Paris Manhattan Peter Wollen, 2004-04-17 Peter Wollen is a master in the art of making unexpected connections and this new book suggests many different ways of writing and thinking about art Paris/Manhattan Peter Wollen, 2004 Peter Wollen is a master in the art of making unexpected connections and this new book suggests many different ways of writing and thinking about art Writing Architectures Hélène Frichot, Naomi Stead, 2020-10-29 Architects and fiction writers share the same ambition to imagine new worlds into being Every architectural proposition is a kind of fiction before it becomes a built fact likewise every written fiction relies on the construction of a context in which a story can take place This collection of essays explores what happens when fiction experimental writing and criticism are combined and applied to architectural projects and problems It begins with ficto criticism an experimental and often feminist mode of writing which fuses the forms and genres of essay critique and story and extends it into the domain of architecture challenging assumptions about our contemporary social and political realities and placing architecture in contact with such disciplines as cultural studies literary theory and ethnography These sixteen newly written pieces have been selected for this volume to show how ficto critical writing can be a powerful vehicle for creative architectural practice providing new opportunities to explore modes of writing about architecture both within and beyond the discipline The collection represents a broad range of geographical and cultural positions including indigenous and non Western contexts and includes a foreword and afterword by important thinkers in the domains of architectural criticism Jane Rendell and cultural studies ethnography Stephen Muecke

Consuming Surrealism in American Culture Sandra Zalman, 2017-07-05 Consuming Surrealism in American Culture Dissident Modernism argues that Surrealism worked as a powerful agitator to disrupt dominant ideas of modern art in the United States Unlike standard accounts that focus on Surrealism in the U S during the 1940s as a point of departure for the ascendance of the New York School this study contends that Surrealism has been integral to the development of American visual culture over the course of the twentieth century Through analysis of Surrealism in both the museum and the marketplace Sandra Zalman tackles Surrealism s multi faceted circulation as both elite and popular Zalman shows how the American encounter with Surrealism was shaped by Alfred Barr William Rubin and Rosalind Krauss as these influential curators mobilized Surrealism to compose to concretize or to unseat narratives of modern art in the 1930s 1960s and 1980s alongside Surrealism s intersection with advertising Magic Realism Pop and the rise of contemporary photography As a popular avant garde Surrealism openly resisted art historical classification forcing the supposedly distinct spheres of modernism and mass culture into conversation and challenging theories of modern art in which it did not fit in large part because of its continued relevance to contemporary American culture The Films of Laura Mulvey and Peter Wollen , 2023-04-20 This collection of Laura Mulvey and Peter Wollen s film scripts vividly evokes the close connection between their influential work as theorists and their work as filmmakers It includes scripts for all six of Mulvey and Wollen s collaborative films Wollen's solo feature film Friendship's Death 1987 and Mulvey's later collaborations Each text is followed by a new essay by a leading writer offering a critical interpretation of the corresponding film The collection also includes Wollen's short story Friendship's Death 1976 the outlines for two unrealised Mulvey and Wollen collaborations and a selection of scanned working documents The scripts and essays collected in this volume trace the historical significance of a complex cinematic project that brought feminist semiotic and psychoanalytic concerns together with formal devices and strategies The book includes original contributions from Nora M Alter Kodwo Eshun Nicolas Helm Grovas Esther Leslie Laura Mulvey Volker Pantenburg Griselda Pollock B Ruby Rich and Sukhdev Sandhu Art in the City, the City in Art Elisha

Masemann, 2024-03-31 This Book examines an interplay between discourses on the city that stress the need for rational functional order and art's imaginative deviations from the topdown structures of urban life Moving between theory and praxis the book situates the city as both a concept and physical construct through which lives and possibilities are shaped or defined In response certain modalities of art create spontaneous non rational and playful interludes that risk escape from the urban apparatus and a hyper valorisation of rational order A three part framework is used to discuss this push pull dynamic and to assess the strategies of shock performative embodiment and intervention that emerged in post war art movements and in contemporary performance and participatory art practices The book examines how the disturbances introduced by artists throw the city construct into sharp relief making it visible and activating momentary encounters where new modes of expression can emerge This Book offers a new approach to interdisciplinary studies of art and urbanity The book aims to delineate how the city as concept and construct is made visible through artistic practice and in turn challenged or interrogated Students researchers and professionals with an interest in the interaction between art and urban studies will discover a new perspective on how urban conditions and issues have been addressed through artistic practice The book contributes to an evolving discourse in the urban humanities through an exposition of the city's default construct that is made visible or reimaged through visual art in public spaces Writing Art History Margaret Iversen, Stephen

Melville, 2010-12 Since art history is having a major identity crisis as it struggles to adapt to contemporary global and mass media culture this book intervenes in the struggle by laying bare the troublesome assumptions and presumptions at the field's foundations in a series of essays Photography David Bate, 2020-09-25 Providing a thorough and comprehensive

Photo-Attractions Ajay Sinha,2022-11-11 In Spring 1938 an Indian dancer named Ram Gopal and an American writer photographer named Carl Van Vechten came together for a photoshoot in New York City Ram Gopal was a pioneer of classical Indian dance and Van Vechten was reputed as a prominent white patron of the African American movement called the Harlem Renaissance Photo Attractions describes the interpersonal desires and expectations of the two men that took shape when the dancer took pose in exotic costumes in front of Van Vechten s Leica camera The spectacular images provide a rare and compelling record of an underrepresented history of transcultural exchanges during the interwar years of early 20th century made briefly visible through photography Art historian Ajay Sinha uses these hitherto unpublished photographs and archival research to raise provocative and important questions about photographic technology colonial histories race sexuality and transcultural desires Challenging the assumption that Gopal was merely objectified by Van Vechten s Orientalist gaze he explores the ways in which the Indian dancer co authored the photos In Sinha s reading Van Vechten s New York studio becomes a promiscuous contact zone between world cultures where a photo erotic triangle is formed between the American photographer Indian dancer and German camera A groundbreaking study of global modernity Photo Attractions brings scholarship on American photography literature race and sexual economies into conversation with work on South Asian visual culture dance and gender In these remarkable historical documents it locates the pleasure taken in cultural difference that still resonates today

Cross-channel Perspectives Leila Wimmer,2009 This book is the first ever full length study of the reception of British cinema in post war France challenging Francois Truffaut s infamous dismissal of British cinema as a contradiction in terms a comment which has been and still is widely reproduced yet has until now remained critically unexplored A historical account the book gathers together well known episodes such as Cahiers du cin ma in the 1950s and critics Andr Bazin Francois Truffaut Jean Luc Godard along with original new material and thus throws new light on a topic which given the influential nature of French film criticism and cinephilia continues to be at the core of film culture
