Maternal Body And Voice In Toni Morrison Bobbie Ann Mason And Lee Smith:

Maternal Body and Voice in Toni Morrison, Bobbie Ann Mason, and Lee Smith Paula Gallant Eckard, 2002 Body and Voice Paula Gallant Eckard, 1999 Lee Smith Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2019-02-28 This literary companion surveys the works of Lee Smith a Southern author lauded for her autobiographical familiarity with Appalachian settings and characters Her dialogue captures the distinct voices of mountain people and their perceptions of local and world events ranging from the Civil War to ecology and modernization Mental and physical disability and the Southern cultural norm of including the disabled as both family and community members are recurring themes in Smith s writing An A to Z arrangement of entries incorporates specific titles and themes such as belonging healing and death humor parenting and religion She who Imagines Laurie M. Cassidy, Maureen H. O'Connell, 2012 The idea and ideal of beauty has been used to oppress women of different ages body types skin color and physical ability The theoretical discussion of aesthetics has also been conditioned by these same dynamics of power and oppression In She Who Imagines a diverse set of scholars challenges the exclusion and false definitions while constructing capacious ideas that discover beauty in unexpected places In these essays the authors draw on a variety of arts media painting photography portraiture craftwork poetry and hip hop music thereby joining beauty to truth and in a richly defining way to the practice of justice In a variety of ways all the essays link women s definitions of beauty with experiences of suffering and hence with the yearning for justice All clearly prize resistance to degradation as an essential element of thought Understanding Lee Smith Danielle N. Johnson, 2018-07-31 A comprehensive treatment of the life and work of this award winning feminist Appalachian writer Since the release of her first novel The Last Day the Dogbushes Bloomed in 1968 Lee Smith has published nearly twenty books including novels short stories and memoirs She has received an O Henry Award Sir Walter Raleigh Award Robert Penn Warren Prize for Fiction and a Reader s Digest Award and her New York Times best selling novel The Last Girls won the Southern Book Critics Circle Award While Smith has garnered academic and critical respect for many of her novels such as Black Mountain Breakdown Oral History and Fair and Tender Ladies her writing has been viewed by some as lightweight fiction or even chick lit In Understanding Lee Smith Danielle N Johnson offers a comprehensive analysis of Smith s work including her memoir Dimestore treating her as a major Appalachian and feminist voice Johnson begins with a biographical sketch of Smith s upbringing in Appalachia her formal education and her career She explicates the themes and stylistic qualities that have come to characterize Smith s writing and outlines the criticism of Smith s work particularly that which focuses on female subjectivity artistry religion history and place in her fiction Too often Johnson argues Smith s consistent and powerful messages about artistry gender roles and historical discourse are missed or undervalued by readers and critics caught up in her quirky characters and dialogue In Understanding Lee Smith Johnson offers an analysis of Smith s oeuvre chronologically to study her growth as a writer and to highlight major events in her career and the influence they had on her work including a major shift in the early 1990s to writing about families communities and women living in the mountains Johnson reveals how Smith has refined her talent for creating nuanced voices and a narrative web of multiple perspectives and evolved into a writer of fine literary fiction worthy of critical study

Voicing the Self Carmen Rueda Ramos,2011-11-28 Este libro analiza la manera con la que Lee Smith ha dado voz a todos los aspectos de su experiencia tanto como mujer artista que vive en la Am rica contempor nea como nativa de la Appalachia una regi n sure a que todav a conserva un fuerte sentimiento de la tradici n oral y de v nculos con la comunidad Smith revisa y altera el lenguaje y los mitos que han condicionado sus b squedas de la identidad y han silenciado sus voces Al realizarlo explora la relaci n entre el hero smo femenino y la creatividad de las mujeres como algo distinto a la de los hombres En su lucha las hero nas de Smith reflejan el desarrollo personal y art stico de la escritora La relaci n conflictiva de sus personajes femeninos con la auto afirmaci n y con el mundo de la Appalachia revela los propios sentimientos ambivalentes de Smith hacia el concepto de individualidad y hacia sus ra ces culturales

Discourses of Ageing in Fiction and Feminism J. King,2012-11-13 This book explores the way older women are represented in society Through close readings of novels by major 20th century novelists compared with the more dominant representations of female ageing to be found in popular culture it suggests that they offer a feminist understanding of the invisible woman sometimes lacking in feminism itself

Maternal Metaphors of Power in African American Women's Literature Geneva Cobb Moore,2017-03-31 An in depth examination of Black women s experiences as portrayed in literature throughout American history Geneva Cobb Moore deftly combines literature history criticism and theory in Maternal Metaphors of Power in African American Women s Literature by offering insight into the historical black experience from slavery to freedom as depicted in the literature of nine female writers across several centuries Moore traces black women writers creation of feminine and maternal metaphors of power in literature from the colonial era work of Phillis Wheatley to the postmodern efforts of Paule Marshall Alice Walker and Toni

Morrison Through their characters Moore shows how these writers re created the identity of black women and challenge existing rules shaping their subordinate status and behavior Drawing on feminist psychoanalytic and other social science theory Moore examines the maternal iconography and counter hegemonic narratives by which these writers responded to oppressive conventions of race gender and authority Moore grounds her account in studies of Wheatley Harriet Jacobs Charlotte Forten Grimké Jessie Fauset Nella Larsen and Zora Neale Hurston All these authors she contends wrote against invisibility and powerlessness by developing and cultivating a personal voice and an individual story of vulnerability nurturing capacity and agency that confounded prevailing notions of race and gender and called into question moral reform In these nine writers construction of feminine images real and symbolic Moore finds a shared sense of the historically significant role of black women in the liberation struggle during slavery the Jim Crow period and beyond A foreword is offered by Andrew Billingsley a pioneering sociologist and a leading scholar in African American studies

Dancing in the Flames Linda Byrd Cook, 2009-05-13 This book examines Lee Smith's novel length fiction and its powerful reflection of her personal search for and journey toward spiritual reconciliation The protagonists of Smith's novels feel estranged from any sense of feminine sacredness as they struggle for a belief system that offers them hope and validation Chapters describe how Smith has retrieved in her fiction a source of transformative power the power of the sexual maternal feminine divine in hopes of creating a new image of the total sacred female whose sexuality creativity spirituality and maternity can reside comfortably in the bodies of everyday heroines

Bodily Evidence Geneva Cobb Moore, 2020-04-30 The first African American to win the Nobel Prize in Literature Toni Morrison is one of the most celebrated women writers in the world In Bodily Evidence Racism Slavery and Maternal Power in the Novels of Toni Morrison Geneva Cobb Moore explores how Morrison uses parody and pastiche semiotics and metaphors and allegory to portray black life in the United States teaching untaught history to liberate Americans In this short and accessible book originally published as part of Moore's Maternal Metaphors of Power in African American Women's Literature she covers each of Morrison's novels from The Bluest Eye to Beloved to God Help the Child With a new introduction and added coverage of Morrison's final book The Source of Self-Regard Selected Essays Speeches and Meditations Bodily Evidence is essential reading for scholars students and readers of Morrison's novels

Women's Identities and Bodies in Colonial and Postcolonial History and Literature Maria Isabel Romero Ruiz, 2012-01-17 Since the second half of the twentieth century there has been a commitment on the part of women writers and scholars to revise and rewrite the history and culture of colonial and post colonial women This collection intends to enter a forum of discussion in which the colonial past serves as a point of reference for the analysis of contemporary issues This volume will examine topics of women's identities and bodies through literary representations and historical accounts In other words the aim is to reconstruct women's identities through the representations of their bodies in literature and to analyse women's bodies historically as sites of abuse discrimination and violence on the one hand and of knowledge and cultural production on the other The chapters of this book will contribute to the formation of a new representation of women through history and literature which fights traditional stereotypes in relation to their bodies and identities Focusing on female bodies as maternal bodies as repositories of history and memory as sexual bodies as healing bodies as performative of gender as black bodies as migrant and hybrid bodies as the objects of regulation and control and as victims of sexual exploitation and murder the different articles contained in this book will examine issues of space power knowledge relations discrimination the production of knowledge gender and boundaries to produce new identities for women which contest and respond to the traditional ones The volume is addressed to a wide readership both scholars and those interested in investigating the dynamics of the female body and the social and cultural conceptualizations of our multicultural and multiethnic contemporary societies in relation to it without forgetting the historical and colonial roots of these new representations

Disability and Modern Fiction A. Hall,2011-11-11 Focusing on Faulkner Morrison and Coetzee as authors critics and Nobel Prize winning intellectuals this book explores shifting representations of disability in 20th and 21st century literature and proposes new ways of reading their works in relation to one another whilst highlighting the ethical aesthetic and imaginative challenges they pose

The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture M. Thomas Inge,2014-02-01 Offering a comprehensive view of the South s literary landscape past and present this volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture celebrates the region s ever flourishing literary culture and recognizes the ongoing evolution of the southern literary canon As new writers draw upon and reshape previous traditions southern literature has broadened and deepened its connections not just to the American literary mainstream but also to world literatures a development thoughtfully explored in the essays here Greatly expanding the content of the literature section in the original Encyclopedia this volume includes 31 thematic essays addressing major genres of literature theoretical categories such as regionalism the southern gothic and agrarianism and themes in southern writing such as food religion and sexuality Most striking is the fivefold increase in the number of biographical entries which introduce southern novelists playwrights poets and critics Special attention is given to contemporary writers and other individuals who have not been widely covered in previous scholarship

Desire and the Divine Kathaleen E. Amende, 2013-06-10 Explores the works and lives of late 20th century southern women writers Rosemary Daniell Connie May Fowler Lee Smith Sheri Reynolds Dorothy Allison and Valerie Martin to show how conservative Christian ideals of femininity shaped notions of religion sexuality and power and how they and their characters grappled with opposing cultural expectations

Recounting Cultural Encounters Marija Knežević, 2009-10-02 Contributions reprinted in this book highlight some of the wide ranging ways in which the issues of culture and identity can be approached in a literary text while focusing on the ways in which cultural encounters have been changing both the world and its reflection in literature The beginning of the twenty first century is an appropriate time to repay careful attention to these issues Understanding how our perception of the Other changes with the concept of the world we inhabit we want to emphasize the rising importance of fostering cultural pluralism and global understanding Having based their research on widespread readings in academia such as deconstruction post colonialism post modernism new historicism and narratology the authors of these papers proceed by addressing the metaphor of travel as one of the strongest metaphors for the evolution of mankind especially if considered under the light of the historically and politically imposed opposition between the progressive western and the static eastern or African societies However as the end of the imperialist era brought about poignant awareness of cultural relativism as well as deconstruction of the great narrative of progress facing the Other as an unconceptualized entity became a major moral concern of a modern traveller It is pronounced that this concern should be textually testified to dramatize the human inability to avoid verbal appropriation of the other The final question we seek to answer is whether the era of advanced technology and globalisation along with a post modern ironical attitude to hyper realities and textual transparencies has rendered the sphere of the text the only available point of concern of contemporary literature and thought in general For its argumentation strongly founded in recent literary studies and humanities in general its interdisciplinary nature and its focus on the actual global problems of abrupt cultural change and exchange its heightened understanding of the necessity of coexistence of differences in a changing world its spirit of tolerance and its international spirit in general we assume this collection will not only attract academic literary scholars but will also appeal to the general reading public

Resistance and the Sermon in American Literature Matthew Smalley, 2024-05-30 With seemingly obsessive regularity American authors from the mid nineteenth century to the present evoke the sermon at culturally loaded moments in their works deploying the form to underscore the cultural work they imagine their novels or poetry to perform Examining this longstanding tradition of literary preaching this book draws on literary applications of design theory to provide a nuanced account of American literature's complex anxious and persistent engagement with the Protestant sermon Analyzing literary preaching as a transhistorical form that simultaneously attracts and repels authors Smalley demonstrates how major US writers Ralph Waldo Emerson Walt Whitman Nathaniel Hawthorne Rebecca Harding Davis William Faulkner Zora Neale Hurston and Toni Morrison have subverted the sermon's predominantly religious content in order to reimagine profound moments of reform in a political cultural and aesthetic mode This study elucidates new lines of literary kinship offers fresh readings of familiar works and establishes literary preaching as an undertheorized but significant tradition in American literature

The Victorian Woman Question in Contemporary

Feminist Fiction J. King, 2005-06-01 The Victorian Woman Question in Contemporary Feminist Fiction explores the representation of Victorian womanhood in the work of some of today's most important British and North American novelists including A S Byatt Sarah Waters Margaret Atwood Angela Carter and Toni Morrison By analysing these novels in the context of the scientific religious and literary discourses that shaped Victorian ideas about gender it contributes to an important inter disciplinary debate For while showing the power of these discourses to shape women's roles the novels also suggest how individual women might challenge that power through their own lives
