Lost Mount Prospect Gavin W. Kleespies, 2006 Mount Prospect dates back to the 1840s The village has a fascinating legacy as an immigrant community an ambitious small town an early progressive suburb and a classic postwar community However few of today's residents are aware of this legacy Much of Mount Prospect's past has been overshadowed by the incredibly rapid development of the past half century The population of Mount Prospect in 1950 was around 4 000 people the population was almost 19 000 by 1960 and today it approaches 60 000 This amazingly rapid development fundamentally changed how Mount Prospect saw itself and redefined the community's landscape Many of the older buildings were demolished to make way for new developments or were modernized and are now hard to identify The farms and early industries were replaced with houses and shopping areas By the time this rapid development was over it was hard to see what had been here before Lost Mount Prospect is an examination of this history It is a look at the village through the lens of what no longer exists Mount Prospect dates back to the 1840s The village has a fascinating legacy as an immigrant community an ambitious small town an early progressive suburb and a classic postwar community However few of today's residents are aware of this legacy Much of Mount Prospect's past has been overshadowed by the incredibly rapid development of the past half century The population of Mount Prospect in 1950 was around 4 000 people the population was almost 19 000 by 1960 and today it approaches 60 000 This amazingly rapid development fundamentally changed how Mount Prospect saw itself and redefined the community's landscape Many of the older buildings were demolished to make way for new developments or were modernized and are now hard to identify The farms and early industries were replaced with houses and shopping areas By the time this rapid development was over it was hard to see what had been here before Lost Mount Prospect is an examination of this history It is a look at the village through the lens of what no longer exists
