Search for Synthesis in Literature and Art Ann C. Colley, 1990-01-01 In this book the author uses metaphors to rethink the relation between verbal and visual images and in a broader sense to examine the desire for personal fusion in friendship and love Drawing upon a wide range of artistic and literary figures Colley emphasizes the paradox that synthesis is possible only when space remains between the elements that seek to blend Handbook of Russian Literature Victor Terras, 1985-01-01 Profiles the careers of Russian authors scholars and critics and discusses the history of the Russian treatment of literary genres such as drama fiction and essays A Selective Guide to Chinese Literature 1900-1949 Nils Göran David Malmqvist, European Science Foundation, 1989-12-31 The aim of the Selective Guide is to facilitate the first stage of research for those interested in Chinese literature between 1900 and 1949 It provides the reader with basic information on more than 300 words by Chinese writers The contributions are based on independent research of sinologists from numerous countries The guide consists of four volumes which deal with the novel the short story the poem and the drama the current volume respectively Each volume contains an introduction which surveys the development of the particular genre and its characteristics in the period covered All entries contain bibliographical information summary of content and appraisal of the work as well as references to secondary sources and translations Retrospection and Revision in Modern and Contemporary Art, Literature and Music Mette Gieskes, Mathilde Roza, 2024-01-03 This interdisciplinary book investigates the various ways in which North American and European modern and contemporary artists authors and musicians have returned to earlier works of their own engaging in inventive revivals and transformations of the past in the present The book is distinctive in its focus on such revisits as well as in the diversity of art forms under review in addition to visual art the book explores fiction poetry literary criticism film rock music and philosophy This scope together with the time span covered in the book from the 1850s to the twenty first century allows for a broad view on retrospection and revision The case studies presented here offer a multifaceted exploration of the widely different goals to which practitioners of the arts have made retrospection and revision functional against the background of cultural social political and personal forces Anthropological and historical sciences. Interbellum Literature Cor Hermans, 2017-07-10 In Interbellum Literature historian Cor Hermans presents a panorama of modernist writing in the ominous period 1918-1940 The book offers in full scope an engaging synthesis of the most stimulating ideas and tendencies in the novels and plays of a wide circle of writers from France Proust Gide Camus Celine Tzara Aragon Simone Weil England and Ireland Virginia Woolf Orwell Joyce Beckett the USA Scott Fitzgerald Arthur Miller O'Neill Hemingway Austria Hungary Musil Broch Kafka Zweig Roth and Germany Hesse Jünger Böll Thomas Mann Caught between world wars they nevertheless succeeded in creating some of the best literature ever They created a philosophy as well rejecting bourgeois mechanical society designing escape routes from the nihilism of the times Music and the Functions of the Brain: Arousal, Emotions, and Pleasure Mark Reybrouck, Tuomas Eerola, Piotr Podlipniak, 2018-04-12 Music impinges upon the body and the brain As such it has significant inductive power which relies both on innate dispositions and acquired mechanisms and competencies The processes are partly autonomous and partly deliberate and interrelations between several levels of processing are becoming clearer with accumulating new evidence For instance recent developments in neuroimaging techniques have broadened the field by encompassing the study of cortical and subcortical processing of the music The domain of musical emotions is a typical example with a major focus on the pleasure that can be derived from listening to music Pleasure however is not the only emotion to be induced and the mechanisms behind its elicitation are far from understood There are also mechanisms related to arousal and activation that are both less differentiated and at the same time more complex than the assumed mechanisms that trigger basic emotions It is imperative therefore to investigate what pleasurable and mood modifying effects music can have on human beings in real time listening situations This e-book is an attempt to answer these questions Revolving around the specificity of music experience in terms of perception emotional reactions and aesthetic assessment it presents new hypotheses theoretical claims as well as new empirical data which contribute to a better understanding of the functions of the brain as related to musical experience

A critical appraisal of research in arts, health and wellbeing Stephen Clift,Gunter Kreutz,Stephen Pritchard,Michael Koon Boon Tan,Kai Lehtikainen,Andre De Quadros,Esther Coren,Kate Phillips,2023-06-23 Towards Methodologically Inclusive Research Syntheses Harsh Suri,2013-07-31 Primary research in education and social sciences is marked by a diversity of methods and perspectives How can we accommodate and reflect such diversity at the level of synthesizing research What are the critical methodological decisions in the process of a research synthesis and how do these decisions open up certain possibilities while closing down others This book draws upon methodologically diverse literature on research synthesis methods and primary research methods to develop a framework for synthesizing research It presents a Methodologically Inclusive Research Synthesis framework to facilitate critical and informed decision making among the producers and users of research synthesis Three guiding principles for a quality research synthesis are proposed informed subjectivity and reflexivity purposefully informed selective inclusivity and audience appropriate transparency The book then provides a thorough discussion of how these principles might be enacted in the following six phases identifying an appropriate epistemological orientation identifying an appropriate purpose searching for relevant literature evaluating interpreting and distilling evidence from selected studies constructing connected understandings communicating with an audience A wide range of techniques and perspectives from postpositivist interpretive participatory critical and postmodern traditions are considered in the book and Suri opens up new areas of debate by exploring numerous aspects of research syntheses from a methodologically inclusive perspective The book will be valuable reading for researchers and postgraduates in education and social sciences The Search for Wholeness and Diaspora Literacy in Contemporary African American Literature Silvia Castro-Borrego,2011-05-25 This volume has as a cohesive argument the exploration of the different manifestations of the search for wholeness and spirituality in the writings of contemporary African American women writers covering different literary genres such as fiction both novels and short stories drama and poetry Together with the issue of spirituality the African American search for wholeness is analyzed as a source of creativity and agency As expressed in the contemporary literature of black women writers starting in the 1980s the search for wholeness reflects a beauty realized through the healing of the spirit and the body and is a process that takes on dimensions of reconciling the past and the present the mythical and the real the spiritual and the physical all in the context of an emerging world view that welcomes synthesis and expects both synthesis and generative contradictions The book will be a valuable collection for scholars of African American literature comparative American Ethnic literature American literature and spirituality as well as women s studies In addition it will be an important text for both undergraduate and graduate students in those fields As Professor Johnnella Butler 2006 points out the African American search for wholeness is tightly linked to the search for freedom and agency Ever since the 19th century African American writers have given expression to an African American self which functions in Western civilization simultaneously as a colonized other and an assertive self Due to the continuous ordeal of the African Diaspora this self is caught in between the binaries proposed by the material and the spiritual world seeking a balance where the person can become whole The search for wholeness feeds from cultural roots that imply the presence of ancestral spiritualism rememory and double consciousness Contemporary black women writers reflect the metaphor of building spiritual bridges seeking the possibilities of building a bridge to the archetypal African past that is carried in their memories as a presence that offers sustenance via spiritual reconnection Their works seek to bridge the gap between the myths and traditions of the past and contemporary African American culture The texts included in this collection are examples of writing as an exercise of what V v Clark calls Diaspora literacy The texts written by contemporary African American women writers explicitly show how to recognize and read the cultural signs left scattered along the road of progress In this way material acquisition is achieved along with cultural dispossession becoming a metaphor for the history of the African in America The powerful message is that one should not exclude the other
