Robert Baden-Powell, 1897 The Matabele Campaign, 1896 R. S. S. Baden-Powell, 2015-07-20 Excerpt from The Matabele Campaign 1896 Being a Narrative of the Campaign in Suppressing the Native Rising in Matabeleland and Mashonaland My dear Mother It has always been an understood thing between us that when I went on any trip abroad I kept an illustrated diary for your particular diversion So I have kept one again this time though I can t say that I m very proud of the result It is a bit sketchy and incomplete when you come to look at it But the keeping of it has had its good uses for me Firstly because the pleasures of new impressions are doubled if they are shared with some appreciative friend and you are always more than appreciative Secondly because it has served as a kind of short talk with you every day Thirdly because it has filled up idle moments in which goodness knows what amount of mischief Satan might not have been finding for mine idle hands to do To the Reader The following pages contain sketches of two kinds namely sketches written and sketches drawn They were taken on the spot during the recent campaign in Matabeleland and Mashonaland and give a representation of such part of the operations as I myself saw They were jotted down but roughly at odd hours often when one was more fit for sleeping than for writing or in places where proper drawing materials were not available I would ask you therefore to look leniently upon their many faults The notes being chiefly extracts from my diary and from letters written home naturally teem with the pronoun I which I trust you will pardon but it is a fault difficult to avoid under the circumstances They deal with a campaign remarkable for the enormous extent of country over which it was spread for the varied components and inadequate numbers of its white forces and especially for the difficulties of supply and transport under which it was carried out points which I think were scarcely fully realized at home The operations were full of incident and interest and of lessons to those who care to learn Personally I was particularly lucky in seeing a good deal of Matabeleland and something of Mashonaland as well as in having a share in the work of organization in the office and in afterwards testing its results in the field Incidentally I came in for a good taste of the best of all arts sciences or sports scouting For these reasons I have been led to offer these notes to the public in case there might be aught of interest in them The thumbnail sketches claim the one merit of having been done on the spot some of them under fire Several of the illustrations have also appeared in the Graphic and Daily Graphic and are here reproduced through the courtesy of the proprietors of those journals About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works in Matabeleland and Mashonaland Major General Baden-Powell, 2014-03 Before he found fame as the triumphant defender of Mafeking in the Boer War Robert Baden Powell later the founder of the worldwide Scout movement was a notable colonial soldier in India and Africa and recorded his exploits in a number of books This is his account of his campaign to put down a revolt against British rule raised by the warlike Matabele tribe in the territory that later became Rhodesia and is today s Zimbabwe This lavishly illustrated book it carries 100 drawings photos and and maps some drawn in B Ps own hand for he was as gifted an artist as he was a warrior is the great man s own campaign diary The ideals of the Scout movement he would one day lead were already forming in B P s head for the book is full of advice to Be Prepared later the Scout movement s motto as well as unconscious humour such as the caption to a picture of B P charging down rocks hotly pursued by Matabele warriors When pursued by the Matabele among the boulders of the Matopo country it was of the greatest advantage to be equipped with rubber soled shoes and to have that command of your feet which is acquired in the practice of skirt dancing More than just a curio of a colonial campaign this book is a fascinating compendium of scouting lore and a must for anyone interested in Africa
