Senate, 1857 Annual List of Merchant Vessels of the United States, 1874 The Freedoms We Lost Barbara Clark Smith, 2010-11-09 A brilliant and original examination of American freedom as it existed before the Revolution from the Smithsonian's curator of social history The American Revolution is widely understood by schoolchildren and citizens alike as having ushered in freedom as we know it a freedom that places voting at the center of American democracy In a sharp break from this view historian Barbara Clark Smith charts the largely unknown territory of the unique freedoms enjoyed by colonial American subjects of the British king that is American freedom before the Revolution The Freedoms We Lost recovers a world of common people regularly serving on juries joining crowds that enforced or opposed the king's edicts and supplying community enforcement of laws in an era when there were no professional police The Freedoms We Lost challenges the unquestioned assumption that the American patriots simply introduced freedom where the king had once reigned Rather Smith shows that they relied on colonial era traditions of political participation to drive the Revolution forward and eventually betrayed these same traditions as leading patriots gravitated toward monied men and elites who would limit the role of common men in the new democracy By the end of the 1780s she shows Americans discovered that forms of participation once proper to subjects of Britain were inappropriate even impermissible to citizens of the United States In a narrative that counters nearly every textbook account of America's founding era The Freedoms We Lost challenges us to think about what it means to be free

Sarkar, 2012-06-08 This book offers a fresh contextual reading of Paradise Lost that suggests that a recovery of the vital intellectual ferment of the new science magic and alchemy of the seventeenth century reveals new and unexpected aspects of Milton's cosmos and chaos and the characters of the angels and Adam and Eve After examining the contextual references to cabalism hermeticism and science in the invocations and in the presentation of chaos and Night the book focuses on the central stage of the epic action Milton's unique cosmos at once finite and infinite with its re-orientation of compass points While Milton relies on the new astronomy optics and mechanics in configuring his cosmos he draws upon alchemy to suggest that the imagined prelapsarian cosmos is the crucible within which vital re-orientations of authority could have taken place Fitz H. Lane James A. Craig, 2006-08-01 Fitz H Lane's maritime masterpieces are known throughout the world but the man himself has eluded both historians and art critics for over a century The Luminist painter's successful career began in his early childhood in picturesque Gloucester Massachusetts and his talents developed and matured over time making him one of the nation's premier nineteenth century artists Throughout his career Lane painted with a vitality and attention to detail that was purely American at heart and it is in pursuit of this ideal that James Craig embarks on a detective's investigation to reconstruct with accuracy and honesty the details of a man about whom much has been written but little revealed Few clues remain today about the artist who so thoroughly embodied the American spirit during one of humanity's most dramatic and confusing historical epochs Lane's era was one of great change for America and both he and his art were there to capture that spirit This dazzling and exhaustive effort provides the first glimpse behind the canvas beyond the career and into the soul of Fitz H Lane Passionate stunning and thrilling this is a narrative that returns life and color to a man intent on preserving and presenting the life of the culture he loved James Craig has given Gloucester back one of her favorite sons Boston Patrice Sherman, 2010-12-23 What tunnel is named after a Boston Red Sox baseball player Who were the Minutemen What's a triple decker and where do Bostonians celebrate the Fourth of July Join Abby and her friends on their class trip to Boston and learn the answers to these questions and more Meet some of Boston's famous people including Phillis Wheatley America's first African American poet and John Fitzgerald Kennedy the 35th president of the United States Take a tour of the city's historic neighborhoods from elegant Back Bay to busy Chinatown to the North End home of the Revolutionary War hero Paul Revere Come along as Abby and her classmates hike the Freedom Trail visit the site of the Boston Tea Party and hop aboard Old Ironsides the oldest ship in the U S Navy You'll even learn how to make an authentic sailor's windsock so that you'll always know which way the wind blows
