Parish As Learning Community:

The Church As Learning Community Norma Cook Everist, 2010-10-01 Norma Cook Everist contends that it is meaningful to say that in ministries of administration outreach and pastoral care the church is functioning as a learning community. Whenever and wherever Christians are being formed into the image of Jesus Christ through ministry, there Christian education is taking place. Christian education is the name we give to that process of formation. Building on this central insight, Everist has written a major new introduction to the tasks and practices of Christian education. Part 1 of the book focuses broadly on what it means to be the church in the world. Part 2 shows how being a learning community requires ongoing growth in faith throughout the span of life. Part 3 shifts focus to the church as it moves into the community and world.

Parish as Learning Community Tom Downs, 1979      Toward an Adult Church Jane E. Regan, 2002 Penance Confirmation Eucharist Children participate in these sacraments and many other Catholic rites thanks to America's long standing model of parish catechesis. Once children become adults, however, what becomes of their faith formation? In Toward an Adult Church: A Vision of Faith Formation, Jane Regan explores the current structure of parish catechesis, basing her ideas on contemporary theory and traditional practice. Regan sets forth an intriguing argument: the vitality of the Church depends on establishing a new education paradigm, one that is focused on adults. How can parishes design a framework for adult catechesis? Will such programs be accepted by local church communities? Where does children's faith formation fit into the new structure? Regan answers these questions and offers ideas for developing a balanced approach to religious education, one that addresses the ongoing faith life of adults.

Receptive Ecumenism Vicky Balabanski, Geraldine Hawkes, 2018-11-01 This book is a response to the growing recognition of Receptive Ecumenism as a concept and process that has the potential to bring about the greater flourishing of the Church, both within denominations and across the Church universal.

The Living Church, 1977-07      Horizons & Hopes Thomas H. Groome, Harold Daly Horell, 2003 Essays exploring the latest ideas on where religious education is headed, with an emphasis on adult and young adult faith formation in the context of total catechesis.

Generations of Faith Resource Manual John Roberto, Mariette Martineau, 2005-07 This invaluable resource offers planning processes and practical tools for fashioning and implementing a lifelong curriculum. Includes a CD-ROM with PowerPoint presentations for each chapter as well as worksheets and handouts.

Pauline Communities as 'scholastic Communities' Claire S. Smith, 2012 Edwin Judge's description of early Christian communities as scholastic communities provides the starting point of a search for a sociological description of the Christian communities portrayed in 1 Corinthians 1 and 2 Timothy and Titus. An original methodology uses a multi-layered exegetical approach to study every occurrence of the vocabulary of teaching in the letters. The focus is on the activity of teaching: e.g. participants, method, manner, purpose, result, etc. The vocabulary represents ten semantic groupings which shed further light on the place and practice of education in the communities: core teaching, speaking, traditioning, announcing, revealing, worshipping, commanding, correcting, remembering.

imitation and false teaching Claire S Smith supports and develops Judge s 1960 description advancing on it by showing that the communities are better described as learning communities with horizontal human human and vertical divine human dimensions Congregation James F. Hopewell, In a unique full scale study of congregational life Hopewell shows that it is narrative the oral tradition that knits a congregation together Parish Ministry for Maturing Adults Richard P. Johnson,2007 The current crisis in parish ministry for maturing adults is the reason Richard Johnson wrote this book It is his clear intention that parishes become more active more assertive and more focused on the fundamentals of ministering to those in their maturing years As he looks into the future the author sees this ministry growing steadily and surely taking its rightful place among other parish ministries He calls for a new vision for parish ministry with maturing adults that moves beyond social activities to a new model of spiritual growth and personal development Virtual Theology, Faith and Adult Education Ros Stuart-Buttle,2013-07-29 Online learning is a key feature of the contemporary educational landscape and has entered mainstream policy provision and practice But if online education is to reach mature development and evaluation it must be open to critical appraisal This book considers the implementation of online learning within adult theological education This can be an area of challenge or contention especially when established academic practices and cherished values are seen as threatened when handed over to online delivery This opens questions about theology pedagogy and online education Does online teaching and learning bring or demand a new or transformed disruptive pedagogy or does it result in maintenance or replication sustaining of traditional values and existing practices What might the opportunities and benefits be Who stands to gain Who stands to lose And what evidence is there to evaluate the quality of doing theology online This book examines a long standing programme of continuing professional development delivered fully online to adult practitioners working across Christian education and ministry settings It builds upon the author s international experience as an online educator for over a decade Key themes relate adult learning to theological pedagogy authority and online community The concept of interruptive pedagogy is presented as an interpretative model to critically appraise an approach to online education that draws on the best theological tradition yet also looks to the future Becoming a Church of Lifelong Learners John Roberto,2006 The key in the Generations approach to faith formation is that it builds on the strengths of a parish s current catechetical program while creating a lifelong faith formation plan and intergenerational learning programs that gather all the generations to learn together and nurture faith at home throughout the life cycle The CD ROM includes PowerPoint presentations for each chapter along with articles by religious education theorists who have been instrumental in developing a new paradigm of lifelong faith formation The book is ideal for parish pastoral and catechetical leaders as well as university courses in religious education and pastoral ministry Crossroads Robert J. A. Doornenbal,2012 Leadership for Catholic Youth Ministry Thomas East,Alejandro Aguilera-Titus,2009 Catechetical Youth Ministry Return to the Parish David Horn,Jason R. McConnell,2022-11-04 Return to the Parish The Pastor in the Public Square is a pastoral theology that challenges pastors to view their local community rather than their congregation as their primary sphere of ministry Too many churches have become insular by hoarding their resources including their pastors and trying to sustain their own survival instead of seeking the peace and prosperity of their town or city By breathing new life into an old idea of parish this book casts a vision for pastors and churches to actively engage their community with the gospel rather than simply perpetuate more programs inside the church It offers a new paradigm for pastoral ministry where pastors model and mobilize their churches to make disciples of Jesus Christ in the public square through community involvement and cultural engagement The book chronicles seven young pastors from diverse ministry contexts as they seek to become new parish pastors who lead their congregations into engaging various sectors of the public square business and workplace science and technology healthcare politics education the arts and multiethnic settings      Community as Church, Church as Community Michael Plekon, 2021-07-22 Parishes of all denominations are in decline shrinking closing dying We know that there are increasing numbers young and older who are religious nones and dones This book explores why the decline is taking place why the distancing is going on But it goes on to examine parishes from all over the country and from various church bodies that are resurrecting The central theme of death and resurrection shapes the analysis of parishes covered Parishes are resurrecting by reinventing their ministries by repurposing their building to better serve their neighborhoods thus replanting and reconnecting with them All of this is the Spirit s doing but through the community of sisters and brothers who make up each congregation of faith Community as the core of church is the other reality shaping the book s reflection And community a parish being with those around living for more than its own survival are visions for going forward Other aspects of congregational life are also examined most importantly the pastors how they serve when budgets shrink how they are trained how pastors act with the community not above it No recipes are suggested for parish resurrection but the stories of the parishes that have revived bear within numerous lessons for us in the future      Energising Teaching Frank Crowther, 2016-11-01 As a prospective beginning or established teacher you have a unique blend of skills passions personality traits and pedagogical styles that informs your approach to the profession But the job is not an easy one How can you utilise your strengths so that you don t burn out Career energy direction and longevity begins with identifying the kind of teacher you would like to be so you can like what you do and like how you do it Through case studies personal stories exercises and strategies Energising Teaching gives you the tools you need to inform your personal reason for teaching your preferred teaching style and your love of the craft and to direct your unique gift towards effective transformative teaching Based on the successful IDEAS project created by acclaimed educator author and presenter Frank Crowther Energising Teaching will show you how to undertake self reflection and critique individually across your school or in your cohort in order to build on your existing expertise and renew your drive for the job resulting in better outcomes for your students your school and yourself Energising Teaching is a must read for anyone seeking to make a difference in education      Towards a
