Wagenaar, 2022-10-27 The authors of this book alert that professional services like law accountancy and consultancy firms are set to face major disruption The most important driver and enabler are the new technologies that help and in part substitute the work done by professionals The second important disruptor is the new generation of professionals NewGen who are less interested in building their careers in a hierarchical organization and more interested in entrepreneurial challenges in small teams with more rapid returns In the meanwhile major service conglomerates the big four accounting firms the big three consulting firms to name a few examples build their network using their brand and substantial resources All along the relentless pressure from clients to receive more services at lower cost continues Medium sized professional firms as well as one person independents appear to suffer most from these disruptions and are most anxious to find new ways to conduct their business But the leaders of large firms also feel that they are increasingly unable to support the innovative entrepreneurship of their most promising professionals while their organizations institutionalize and their overheads continue to grow This book proposes a new orientation and model of a professional service firm as an answer to these challenges by creating a Professional Service Community It is a synergistic team of organizations that share a vision of their role in society and main lines of their mission as well as the quality of their deliverables and their key clients At the same time they are independent in designing their internal business models like
