Seasons of Celebration Thomas Merton,2010-04-01 This work originally inspired by the liturgical renewal brought on by Vatican II contains Thomas Merton s meditations on the seasons of the liturgical year He examines the words songs ceremonies signs and movements that are designed to open our hearts and minds

Liturgical Feasts and Seasons Thomas Merton,2023-11-30 Liturgical Feasts and Seasons in this third volume of paper from Thomas Merton s conferences during his decade 1955 1965 as novice master at the Cistercian Abbey of Gethsemani his insight into the liturgical pattern of the Christian year and beyond is presented in fresh detail Merton s own commitment to this central dimension of Christian life is clear and nowhere more so than in his work introducing students to the patterns that would mark their lives as monks Though dating from the period just before the liturgical reforms of Vatican II Merton s commentaries remain pertinent The thoroughly annotated text is preceded by an extensive introduction situating this material in the context of Merton s lifelong writing on liturgy Moreover as his former student Br Paul Quenon notes in his foreword this context is one deeply rooted in Merton s understanding of Scripture These notes take us into one man s lifetime of reflection and seasoned experience of the Church Year

In the Liturgical Feasts and Seasons Novitiate Conferences on Scripture and Liturgy 3 Patrick F O Connell deeply rooted in Merton s understanding of Scripture

Mystery Manifest Gail Ramshaw,2025-02-04 Renowned liturgist and scholar Gail Ramshaw mines the treasures of the Bible patristic sermons theological treatises mystical reveries liturgical texts hymns and poetry to craft a richly textured collection and framework for thinking about the language Christians use to address and describe the triune God More than a compilation yet more practical than a purely theological treatise Mystery Manifest is a volume that liturgists ministers and theologians will return to again and again

seeking wisdom and insight into the figures of speech humans have developed to express the ineffable With astute analysis and an eye for the creativity of our language over time Ramshaw grounds readers in the realm of metaphor as practice before presenting an example the metaphor of God the Fire as finely layered illustration She then covers each of the Persons of the Trinity in turn before culminating with Trinitarian and extended metaphors for God Readers will find in these pages a wealth of resources for liturgical study homiletical preparation worship preparation and theological reflection Scholars and ministers alike will want to keep a copy readily available on their shelves Reflections of Immanuel Scott Lencke,2020-09-30 Each year society cycles back around to the all important date of December 25 This date is bookended by Thanksgiving and New Year s Day yielding a five to six week festive holiday period within American culture Yet the historic church has held to a different rhythm one that begins with the season of Advent and then moves into the twelve days of Christmas The word Advent means coming or arrival It s a time of preparation and anticipation as we head toward the celebration of Christ s birth Some of us have previously walked through the seasons of the church s calendar others perhaps not But it is a story that is deeply enriching Reflections of Immanuel invites the reader to wait for Christmas and join the church s rhythmic story of Advent As we patiently move through the season and then on to Christmas itself this little book offers fresh insights on familiar Scripture passages and themes We Live Inside a Story Megan McKenna,2010 In the realm of the Spirit and when dealing with our own souls and the souls of others we are often at a loss for words We have a sense maybe even an image of what we want to share ask or communicate but words are harder to find and express Stories are the glue that hold us together in whatever groups we belong to even if we only visit or find ourselves on the margins In a sense our God is a story being told and God is seeking for all of us to listen to enter into the story and become one Megan McKenna uses images of Russian nesting dolls to illustrate the many layers of the stories that exist in each of our lives particularly in relation to the Spirit Stories are critical to living and are intertwined with truth in such a way that we can carry them with us remember them and pass them along sharing them as needed We live inside a story We live inside God
