Park City New And Selected Stories:

Park City Ann Beattie, 2015-07-15 Thirty six stories eight appearing in a book for the first time and a generous selection from her earlier collections give us Ann Beattie at stunning mid career Emotionally complex edgy and funny the stories encompass a huge range of tone and feeling The wife of a couple who have lost a child comforts her husband with an amazing act of tenderness A man who s been shifting from place to place always finding the same kind of people sometimes the same people in various configurations tries to locate himself in the universe An intricate dance of adultery brings down a marriage A housekeeper experiences a startling epiphany while looking into her freezer one hot summer night The long humorous roll of a couple s four night fight finally explodes into happiness Beattie has often been called the chronicler of her generation and these stories capture perfectly the moods and actions of our world since the seventies people on the move living in group houses smoking too much dope people settling down splitting up coming to terms Margaret Atwood said of a previous collection that a new Beattie is almost like a fresh bulletin from the front We snatch it up eager to know what s happening out there on the edge of that shifting and dubious no man s land known as interpersonal relations The new stories have the same power A family secret is revealed in a strange and puzzling act that becomes understood only many years later In an AIDS ward certain questions take on special significance A hostile eight year old and his father s live in girlfriend move in fits and starts toward d tente In prose by turns laserlike and lyrical these memorable evocative stories authentically recall the details and feelings of their time But the truths revealed are as in all fiction of the first rank timeless The Columbia Companion to the Twentieth-Century American Short Story Blanche H. Gelfant, 2004-04-21 Esteemed critic Blanche Gelfant s brilliant companion gathers together lucid essays on major writers and themes by some of the best literary critics in the United States Part 1 is comprised of articles on stories that share a particular theme such as Working Class Stories or Gay and Lesbian Stories The heart of the book however lies in Part 2 which contains more than one hundred pieces on individual writers and their work including Fitzgerald Hemingway Richard Ford Raymond Carver Eudora Welty Andre Debus Zora Neal Hurston Anne Beattie Bharati Mukherjee J D Salinger and Jamaica Kincaid as well as engaging pieces on the promising new writers to come on the scene Thematic Guide to Popular Short Stories Patrick A. Smith, 2002-10-30 Providing easy access to information on nearly 450 short stories this unique guide surveys a wide spectrum of world literature canonical works and contemporary fiction Librarians and teachers will find multiple purposes for this expertly compiled resource which can be employed in much the same way as a standard bibliography Educators will appreciate the concise annotations arranged alphabetically by author that form the core of this work Insightful critical statements synthesize plot summaries and identify the thematic content of each short story A theme guide utilizes the nearly 100 theme headings matching those at the start of each entry allowing the user to quickly locate story titles on related themes and construct reading lists based on individual interests and needs Another component designed to aid librarians offers one bibliography that lists the anthologies from which the stories are drawn Works Cited and one comprised of a number of recent anthologies that can be adapted for the classroom Further Reading In addition to the theme index the general subject and author indexes make this a user friendly and invaluable resource

Conversations with Ann Beattie Dawn Trouard,2007 Collected interviews with the quintessential New Yorker writer author of such books as The Doctor's House Follies and Falling in Place My Life, Starring Dara Falcon Ann Beattie,2015-07-15 In her latest novel the author of Another You combines intensely realistic description and an effortless command of mood to examine the treacherous difference between love and fascination between what we know about other people and what we think we know Dara Falcon is someone other people think they know Charismatic and theatrical she has no sooner arrived in a New England town than she is wreaking havoc in the lives of her new friend Jean and her family As Ann Beattie follows Dara's antics she braids subplots and vibrant characters into a work that is compassionate tartly funny and teeming with life

,1917 The Best College Short Stories Henry Thomas,1925 Reading for Storyness Susan Lohafer,2020-03-03 The short story has been a staple of American literature since the nineteenth century taught in virtually every high school and consistently popular among adult readers But what makes a short story unique In Reading for Storyness Susan Lohafer former president of the Society for the Study of the Short Story argues that there is much more than length separating short stories from novels and other works of fiction With its close readings of stories by Kate Chopin Julio Cortázar Katherine Mansfield and others this book challenges assumptions about the short story and effectively redefines the genre in a fresh and original way In her analysis Lohafer combines traditional literary theory with a more unconventional mode of research monitoring the reactions of readers as they progress through a story to establish a new poetics of the genre Singling out the phenomenon of imminent closure as the genre's defining trait she then proceeds to identify preclosure points or places where a given story could end in order to access hidden layers of the reading experience She expertly harnesses this theory of preclosure to explore interactions between pedagogy and theory formalism and cultural studies fiction and nonfiction Returning to the roots of storyness Lohafer illuminates the intricacies of classic short stories and experimental forms of surreal postmodern and minimalist fiction She also discusses the impact of social constructions such as gender on the identification of preclosure points by individual readers Reading for Storyness combines cognitive science with literary theory to present a compelling argument for the uniqueness of the short story Contemporary American Women

Fiction Writers Laurie Champion,Rhonda Austin,2002-11-30 American women writers have long been creating an extraordinarily diverse and vital body of fiction particularly in the decades since World War II Recent authors have benefited from the struggles of their predecessors who broke through barriers that denied women opportunities for self expression This reference highlights American women writers who continue to build upon the formerly male dominated canon Included are alphabetically arranged entries for more than 60 American women writers of diverse ethnicity who wrote or published their most significant fiction after World War II Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes L DBLA brief biography L DBLA discussion of major works and themes DBLA survey of the writer's critical reception L DBLA bibliography
