Sg Vol 2 World History:

The Cambridge World History: Volume 2, A World with Agriculture, 12,000 BCE-500 CE Graeme Barker, Candice Goucher, 2015-04-16 The development of agriculture has often been described as the most important change in all of human history Volume 2 of the Cambridge World History series explores the origins and impact of agriculture and agricultural communities and also discusses issues associated with pastoralism and hunter fisher gatherer economies To capture the patterns of this key change across the globe the volume uses an expanded timeframe from 12 000 BCE 500 CE beginning with the Neolithic and continuing into later periods Scholars from a range of disciplines including archaeology historical linguistics biology anthropology and history trace common developments in the more complex social structures and cultural forms that agriculture enabled such as sedentary villages and more elaborate foodways and then present a series of regional overviews accompanied by detailed case studies from many different parts of the world including Southwest Asia South Asia China Japan Southeast Asia and the Pacific sub Saharan Africa the Americas and Europe The Cambridge World

History of Slavery: Volume 2, AD 500-AD 1420 Craig Perry, David Eltis, Stanley L. Engerman, David Richardson, 2021-08-12 Medieval slavery has received little attention relative to slavery in ancient Greece and Rome and in the early modern Atlantic world This imbalance in the scholarship has led many to assume that slavery was of minor importance in the Middle Ages In fact the practice of slavery continued unabated across the globe throughout the medieval millennium This volume the final volume in The Cambridge World History of Slavery covers the period between the fall of Rome and the rise of the transatlantic plantation complexes by assembling twenty three original essays written by scholars acknowledged as leaders in their respective fields The volume demonstrates the continual and central presence of slavery in societies worldwide between 500 CE and 1420 CE The essays analyze key concepts in the history of slavery including gender trade empire state formation and diplomacy labor childhood social status and mobility cultural attitudes spectrums of dependency and coercion and life histories of enslaved people A General History Of The Chinese In Singapore Chong

Guan Kwa, Bak Lim Kua, 2019-06-21 A General History of the Chinese in Singapore documents over 700 years of Chinese history in Singapore from Chinese presence in the region through the millennium old Hokkien trading world to the waves of mass migration that came after the establishment of a British settlement and through to the development and birth of the nation Across 38 chapters and parts readers are taken through the complex historical mosaic of Overseas Chinese social economic and political activity in Singapore and the region such as the development of maritime junk trade plantation industries and coolie labour the role of different bangs clan associations and secret societies as well as Chinese leaders the diverging political allegiances including Sun Yat sen s revolutionary activities and the National Salvation Movement leading up to the Second World War the transplanting of traditional Chinese religions the changing identity of the Overseas Chinese and the developments in language and education policies publishing arts and more With Pride in our Past Legacy for our Future as its key objective this volume aims to preserve the Singapore Chinese story history and heritage for future generations as well as keep our cultures and traditions alive Therefore the book aims to serve as a comprehensive guide for Singaporeans new immigrants and foreigners to have an epitome of the Singapore society This publication is supported by the National Heritage Board s Heritage Project Grant Related Link s Sources for Frameworks of World History Lynne Miles-Morillo,Stephen Morillo,2014 Each chapter in Sources for Frameworks of World History contains four to six sources including photographs graphics maps poetry and cartoons carefully chosen by coeditors Lynne Miles Morillo and Stephen Morillo to specifically compliment Frameworks of World History Chapter introductions headnotes and reading questions provide context while a general introduction examines problems and issues in working with and interpreting sources Back cover

The Cambridge World History of Genocide: Volume 2, Genocide in the Indigenous, Early Modern and Imperial Worlds, from c.1535 to World War One Ned Blackhawk,Ben Kiernan,Benjamin Madley,Rebe Taylor,2023-05-04 Volume II documents and analyses genocide and extermination throughout the early modern and modern eras It tracks their global expansion as European and Asian imperialisms and Euroamerican settler colonialism spread across the globe before the Great War forging new frontiers and impacting Indigenous communities in Europe Asia North America Africa and Australia Twenty five historians with expertise on specific regions explore examples on five continents providing comparisons of nine cases of conventional imperialism with nineteen of settler colonialism and offering a substantial basis for assessing the various factors leading to genocide This volume also considers cases where genocide did not occur permitting a global consideration of the role of imperialism and settler Indigenous relations from the sixteenth to the early twentieth centuries It ends with six pre 1918 cases from Australia China the Middle East Africa and Europe that can be seen as premonitions of the major twentieth century genocides in Europe and Asia

The Cambridge Economic History of Modern Europe: Volume 2, 1870 to the Present Stephen Broadberry,Kevin H. O'Rourke,2010-06-24 Unlike most existing textbooks on the economic history of modern Europe which offer a country by country approach The Cambridge Economic History of Modern Europe rethinks Europe s economic history since 1700 as unified and pan European with the material organized by topic rather than by country This second volume tracks Europe s economic history through three major phases since 1870 The first phase was an age of globalization and of European economic and political dominance that lasted until the First World War The second from 1914 to 1945 was one of war deglobalization and depression and the third was one of growing integration not only within Europe but also between Europe and the global economy Leading authors offer comprehensive and accessible introductions to these patterns of globalization and deglobalization as well as to key themes in modern economic history such as economic growth business cycles sectoral developments and population and living standards

Singapore in Global History Derek Thiam Soon Heng,Syed Muhd Khairudin Aljunied,2011 This important overview explores the connections between Singapore s past with historical developments worldwide until present day The contributors analyse Singapore as a city state seeking to provide an interdisciplinary perspective to the study of the global dimensions contributing to Singapore's growth. The book's global perspective demonstrates that many of the discussions of Singapore as a city state have relevance and implications beyond Singapore to include Southeast Asia and the world. This vital volume should not be missed by economists as well as those interested in imperial history. The History of the U.S. Army Medical Service Corps Richard V. N. Ginn, 1997

Singapore - Two Hundred Years of the Lion City Anthony Webster, Nicholas White, 2019-10-29 Two hundred years after Singapore's foundation by Stamford Raffles in 1819 this book reflects on the historical development of the city putting forward much new research and new thinking. It discusses Singapore's emergence as a regional economic hub explores its strategic importance and considers its place in the development of the British Empire. Subjects covered include the city's initial role as a strategic centre to limit the resurgence of Dutch power in Southeast Asia after the Napoleonic Wars the impact of the Japanese occupation and the reasons for Singapore's exit from the Malaysian Federation in 1965. The book concludes by examining how Singapore's history is commemorated at present reinforcing the image of the city as prosperous peaceful and forward looking and draws out the lessons which history can provide concerning the city's likely future development.

Central Asia in World History Peter B. Golden, 2011-01-26 A vast region stretching roughly from the Volga River to Manchuria and the northern Chinese borderlands Central Asia has been called the pivot of history a land where nomadic invaders and Silk Road traders changed the destinies of states that ringed its borders including pre modern Europe the Middle East and China. In Central Asia in World History Peter B. Golden provides an engaging account of this important region ranging from prehistory to the present focusing largely on the unique melting pot of cultures that this region has produced over millennia. Golden describes the traders who braved the heat and cold along caravan routes to link East Asia and Europe the Mongol Empire of Chinggis Khan and his successors the largest contiguous land empire in history the invention of gunpowder which allowed the great sedentary empires to overcome the horse based nomads the power struggles of Russia and China and later Russia and Britain for control of the area. Finally he discusses the region today a key area that neighbors such geopolitical hot spots as Iran Afghanistan Pakistan and China.

The Cambridge World History Merry E. Wiesner-Hanks, David Christian, Graeme Barker, Benjamin Z. Kedar, Norman Yoffee, Craig Benjamin, Jerry H. Bentley, John Robert McNeill, 2015 The most comprehensive account yet of the human past from prehistory to the present

A Global History of Trade and Conflict since 1500 L. Coppolaro, F. McKenzie, 2013-11-20 This book explains the causes and consequences of the intersection of two transformative global forces trade and conflict since 1500. The nine historical case studies interspersed over 500 years and spanning the globe make a major historical contribution to the enduring debate about whether trade makes peace more likely.

Offshore Asia Fujita Kayoko, Shiro Momoki, Anthony Reid, 2013 This exemplary work of international collaboration takes a comparative approach to the histories of Northeast and Southeast Asia with contributions from scholars from Japan Korea and the Englishspeaking academic world. The new scholarship represented by this volume demonstrates that the vast and growing commercial interactions between the countries of eastern Asia have long historical roots. The so-called opening to Western trade in the mid-nineteenth century, which is typically seen as the beginning of this process, is shown to be rather the reversal of a relatively temporary phase of state consolidation in the long eighteenth century. The Publishers Weekly, 1917

Across The Green Sea Sanjay Subrahmanyam, 2024-07-02 Beginning in the mid-fifteenth century, the regions bordering the western Indian Ocean, the green sea as it was known to Arabic speakers, underwent vast transformation. An era of commercial and cultural exchange blossomed between the Red Sea and Mecca, the Persian Gulf, East Africa, Kerala, and western India. In Across the Green Sea, Sanjay Subrahmanyam recounts the history of this ocean from a variety of shifting viewpoints. He sets the scene with the withdrawal of China's Ming Dynasty and explores how the western Indian Ocean was transformed by the growth and increasing prominence of the Ottoman Empire and the continued spread of Islam into East Africa. He examines how several cities, including Mecca and the vital Indian port of Surat, grew and changed during these centuries when various powers interacted until famines and other disturbances upended the region in the seventeenth century. Rather than proposing an artificial model of a dominant centre and its dominated peripheries, Across the Green Sea reveals the complexity of a truly dynamic and polycentric system through the use of connected histories, a method which he has pioneered.

Imagined Geographies Geoffrey C. Gunn, 2021-09-03 Imagined Geographies is a pioneering work in the study of history and geography of the pre-1800 world. In this book, Gunn argues that different regions astride the maritime silk roads were not only interconnected but can also be construed as imagined geographies. Taking a grand civilizational perspective, five such geographic imaginaries are examined across respective chapters: namely Indian, Arabic, Chinese, Japanese, and European, including an imagined Great South Land. Drawing upon an array of marine and other archaeological examples, the author offers compelling evidence of the intertwining of political, cultural, and economic regions across the sea silk roads from ancient times until the seventeenth century. Through a thorough analysis of these five geographic imaginaries, the author sets aside purely national history and looks at the maritime realm from a broader spatial perspective. He challenges the Eurocentric concept of center and periphery and establishes a revisionist view on a decentered world regional history. This book will definitely interest history lovers from all around the world who want to know more about how their forebears viewed their respective region and how their region fits into world history with local uniqueness. Gunn takes large themes and makes them understandable. He is not afraid to make the grand statement and to look at the sweep of history all in one arc. I admire that greatly; this is not history for the faint of heart. But it is history well done, and history that can show the forest from the trees. Eric Tagliacozzo, John Stambaugh, Professor of History, Cornell University. This is one of the most ambitious and insightful books that I have read on pre Modern maritime Asia The author offers fascinating perspectives on how this vast region was imagined charted and experienced over many centuries That requires mastery of an immense range of scholarship and primary sources His aim is to knit this watery world together into a conceptual whole This mission is accomplished with style and discipline Andrew R Wilson John A van Beuren Chair of Asia Pacific Studies U S Naval War College      The History of the Collections
