services Clinical Case Studies in Home Health Care uses a case based approach to provide home healthcare professionals educators and students with a useful tool for thoughtful holistic care The book begins with a thorough and accessible introduction to the principles of home health care including a discussion of supporting theoretical frameworks and information on managing complexities transitioning patients to home care and preparation for the home visit Subsequent sections are comprised entirely of case studies organized by body system Though cases are diverse in content each is presented in a consistent manner incorporating relevant data about the patient and caregivers and the approach to patient care and promoting a logical approach to patient presentation Cases also include helpful tips about reimbursement practices cultural competence community resources and rehabilitation needs Edelman and Kudzma's Canadian Health

Promotion Throughout the Life Span - E-Book Marian Luctkar-Flude,Jane Tyerman,Shannon Dames,2025-02-27 Gain the knowledge and skills you need to promote health and prevent disease in Canada Edelman and Kudzma s Canadian Health Promotion Throughout the Life Span Second Edition describes public health concepts from a Canadian perspective helping you to improve community health and reduce health inequities within a diverse population Covering the needs of each age and stage of life this book discusses care of the individual family and community all based on the latest research and trends in Canadian health promotion New chapters address the timely topics of Indigenous health and 2SLGBTQI health Written by respected Canadian educators Marian Luctkar Flude Shannon Dames and Jane Tyerman this book is the only Canadian nursing health promotion text on the market The Ethical Divorce Dr. Arthur Leonoff,2021-06-30 Divorce is a complicated process and not a single event It has major life implications and must be done right In this regard the optimal divorce is an ethical divorce The Ethical Divorce does not follow the pattern of the ubiquitous self help genre over simplified and formulaic Nevertheless it is designed to be helpful by providing an in depth exploration of the separation process post divorce adjustment telling the children caring for children from infants to teens decision making models pathologies of divorce and finally hope and recovery through creating an important space for discovery The author is a clinician and the book is written from the well of experience scholarship and study that professional practice provides Yet it is not written academically and is intended for a general as well as professional audience The reader will find the helpful inclusion of clinical examples and ample opportunities for reflection and deeper thinking into the many issues that arise in divorce for individuals and families The essential premise is that the impact of divorce is worsened by the way it is handled rather than something necessarily inherent to the event itself There is a required ethic which when followed leads to the healthiest divorce possible Knowledge is power in this regard Handbook of Parenting Masud S Hoghughi,Nicholas Long,Nicholas James Long,2004-03-08 A single volume textualization of the growing level of interest in research educational and professional activity within the broadly defined field of parenting Cost-benefit/cost-effectiveness Research of Drug Abuse Prevention William J. Bukoski,Richard Isadore Evans,1998 At Risk Karen Swift,Marilyn Callahan,2009-10-10 In At Risk Karen J Swift and Marilyn Callahan examine risk and risk assessment in the context of professional practice in child protection social work and other human services They argue that the tools technologies and practices used to measure risk to the individual have gone unquestioned and unstudied and that current methods of risk assessment may be distorting the principles of social justice Central to this study is an examination of the everyday experiences of workers and parents engaged in risk assessment processes in Canadian child welfare investigations Going beyond theory Swift and Callahan highlight how risk evaluations play out in actual interactions with vulnerable people Pointing out that standardized risk assessment tools do not take factors such as class race gender and culture into account At Risk raises important questions about the viability of risk management plans that are not tailored to individual situations Advanced Pediatric Assessment Set, Third Edition Ellen M.
