Whitaker Prize Middle Atlantic Council of Latin American Studies 2019 In the 1930s the artistic and cultural patronage of celebrated Mexican president L zaro C rdenas transformed a small Michoac n city P tzcuaro into a popular center for national tourism C rdenas commissioned public monuments and archeological excavations supported new schools libraries and a public theater developed tourism sites and infrastructure including the Museo de Artes e Industrias Populares and hired artists to paint murals celebrating regional history traditions and culture The creation of P tzcuaro was formative for Mexico not only did it provide an early model for regional economic and cultural development but it also helped establish some of Mexico s most enduring national myths rituals and institutions In Creating P tzcuaro Creating Mexico Jennifer Jolly argues that P tzcuaro became a microcosm of cultural power during the 1930s and that we find the foundations of modern Mexico in its creation Her extensive historical and archival research reveals how C rdenas and the artists and intellectuals who worked with him used cultural patronage as a guise for radical modernization in the region Jolly demonstrates that the P tzcuaro project helped define a new modern body politic for Mexico in which the population was asked to emulate C rdenas by touring the country and seeing and embracing its land history and people Ultimately by offering Mexicans a means to identify and engage with power and privilege the creation of P tzcuaro placed art and tourism at the center of Mexico s postrevolutionary nation building project Syllabus Series University of California (System),1923 Bulletin ,1914
