Governance Antoinette Rouvroy, 2007-12-13 Original and interdisciplinary this is the first book to explore the relationship between a neoliberal mode of governance and the so called genetic revolution Looking at the knowledge power relations in the post genomic era and addressing the pressing issues of genetic privacy and discrimination in the context of neoliberal governance this book demonstrates and explains the mechanisms of mutual production between biotechnology and cultural political economic and legal frameworks In the first part Antoinette Rouvroy explores the social political and economic conditions and consequences of this new perceptual regime In the second she pursues her analysis through a consideration of the impact of geneticization on political support of the welfare state and on the operation of private health and life insurances Genetics and neoliberalism she argues are complicit in fostering the belief that social and economic patterns have a fixed nature beyond the reach of democratic deliberation whilst the characteristics of individuals are unusually plastic and within the scope of individual choice and responsibility This book will be of interest to all students of law sociology and politics

Bibliography of the History of Medicine, 1984 The Development of Bioethics in the United States Jeremy R. Garrett, Fabrice Jotterand, D. Christopher Ralston, 2012-12-30 In only four decades bioethics has transformed from a fledgling field into a complex rapidly expanding multidisciplinary field of inquiry and practice Its influence can be found not only in our intellectual and biomedical institutions but also in almost every facet of our social cultural and political life This volume maps the remarkable development of bioethics in American culture uncovering the important historical factors that brought it into existence analyzing its cultural philosophical and professional dimensions and surveying its potential future trajectories Bringing together a collection of original essays by seminal figures in the fields of medical ethics and bioethics it addresses such questions as the following Are there precise moments events socio political conditions legal cases and or works of scholarship to which we can trace the emergence of bioethics as a field of inquiry in the United States What is the relationship between the historico causal factors that gave birth to bioethics and the factors that sustain and encourage its continued development today Is it possible and or useful to view the history of bioethics in discrete periods with well defined boundaries If so are there discernible forces that reveal why transitions occurred when they did What are the key concepts that ultimately frame the field and how have they evolved and developed over time Is the field of bioethics in a period of transformation into biopolitics Contributors include George Annas Howard Brody Eric J Cassell H Tristram Engelhardt Jr Edmund L Erde John Collins Harvey Albert R Jonsen Loretta M Kopelman Laurence B McCullough Edmund D Pellegrino Warren T Reich Carson Strong Robert M Veatch and Richard M Zaner Bulletin ... University of St. Andrews.

Library, 1923 Cumulated Index Medicus, 1980 Britain, Poland and the Eastern Front, 1939 Anita J.

Prazmowska, 1987-07-23 This book offers a revisionist interpretation of British foreign policy towards Poland and the role of the Anglo Polish relationship during the period March September 1939 It challenges and questions hitherto held views on the British determination to defend Poland and oppose German expansion eastwards It includes a study of foreign policy economic policy and military planning This book is a major contribution to our knowledge of the outbreak of the war because it contains a unique and original study of the role of the Poles in British proposals for an eastern front and the Polish perception of their relationship with Germany Finally the inconclusive nature of British approaches to the Soviet Union and the Rumanian government are put into the context of the abortive proposal for an eastern front against Germany
