The First Hollywood Sound Shorts, 1926-1931 Edwin M. Bradley,2015-06-14 This study of early sound shorts begins with an explanation of the development of sound motion pictures in Hollywood by such influential companies as Warner Bros and Fox with an emphasis on short subjects leading up to the first few months when all of the major studios were capable of producing them The next chapters discuss the impact on other mass entertainments the development of audible news reels and other non fiction shorts as well as the origins of animated sound subjects A comprehensive list of pre 1932 American made shorts completes the volume Bulletin of Bibliography ,1929 NBS Monograph United States. National Bureau of Standards,1962 French Film Theory and Criticism, Volume 1 Richard Abel,2020-12-08 These two volumes examine a significant but previously neglected moment in French cultural history the emergence of French film theory and criticism before the essays of Andr Bazin Richard Abel has devised an organizational scheme of six nearly symmetrical periods that serve to bite into the discursive flow of early French writing on the cinema Each of the periods is discussed in a separate and extensive historical introduction with convincing explications of the various concepts current at the time In each instance Abel goes on to provide a complementary anthology of selected texts in translation Amounting to a portable archive these anthologies make available a rich selection of nearly one hundred and fifty important texts most of them never before published in English Report of the Library Syndicate Cambridge University Library,1905 The Official Record of the United States Department of Agriculture United States. Department of Agriculture,1927 Blast Furnace and Steel Plant ,1929 Publications Received in the Library of the National Bureau of Standards, July 1962 Natalie J. Hopper,United States. America and the Making of an Independent Ireland Francis M. Carroll, 2021-01-05 Examines how the Irish American community the American public and the American government played a crucial role in the making of a sovereign independent Ireland On Easter Day 1916 more than a thousand Irishmen stormed Dublin city center seizing the General Post Office building and reading the Proclamation for an independent Irish Republic The British declared martial law shortly afterward and the rebellion was violently quashed by the military In a ten day period after the event fourteen leaders of the uprising were executed by firing squad In New York news of the uprising spread quickly among the substantial Irish American population Initially the media blamed German interference but eventually news of British propagated atrocities came to light and Irish Americans were quick to respond America and the Making of an Independent Ireland centres on the diplomatic relationship between Ireland and the United States at the time of Irish Independence and World War I Beginning with the Rising of 1916 Francis M Carroll chronicles how Irish Americans responded to the movement for Irish independence and pressuring the US government to intervene on the side of Ireland Carroll's in depth analysis demonstrates that Irish Americans after World War I raised funds for the Dáil Éireann government and for war relief while shaping public opinion in favor of an independent nation The book illustrates how the US government was the first power to extend diplomatic recognition to Ireland and welcome it into the international community Overall Carroll argues that the existence of the state of Ireland is owed to considerable effort and intervention by Irish Americans and the American public at large
