Not Needing all the Words Annick Hillger, 2006-05-26 Not Needing all the Words looks at Ondaatje's work in relation to the post Cartesian idea of the modern subject as split and alienated. Highlighting the distinction between aesthesis and logic Hillger traces the ways in which Ondaatje responds to the continuing process of silencing art in the modern age of reason.

Margaret Atwood Shannon Hengen, Ashley Thomson, 2007-05-22 Authors Shannon Hengen and Ashley Thomson have assembled a reference guide that covers all of the works written by the acclaimed Canadian author Margaret Atwood since 1988 including her novels Cat's Eye, The Robber Bride, Alias Grace and the 2000 Booker Prize winner The Blind Assassin. Rather than just including Atwood's books this guide includes all of Atwood's works including articles, short stories, letters and individual poetry. Adaptations of Atwood's works are also included as are some of her more public quotations. Secondary entries i.e. interviews, scholarly resources and reviews are first sorted by type and then arranged alphabetically by author to allow greater ease of navigation. The individual chapters are organized chronologically with each subdivided into seven categories: Atwood's Works, Adaptations, Quotations, Interviews, Scholarly Resources, Reviews of Atwood's Works and Reviews of Adaptations of Atwood's Works. The book also includes a chapter entitled Atwood on the Web as well as extensive author and subject indexes. This new bibliography significantly enhances access to Atwood material, a feature that will be welcomed by university, public and school librarians. Margaret Atwood: A Reference Guide 1988-2005 will appeal not only to Atwood scholars but to students and fans of one of Canada's greatest writers.

Dreamcraft Peter Dale Scott, 2024-04-15 so the long stretch of life reveals its curvature by those widely separated moments when we are brushed by this awareness of another that we do not know. In his latest collection of poems poet, deep state researcher and radical medievalist Peter Dale Scott interrogates topics that have occupied his later thought and writing such as moreness, our need as humans to be more than we are, minding and enmindment, the generative synergy engaging both hemispheres of our bicameral mind of intellectual and spiritual enlightenment now out of kilter. In pursuit of these themes Scott's voice ranges far from engaging with poets of the past and hopefully the future to critiques of coercive political power, from elegies for important figures in his life, Leonard Cohen, Daniel Ellsberg, Czeslaw Milosz and Robert Silvers to fan letters for minders Chelsea Manning and Dr Christine Blasey Ford. Dreamcraft is a book that crosses distances and straddles boundaries moving from whistleblower law to the mimetic properties of DNA, from the entropic spread of the drifting cosmos after the big bang to the push of lawn grass under foot.

The Essential Tom Marshall Tom Marshall, 2012-09-01

Number nine in our series of Essential Poets, this newly selected essential collection of Tom Marshall's poetry co-edited by his friends David Helwig and Michael Ondaatje pushes Marshall to his rightful place in the Canadian canon. culture with ten published collections of poetry four of critical essays and seven of fiction In this selected volume the reader will find verse from his early years daring and inventive imbuing the familiar Kingston landscape with an electric intensity One of his earliest poems Astrology suggests Marshall s range of tones the balance of humour and seriousness and the way his poems remain lyrical even when he is writing of bitter love self abasement and brilliant restless nights Also included is more reflective poetry from later in his life probing and elegant as he struggled with an ambiguous relationship to his parents But through them all one hears Marshall s distinctive voice his shrewd irony his daring intensity his preoccupation with mortality and the enduring power of myth

Locations of the Sacred William Closson James,2006-01-01 Where do Canadians encounter religious meaning Not where they used to In ten lively and wide ranging essays William Closson James examines various derivations of the sacred in contemporary Canadian culture Most of the essays focus on the religious aspects of modern Canadian English fiction for example in essays on the fiction of Hugh MacLennan Morley Callaghan Margaret Atwood and Joy Kogawa But James also explores other non literary events and activities in which Canadians have found something transcendent or revelatory Each of the chapters in Locations of the Sacred can be read independently as a discrete analysis of its subject Taken as a whole the essays make up a powerful argument for a new way of looking at the religious in contemporary Canada not in the traditional ways of being religious but in activities and locations previously thought to be secular Thus the domains and modes of the religious are expanded not restricted
