Lost Classics Michael Ondaatje, Michael Redhill, Esta Spalding, Linda Spalding, 2011-03-30 An Anchor Books Original Seventy four distinguished writers tell personal tales of books loved and lost great books overlooked under read out of print stolen scorned extinct or otherwise out of commission Compiled by the editors of Brick A Literary Magazine Lost Classics is a reader's delight an intriguing and entertaining collection of eulogies for lost books As the editors have written in a joint introduction to the book being lovers of books we've pulled a scent of these absences behind us our whole reading lives telling people about books that exist only on our own shelves or even just in our own memory Anyone who has ever been changed by a book will find kindred spirits in the pages of Lost Classics Each of the editors has contributed a lost book essay to this collection including Michael Ondaatje on Sri Lankan filmmaker Tissa Abeysekara's Bringing Tony Home a novella about a mutual era of childhood Also included are Margaret Atwood on sex and death in the scandalous Doctor Glas first published in Sweden in 1905 Russell Banks on the off beat travelogue Too Late to Turn Back by Barbara Greene the slightly ditzy cousin of Graham Bill Richardson on a children's book for adults by Russell Hoban Ronald Wright on William Golding's Pincher Martin Caryl Phillips on Michael Mac Liammoir's account of his experiences on the set of Orson Welles's Othello and much much more The Lost Classics Robert Ruark, 2024-03-26 A collection of magazine stories that Ruark wrote in the 1950s and 1960s but were never published in book form

Africa's Lost Classics Lizelle Bisschoff, 2017-07-05 Until recently the story of African film was marked by a series of truncated histories many outstanding films from earlier decades were virtually inaccessible and thus often excluded from critical accounts However various conservation projects since the turn of the century have now begun to make many of these films available to critics and audiences in a way that was unimaginable just a decade ago In this accessible and lively collection of essays Lizelle Bisschoff and David Murphy draw together the best scholarship on the diverse and fragmented strands of African film history Their volume recovers over 30 lost African classic films from 1920 2010 in order to provide a more complex genealogy and begin to trace new histories of African filmmaking from 1920s Egyptian melodramas through lost gems from apartheid South Africa to neglected works by great Francophone directors the full diversity of African cinema will be revealed Lost Classics, 2003 Doughboys on the Great War Edward A. Gutiérrez, 2017-01-20 It is impossible to reproduce the state of mind of the men who waged war in 1917 and 1918 Edward Coffman wrote in The War to End All Wars In Doughboys on the Great War the voices of thousands of servicemen say otherwise The majority of soldiers from the American Expeditionary Forces returned from Europe in 1919 Where many were simply asked for basic data veterans from four states Utah Minnesota Connecticut and Virginia were given questionnaires soliciting additional information and remarks Drawing on these questionnaires completed while memories were still fresh this book presents a chorus of soldiers' voices speaking directly of the expectations motivations and experiences as infantrymen on the Western Front in World War I What was it like to kill or maim German soldiers To see friends killed or maimed by the enemy To return home after experiencing such violence Again and again soldiers wrestle with questions like these putting into words what only they can tell They also reflect on why they volunteered why they fought what their training was and how ill prepared they were for what they found overseas They describe how they interacted with the civilian populations in England and France how they saw the rewards and frustrations of occupation duty when they desperately wanted to go home and perhaps most significantly what it all added up to in the end Together their responses create a vivid and nuanced group portrait of the soldiers who fought with the American Expeditionary Forces on the battlefields of Aisne Marne Argonne Forest Belleau Wood Chateau Thierry the Marne Metz Meuse Argonne St Mihiel Sedan and Verdun during the First World War The picture that emerges is often at odds with the popular notion of the disillusioned doughboy Though hardened and harrowed by combat the veteran heard here is for the most part proud of his service service undertaken for duty honor and country In short a hundred years later the doughboy once more speaks in his own true voice
