Dinkmeyer, Jr.,Gary D. McKay,1984-07 Correctional Counseling, Treatment, and Rehabilitation Robert D. Hanser,2023-12-14 Written for the undergraduate and graduate future practitioner Correctional Counseling Treatment and Rehabilitation will provide an overview of how counseling exists within the correctional environment both in institutional settings and community based settings Author Robert D Hanser recognized for both scholarship and practice in correctional mental health treatment uniquely positions this text to offer a real world practitioner focused approach to the topic Correctional Counseling Treatment and Rehabilitation approaches the reader with the presumption that there is a basic understanding of issues in corrections however there is not any true exposure to offender treatment Explaining the techniques and processes that are utilized in the actual treatment process this text will equip all future correctional practitioners with an understanding of basic concepts within correctional counseling and treatment that are up to date and relevant to the world of practitioners With a hands on approach this new text will guide students through how to apply this material throughout Out of Control Jaber F. Gubrium,1992-03-30 In a unique comparative ethnography of two family therapy programs Gubrium deftly shows how differing organizational perceptions make visible the social construction of domestic disorder Contrasting images of home life one viewing domestic order as a system of authority the other as a configuration of emotional bonds serve to highlight different senses of the family as being out of control and to recommend alternate forms of intervention The idea that the reality of home life and domestic troubles are embedded in organizational activities and institutional images is an important commentary on the understanding of domestic life and the postmodern family Out of Control provides stimulating reading for professionals and students in clinical psychology family therapy family studies sociology and qualitative methods Theories of Counseling and Therapy Jeffrey A. Kottler,Marilyn J. Montgomery,2010-12-01 A concise hands on and experiential text that helps readers understand and apply theory in counseling and psychotherapy Through a unique approach that makes understanding theories in counseling and psychotherapy fun stimulating and personally meaningful this fully updated Second Edition helps students comprehend the various and complex theories apply the material to their own lives through the use of the reflective exercises in every chapter and internalize the content of the course The book s three part structure includes an introductory section that provides the background necessary for understanding the theories a middle section that discusses the main theory families and a final section that focuses on synthesis and application Throughout the text the authors seek to surprise readers with the best of the past excite them with the vitality of the present and prepare them for their futures as therapists

Handbook of Diversity in Parent Education Marvin J. Fine, Steven W. Lee, 2000-10-09 Traditionally books on parent education have focused on techniques from a certain tradition either behavioral or humanistic that could be applied to any problem of parenting or child behavior change These books have used a cook book approach that is frequently oblivious to environmental conditions that influence behavior or take into account the individual differences of the children or families involved This book highlights the complexity of our society and times by exploring the problems faced by diverse types of parents children and parenting situations Moreover the sensitive issues of parenting in unique populations are handled in a caring straight forward way with an emphasis on research based parent education programs along with tips and strategies for everyday use Premier text on parent education in diverse populations Features tips strategies websites and support for parents Based upon cutting edge research in parent education Models for developing problem specific parenting programs Step by step parent education programs for low incidence problems Features violence and crisis prevention and intervention skills for families
