The Encyclopedia of Racism in American Films Salvador Jiménez Murguía, 2018-04-12 Winner RUSA 2019 Outstanding References Source Winner and named a Library Journal Best Reference Book of the Year 2018 From D W Griffith's Birth of a Nation in 1915 to the recent Get Out audiences and critics alike have responded to racism in motion pictures for more than a century Whether subtle or blatant racially biased images and narratives erase minorities perpetuate stereotypes and keep alive practices of discrimination and marginalization Even in the 21st century the American film industry is not color blind evidenced by films such as Babel 2006 A Better Life 2011 and 12 Years a Slave 2013 The Encyclopedia of Racism in

American Film documents one facet of racism in the film industry wherein historically underrepresented peoples are misrepresented through a lack of roles for actors of color stereotyping negative associations and an absence of rich nuanced characters Offering insights and analysis from over seventy scholars critics and activists the volume highlights issues such as Hollywood's diversity crisis White Savior films Magic Negro tropes The disconnect between screen images and lived realities of African Americans Latinos Native Americans and Asians A companion to the ever growing field of race studies this volume opens up a critical dialogue on an always timely issue The Encyclopedia of Racism in American Film will appeal to scholars of cinema race and ethnicity studies and cultural history

The Tribe Joseph Deaton, 2017-05-17 This road trip is a moving human record tragic poignant and humorous A true account which follows an attempt to cope with changing culture where everything is being short circuited While appearing to be a simple tale there is hidden sophistication It is a story of the first magnitude The narrative sweeps through history with camouflaged complexity In places it is a dreadful miasma filled with anger bitterness and pain from the physicist explanation of where humanity fits into the scheme of things to the small Japanese child who asks repeatedly the strangers fleeing toward the River Platte after the bomb fell why is it dark again so early in the day Exploring the intersection between science religion and culture the reader is forced to think deeply as it interrupts the long communion of our own desires when we cannot refuse to accept some of its insights With candor the tale takes one through the five stages of grief moving back and forth in time in a no holds barred fashion told by the very people who lived it Brace yourself for their passage into trouble is brutal and stark The tribe is the remnants of a long line the long column of English Knights Their solutions melt into a gripping tale that flows like a river into the heart of every person who has a family for every family has a tribe around it A special touch of this tour de force is the haunting undercurrent of a search for love among ruins P S The Tribe can be more fully understood as a part of a trilogy The Life and Crimes of Bug Tussle is the second part The trilogy was withdrawn in consideration for Angus Deaton's after he was nominated for a Nobel prize for his work in economics

Good Morning, Mr Sarra Chris Sarra, 2022-11-29 One man's fight to turn the tide of low expectations When Chris Sarra arrived as the first Aboriginal principal of Cherbourg State School it was a time of high hopes but low expectations in Indigenous education Over six years he transformed the school into a national success story Along the way he battled the media the education system and a culture of complacency Good Morning Mr Sarra is the inspiring life story of a young boy from a country town who grew up to become Queensland's Australian of the Year a subject of ABC's Australian Story and one of the most outspoken and recognised educators in the country His leadership institute and its nationally acclaimed they can expect it In this anniversary edition Chris Sarra reflects on his recent life and career achievements from becoming a marathon runner to advocating for the marginalised as a director general in state government and how his work is helping forge a path to Treaty
