Manipulation Of Custom From Uprising To Intervention In The Solomon Islands:

The Manipulation of Custom Jon Fraenkel, 2004 An account of the 1998-2003 crisis a critical review of the major interpretations and an investigation of the underlying causes and analyses the post coup period up to the arrival of RAMSI in July 2003
Introductory Public Finance, Conflict, and International Interventions Tobias Akhtar Haque, 2025-06-20 This book provides a critical analysis of the political and conflict impacts of good governance public finance reforms showing how unintended distributional outcomes can undermine broader state building goals The international community expends enormous resources trying to build good governance institutions in countries emerging from war By ensuring efficiency increasing transparency and enhancing public accountability in the use of public resources the adoption of good governance institutions is assumed to support stability peace and sustainable economic growth Such assumptions however have a limited empirical basis and obscure a more complex reality Drawing from political science and institutional economics and evidence from major state building interventions in Afghanistan Timor Leste and Solomon Islands this book explores the impacts of technocratic good governance reforms in fragile environments Through the lens of public finance reform it illustrates how efforts to achieve efficiency and accountability while often bringing important benefits can also undercut the patronage channels that draw together powerful elites thereby increasing conflict pressures and eroding prospects for sustainable peace This book makes the case for a reconsideration of the good governance agenda and the appropriateness of its application in developing countries experiencing or at risk of war This book will be of interest to students of state building global governance political economy development studies and International Relations

Social Policies in Solomon Islands and Vanuatu Biman C. Prasad, Paul Kausimae, 2012 Solomon Islands and Vanuatu are two small states that have struggled to develop successful social policies since independence This study traces their social histories and examines factors that have hindered progress Future development requires a move away from traditional social structures and a focus on political stability and economic growth

Agency and Ownership in Reconciliation Caitlin Mollica, 2024-04-01 The importance of youth's substantive participation for the realization of inclusive reconciliation practices has rarely been acknowledged Agency and Ownership in Reconciliation provides a comprehensive nuanced and empirical account of the contribution of young people's voices to the success of transitional justice and peacebuilding practices Caitlin Mollica illustrates the role of political will and agency in the development of transitional justice mechanisms that are substantively inclusive of those traditionally marginalized by post conflict institutions most notably youth In doing so she highlights the importance of youth to lasting peace and meaningful justice She does so by looking specifically at how truth and reconciliation commissions from South Africa to the Solomon Islands engage with the voices of youth and the meanings youth self ascribe to their experiences during truth and reconciliation commission processes In a field which traditionally prioritizes stories about youth Agency and Ownership in Reconciliation looks to center stories by youth

Handbook of Governance in Small States Lino Briguglio,Jessica Byron,Stefano Moncada,Wouter Veenendaal,2020-12-17 This volume covers a wide spectrum of governance issues relating to small states in a global context While different definitions of governance are given in the chapters most authors associate governance with the setting and implementation of policies aimed at managing a country or territory and with the related institutional structures and interventions by political actors Generally good governance is associated with concepts such as policy effectiveness accountability transparency control of corruption encouragement of citizens voice and gender equality factors which are in turn linked with democracy What emerges from the book is that the societies of small states are being re shaped by various forces outside their control including the globalization process and climate change rendering their governance ever more complex These problems are not solely faced by small states but small country size tends to lead to a higher degree of exposure to external factors The chapters are grouped into four sections broadly covering political environmental social and economic governance Governance is influenced by many often intertwined factors the division of the book into four parts therefore does not detract from the fact that governance is multifaceted and such division was based on the primary focus of each particular study and its main disciplinary background The expert authors have moreover used a variety of approaches in the studies the subject of small states being well suited to scholarly work from different disciplines using qualitative quantitative and mixed approaches to arrive at useful conclusions

The Quest for the Good Life in Precarious Times Chris Gregory,Jon Altman,2018-04-01 The study of the quest for the good life and the morality and value it presupposes is not new To the contrary this is an ancient issue its intellectual history can be traced back to Aristotle In anthropology the study of morality and value has always been a central concern despite the claim of some scholars that the recent upsurge of interest in these issues is new What is novel is how scholars in many disciplines are posing the value question in new ways The global economic alignments of the present pose many political moral and theoretical questions but the central issue the essays in this collection address is how do relatively poor people of the Australia Pacific region survive in current precarious times In looking to answer this question contributors directly engage the values and concepts of their interlocutors At a time when understanding local implications of global processes is taking on new urgency these essays bring finely honed anthropological perspectives to matters of universal human concern they offer radical empirical critique based on intensive fieldwork that will be of great interest to those seeking to comprehend the bigger picture

The Rights of the Child in a Changing World Olga Cvejić Jančić, 2015-11-17 This book deals with the implementation of the rights of the child as enshrined in the Convention on the Rights of the Child in 21 countries from Europe Asia Australia and the USA It gives an overview of the legal status of children regarding their most salient rights such as the implementation of the best interest principle the right of the child to know about of his her origin the right to be heard to give medical consent the right of the child in the field of employment religious education of children prohibition of physical punishment protection of the child through deprivation of parental rights and in the case of inter country adoption In the last 25 years since the Convention on the Rights of the Child was adopted many States Parties to the Convention have made great efforts to pass legislation regulating the rights of the child in their commitment to the improvement of the legal status of the child However is that enough for any child to live better safer and healthier What are the practical effects of this international as well as many national instruments in the everyday life of children Have there been any outcomes in terms of improvement of their status around the world and improvement of the conditions under which they live since the Convention entered into force In tackling these questions this work presents a comparative overview of the implementation of the Convention and evaluates the results achieved

Gender, Property and Politics in the Pacific Rebecca Monson, 2023-01-26 Outlines how land disputes are entangled with gender ethnicity and territoriality shaping public authority and state formation

Civil Society and Transitional Justice in Asia and the Pacific Claire Cronin, Lia Kent, JoAnne Wallis, 2019-01-01 Over the last two decades civil society has helped catalyse responses to the legacies of violent conflicts and oppressive political regimes in Asia and the Pacific Civil society has advocated for the establishment of criminal trials and truth commissions monitored their operations and pushed for take up of their recommendations It has also initiated community based transitional justice responses Yet there has been little in depth examination of the breadth and diversity of these roles This book addresses this gap by analysing the heterogeneity of civil society transitional justice activity in Asia and the Pacific Based upon empirically grounded case studies of Timor Leste Indonesia Cambodia Myanmar Bougainville Solomon Islands and Fiji this book illustrates that civil society actors can have different and sometimes competing priorities resources and approaches to transitional justice Their work is also underpinned by diverse understandings of justice By reflecting on the richness of this activity this book advances contemporary debates about transitional justice and civil society It will also be a valuable resource for scholars and practitioners working on Asia and the Pacific

Understanding Oceania Stewart Firth, Vijay Naidu, 2019-05-23 This book is inspired by the University of the South Pacific the leading institution of higher education in the Pacific Islands region Founded in 1968 USP has expanded the intellectual horizons of generations of students from its 12 member countries Cook Islands Fiji Kiribati Marshall Islands Nauru Niue Samoa Solomon

Islands Tokelau Tonga Tuvalu and Vanuatu and been responsible for the formation of a regional elite of educated Pacific Islanders who can be found in key positions in government and commerce across the region At the same time this book celebrates the collaboration of USP with The Australian National University in research doctoral training teaching and joint activities Twelve of our 19 contributors gained their doctorates at ANU most of them before or after being students and or teaching staff at USP and the remaining five embody the cross fertilisation in teaching research and consultancy of the two institutions The contributions to this collection with a few exceptions are republications of key articles on the Pacific Islands by scholars with extensive experience and knowledge of the region

Christianity, Conflict, and Renewal in Australia and the Pacific, 2016-06-21 Cultural expressions of Christianity show great diversity around the globe While scholarship has tended to consider charismatic practices in distinct geographical contexts this volume advances the anthropology of Christianity through ethnographically rich comparative insights from across the Australia Pacific region Christianity Conflict and Renewal in Australia and the Pacific presents new perspectives on the performative dynamics of Christian belief conflict and renewal Addressing experiences of cultural and spiritual renewal contributors reveal how tensions can arise between spiritual and political expressions of culture and identity opening up alternative spaces for spiritual realization and religious change These local processes further mobilize responses of individuals and groups to state forces and political reforms in turn influencing the shape of translocal and transnational Christian practices Contributors are Diane Austin Broos John Barker Alison Dundon Yannick Fer Kirsty Gillespie Jessica Hardin Rodolfo Maggio Fiona Magowan Gwendoline Malogne Fer Debra McDougall Joel Robbins Carolyn Schwarz and John Taylor

Transformations of Gender in Melanesia Martha Macintyre, Ceridwen Spark, 2017-02-06 Despite the plethora of research on gender and the many projects designed to improve their status in the Pacific region women continue to be disadvantaged and marginalised in social economic and political spheres How are we to understand this and what does it mean for researchers policy makers and development practitioners This book examines these questions partly by looking back but also by continuing the effort to explain and understand gender inequities in the Pacific through reference to the concept of societies in transition The contributors discuss emerging masculinities and femininities in the Pacific in order to chart the development of these in their contexts Exploring how contemporary Pacific identities are shaped by local contexts and traditions they focus on how these are remade through interaction with global ideas images and practices including new forms of Christianity and economic transformations Grounded in recent original research in both the villages and towns of Melanesia the collection engages with the study of gender in Melanesia as well as scholarship on global modernities This collection is a welcome addition to the study of gender in Melanesia Collectively the essays present complex locally contextualised and regionally situated case studies of gender transformation occurring alongside in many instances the re codification of hegemonic gendered norms and practices Gender is not understood as simply code for women in this volume rather the majority of chapters incorporate men and masculinities in their analysis of gender relations and dynamics A highlight of the collection is the attention paid to how the politics of tradition and of modernity are expressed through morally loaded concepts of the good or bad woman or man and vice versa Kalissa Alexeyeff University of Melbourne
