Conder, 2021-03-17 In this closely reasoned study John J Conder has created a new and more vital understanding of naturalism in American literature Moving from the Hobbesian dilemma between causation and free will down through Bergson's concept of dual selves Conder defines a view of determinism so rich in possibilities that it can serve as the inspiration of literary works of astonishing variety and unite them in a single though developing naturalistic tradition in American letters At the heart of this book beyond its philosophic discussion is Conder's reading of key works in the naturalistic canon beginning with Stephen Crane's The Open Boat and The Blue Hotel. The special character of determinism in Crane is Conder holds the source of his complexity and striking originality. He finds a stricter determinism in Norris's McTeague. In Dreiser however the naturalistic tradition develops toward a fusion of determinism and freedom in a single work and this fusion in a different guise operates in Dos Passos's view of self in Manhattan Transfer. With Steinbeck's The Grapes of Wrath the uniting of determinism and freedom finds its fullest realization in the concept of dual selves one determined one free. In Faulkner's The Sound and the Fury and Absalom Absalom the concept of the dual self appears in its most complex form. The developments in the work of Steinbeck and Faulkner Conder believes bring the classic phase of American literary naturalism to a close. Naturalism in American Fiction illuminates a group of major literary works and revives a theoretic consideration of naturalism. It thus makes a fundamental contribution to American studies.

Live While You Can Fr. Tony Coote, 2019-05-02 Fr. Tony Coote was just fifty three years old in February 2018 when he was diagnosed with Motor Neuron Disease. Just a few short months later he found himself confined to a wheelchair. But rather than succumbing to the darkness that threatened to overwhelm him in the days after his diagnosis he drew on his powerful faith and unwavering belief in life and found a way to light, hope and acceptance. From growing up in Fairview to serving in the dioceses in Ballymun and later Mount Merrion and Kilmacud and his charity work while in UCD Fr. Tony takes us on the journey of his life and shows us how through this devastating illness he came to know the true meaning and nature of God's love. Sadly Tony passed away on the 28 August 2019 but his memoir and his message of hope, strength and unwavering faith live on. Our lives will never be measured in words spoken or success achieved but rather how we live and how our life has affected those around us. Fr. Tony Coote

The Life of Saul Bellow, Volume 1 Zachary Leader, 2015-05-05 For much of his adult life Saul Bellow was the most acclaimed novelist in America, the winner of among other awards the Nobel Prize in Literature, three National Book Awards and the Pulitzer Prize. The Life of Saul Bellow by the literary scholar and biographer Zachary Leader marks the centenary of Bellow's birth as well as the tenth anniversary of his death. It draws on unprecedented access to Bellow's papers including much previously restricted material as well as interviews with more than 150 of the novelist's relatives, close friends, colleagues and lovers, a number of whom have never spoken to researchers before. Through detailed exploration of Bellow's writings and the private history that informed them, Leader chronicles a singular life in letters, offering original and nuanced accounts not only of the novelist's development and rise to eminence but of his many identities as writer, polemicist, husband, father, Chicagoan, Jew, American. The biography will be published in two volumes. The first volume, To Fame and Fortune 1915-1964, traces Bellow's Russian roots, his birth and early childhood in Quebec, his years in Chicago, his travels in Mexico, Europe and Israel, the first three of his five marriages and the novels from Dangling Man and The Adventures of Augie March to the best-selling Herzog.
