teacher our colleague our friend Both of us are particularly indebted to Jan not only with regards to professional matters but some private ones as well Hence we hope that he forgives us an occasional lapse into fondness and affection That said may the list of his personal merits remain shrouded in mystery rather than unveil them we open here by appraising Jan's presence from a broader perspective To note that Jan was not always a part of our lives would not evoke surprise However to imagine the Institute of Philosophy on Grodzka Street or Krakow philosophy without him in it would be a harder task at least for us Nonetheless we do remember the days when he was commuting to Krakow as a guest lecturer Is there anything about those days which particularly comes to mind To shed light on the story which follows one must begin by stating that the early 1980s when we were studying philosophy was not a bright period The great masters of Krakow philosophy Ingarden Mehlberg Zawirski or Dambska were either dead or for political reasons kept silent The years following Martial Law 1981-1983 were intellectually very blighted and barren In the midst of all this we were attending Jan's course on general methodology
