we stimulate the brain internally to control patient movement disorder with Parkinson's why not go reverse and stimulate externally the patient brain in a safe and non invasive way used for centuries by the Traditional Chinese Medicine I called the method OBS OUT BRAIN STIMULATION which is the reversed action of DEEP BRAIN STIMULATION There is an extremely old simple philosophy at the back of the OUT BRAIN STIMULATION method From the time we were simple protozoans our unicellular bodies had to be capable of self healing fast and complete as a sine qua non condition of survival So any trauma caused to the body it's an opportunity for starting the healing process What are we doing when we apply soft and repetitive slapping on a certain part of our body We activate the ancient principle of self healing Under the muscles nerves skin tissue and many other elements we activate the bone marrow from the bones Bone marrow is responsible for generating the famous stem cells capable of healing any type of cells from our body This is the healing principle at the back of OBS Brilliant isn't it We encourage the readers of our Ebook to step out of the box and choose the FAMOUS RED PILL from the MATRIX copy and access safely the link below <http://tiny.cc/vv68jz> Enjoy your Liberation Journey MRCPsych: Passing the CASC Exam
